POSTAL RECEIPTS LARGE.
Oregon City Office Wins Free Mail Delivery.

According to the annual report of Postmaster T. P. Randall, just completed, the receipts of the Oregon City post office for the fiscal year, ending June 30th last, were $13,175, as against $10,307, for the preceding year. This increase in postal receipts, amounting to 33 1-3 per cent, not only entitles the city to a free delivery of mail within the corporate limits, but adds $100 per annum to the salary of the postmaster, who will hereafter receive $2300 per year.

Residents are very generally co-operating with Postmaster Randall in his efforts to secure for the city a free delivery of mail, a service to which the city is entitled by reason of its enlarged postal receipts. Property owners are complying with numbering ordinance, recently enacted by the Council, and within a short time all residences and business houses will be properly designated. When this condition has been complied with, formal application will be made of the post-office department at Washington for the mail delivery service.

HENRY MELDRUM SENTENCED.
Henry Meldrum, former U. S. Surveyor-General for Oregon, was yesterday morning sentenced by Federal Judge Wolverson to serve 60 days each on 18 counts charging conspiracy to defraud the Government and to pay a fine of $250 each on 21 counts. The aggregate sentence means imprisonment at hard labor at the Federal prison at McNeill's Island, Washington, for nearly three years and a fine of $5250. If compelled to serve the full term, he will walk forth from prison walls a free man no June 24, 1909. Good behavior on his part will terminate the sentence on May 7, 1908.

CELEBRATE AT GLADSTONE.
Congressman-elect Hawley and Homer L. Castle Were the Orators.

Twenty-five hundred people assembled at Gladstone Park Wednesday and indulged in a genuine old-fashioned family picnic in celebration of the country's anniversary. Oratory of an eloquent and appropriate quality was supplied by Congressman-elect W. C. Hawley, who addressed the audience in the morning and Homer L. Castle, the prohibition leader, of Pittsburg, Pa., who spoke in the afternoon.

Music constituted the chief feature of the day's programme. Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges, of Salem and Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, of this city, were the soloists of the day and their numbers were fully appreciated. Father Dominick's "Beautiful Willamette" was sung by a chorus of 50 voices, directed by Mrs. Brodie. Music, both vocal and instrumental, was furnished by the Hawaiian Royal Band and Glee Club, and the band from the State Industrial School, at Salem, also played.

The afternoon was devoted largely to sports with the exception of the programme at the auditorium. Farr's clever high-jumping dog "Maximo," the champion performer of its kind in the world, entertained the large throng of people by leaping twice from a 60-foot elevation into a net. Numerous foot races and other contests usually engineered on the Fourth were carried out to the great amusement of the spectators.

The day passed here without an accident of any kind.

MANY INVEST AT CANBY.
Business men from Canby, who were in the city yesterday, report an unusual activity in real estate in that section of the county. Farming lands in the vicinity of Canby and Barlow are being acquired largely by Norwegians who are very generally colonizing that section of the county. Rough unimproved land has been sold as high as $60 per acre. Good improved farm land has brought fabulous prices and there is good demand for lands of all kinds. It is a thrifty and industrious class of Norwegians that is locating in Clackamas county, in the development of which they are taking an active part.

THE SMILE
that won't come off, appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, the great worm medicine. Why not keep up that smile on baby's face. If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. S. Blackwell, Okla., writes: "My baby was peevish and fretful. Would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and he has not had a sick day since." Sold by Huntley Bros. Co.

MRS T. J. MATHEWS LAID TO REST

At 2:30 p. m., Sunday, July 1st, Mrs. T. J. Mathews passed to the Eternal Rest beyond, at the residence of her son, J. H. Mathews, East 13th Street, Portland, Oregon, at the age of 59 years and six months.

Deceased was born in the State of Tennessee, February 10, 1847. She with her husband and children, came to Oregon 24 years ago, and settled on the bank of the Clackamas river—near the place where Estacada now stands. Here she made her home, until stricken by illness, whereupon she was removed to Portland. She had been an invalid for more than a year. During her illness she exhibited great patience and forbearance, always thoughtful concerning the comfort of others, with never a thought of "self." Her kind, patient, and cheerful disposition, won for her a wide circle of friends wherever she lived.

She leaves a husband, four sons and a daughter to mourn her demise, as follows: J. H. Mathews and Mrs. Anna Stoller, of Portland; O. S. and J. E. Mathews of Milwaukie; and D. P. Mathews, of Oregon City.

At 2:30 p. m. July 3d, the last sad rites were conducted by Rev. Thompson, at the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the Milwaukie cemetery. Many were the tributes of honor paid this dearly loved wife and mother. Hosts of friends mourn her demise; For "none knew her but to love her."

Though gone from this life of sorrows, the influence of her beautiful life will still live on.

SEND THIS BOOK EAST.

O. R. & N. and S. P. Book Tells About This Country.

If possible, the Passenger Department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company and the Southern Pacific (Lines in Oregon) has surpassed itself in the 1906 issue of its new publication, "Oregon, Washington, Idaho and their resources."

The purpose of the publication is to attract homeseekers and investors to the Pacific Northwest and this publication is undoubtedly the best messenger that could be sent by residents of Oregon, Washington and Idaho to their friends in the East and Middle West.

Beautiful half-tones, printed on superb book paper, make the publication, which contains 88 pages and a map of the section, a work of art, but far superior to the typographical make-up is the contents of the book. Under many heads covering practically all the resources of the states, are short, pithy stories of what has been accomplished, not what might be done, but actual facts and figures accompanied by names and addresses of well known farmers, who are daily laying aside an income that would be a fortune to our Eastern Agriculturist.

Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent of the O. R. & N. Co. and S. P. Lines in Oregon has favored the editor with a copy of this publication and informed him that readers of this paper by sending the names and addresses of friends in the East, and four cents in postage for each address, may have the book promptly mailed to the address given.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors for their many kind acts and services during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved wife and mother.

T. J. MATHEWS and family.
