"To the indifference and complicity of Christian men is due the present extent and evil influences of the liquor traffic," declared Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi, who addressed the Chautauqua audience Saturday afternoon on "Who Is Responsible?" "In the votes of Christian men themselves lie the strength of the liquor traffic," asserted the speaker. Miss Kearney is an enthusiastic advocate of the temperance cause. She was introduced by Mrs. Lucia Faxon Addison, who presided at the meeting.

Preceding Miss Kearney's lecture, Miss Ethel Lytle, of Portland, sang a Monday, July 16.

An eloquent entertainment by Professor Mark B. Beal in afternoon, an interesting game of baseball, followed by a balloon ascension by Professor Nelson, and a scholarly lecture at night by Rev. M. A. Matthews, D. D., of Seattle, on "The Wealth of Altruism," made up an exceptionally interesting program for Monday. The welcome moderation in the weather brought larger crowds to the park.

Tuesday, July 17.
Dr. Ernest E. Baker, of Oakland, California, gave his lecture, "A Pilgrimage to Literary Shrines in Europe," delighted auditors. Many distinguished visitors are on the grounds. Judges, professors of colleges, members of the legislature, and prominent men and women from all parts of the state. The programs from day to day have been given as announced and the management all through has been capable. The morning classes have been largely attended.

Friday, July 13.

The concert by the Hawaiian Royal orchestra attracted the banner crowd to date, and the big audience was delighted with the music.

Mrs. Max M. Shillock, of Portland was the soloist and sang a beautiful solo, and Professor Beal recited the scene between King Fitz-James and Roderick Dhu in "The Lady of the Lake."

A more elaborate musical program was never before offered Chautauquans than that of Saturday night, when the oratorio, "The Creation," was given by a chorus of 100 voices, directed by W. Gifford Nash, of Portland. The great success of the Oratorio was contributed to largely by an augmented orchestra of 21 pieces. The soloists were: Mrs. Rose Block Bauer, soprano, of Portland; Mrs.

At night in the auditorium the Portland Y. M. C. A., under the direction of Mr. Myers, gave an athletic entertainment, the feats of tumbling and other gymnasium exercises being supplemented by vocal solos by Miss Louise Hagner and Mrs. Olga Bartch Lang, both of Portland, and selections by the Y. M. C. A. Glee Club.

Wednesday, July 18.

The feature of this day was the lecture by Dr. Baker; "The Blues and How to Get Rid of Them." His recipe is easy to take—try a good square meal. The Oregon State Con-subject for discussion at the round table that was conducted at the auditorium beginning at 11 o'clock. This discussion was the most largely attended of the round-table meetings, and was addressed by eminent speakers and workers in behalf of woman's rights. Colonel Robert A. Miller, of Portland, introduced the discussion with an able address. Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe, of Portland, who has done much to advance the interests of the suffragists in this state, was the next speaker, and was followed by Mrs. A. S. Dunway, of Portland, and Mrs.

Imogen Harding-Brodie, contralto, of this city; Arthur Alexander, tenor, and Dom J. Zan, bass, both of Portland.

Sunday, July 15.

The day of rest was observed by the classes and during the forenoon Sunday school exercises were held under the direction of Rev. Howard N. Smith, state superintendent. In afternoon, following a solo, "Abide With Me," by Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie, Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi, gave an interesting narrative on "Sociological Conditions in the Stockholders' Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association will be held at Gladstone Park Saturday afternoon, immediately following the afternoon lecture. It is desired that there be a full attendance at this meeting, as there will take place the annual election of officers.

DESTITUTE TOURISTS FROM OREGON CITY

FORLORN PARTY ARRIVES IN ALBANY CLAIMING TO BE REFUGEES FROM FRISCO.

The Albany Daily Herald of Wednesday says a party of tourists reached that city Tuesday who first claimed to be San Francisco refugees, but later it was learned they were from Oregon City. The Herald account reads:

The party consists of a Mrs. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. Turpin and Mrs. Griffin and four children belonging to the two last named women, who in turn are the daughters of Mrs. Farrington. They were practically destitute, and as soon as they arrived her sought help from the county court. They told a pitiful tale of being earthquake refugees and that they were in search of some place where they could secure work. On being closely questioned the women acknowledged that they were not in San Francisco when the earthquake and fire occurred.

It finally developed that they were residents of Oregon City, had started out from that place, and they are now on their way back there, securing aid from the people as they go along. Judge Stewart and some of the people of the city provided the party with food, and tickets will probably be given them to Oregon City in order to get them away from here and to their home where, if they must be supported by charity, the people among whom they have lived will care for them.

Their principal stock in trade seems to be the presence with them of a couple of invalid children, one a cripple, and these they are ready to show, at the same time appealing for help. The party was given quarters in the little cottage on Lyon street, where they were camped last evening.

New Varieties of Potatoes.

Many varieties of potatoes come and go, and, but for the introduction of new varieties, potatoes would soon be scarce. This is due to the careless selection of seed. All the tubers of a crop are sold for seed, when only the best should be selected. If only the largest tubers from the thriftiest and strongest plants were retained for seed, there would be an improvement in the old varieties instead of deterioration in quality. But as long as seed potatoes bring good prices, there will be both good and inferior seed sold.

HARVEST PICNIC AT WRIGHT'S SPRINGS

ANNUAL GATHERING NEXT SATURDAY—JUDGE DIMICK TO DELIVER ADDRESS.

Next Saturday will occur the annual Harvest Home picnic at Wright's Springs near Liberal, and the residents of all that garden spot, the Molalla country, will gather to celebrate the big harvest, enjoy a basket dinner and hear good speeches. County Judge Grant B. Dimick will make an address.

Several business men of Oregon City will go out to enjoy a holiday. Representatives from the Board of Trade may be present to learn the sentiment of the people out there about the proposed electric road from this city to Molalla.

There is no doubt about the benefits to a section of country where an electric road penetrates, especially a section that has been without railway facilities. Land values increase at once, and crops are worth more because it costs less to get them to market.

YOUTHFUL BURGLAR RECEIVES SENTENCE

RIGGIN SENT TO PENITENTIARY FOR SEVEN YEARS BY JUDGE McBRIDE.

Frank Riggin, the youthful burglar who broke into Johnson's jewelry store at Estacada, and robbed Luther Morris' residence at Molalla, was arraigned Friday morning. He pleaded guilty and Judge McBride sentenced him to seven years' imprisonment in the state penitentiary.

Two informations against him were filed by Deputy District Attorney Schuebel, one for the Molalla affair and the other for the Estacada burglary. Mr. Schuebel has a third one ready charging Riggin with horse stealing, but it was not necessary, Riggin pleading guilty to the burglary of Johnson's store, and the sentence was for that offense.

O. D. Eby, who had been appointed by the court as attorney for the lad, addressed the court briefly on his client's behalf, calling attention to the fact that Riggin had never received any parental training and had spent his boyhood days in meandering about over the country, a term of several years having been passed in the state reform school. In announcing the sentence of seven years, Judge McBride reminded the prisoner that he had failed to profit by his experience in the state reformatory, and instead of correcting his ways had entered upon an active criminal career as soon as he was released from that institution. In view of the facts, the Judge said the requirements of society demanded that such a Riggin be incarcerated where they could no longer violate the laws so flagrantly.

THISTLE WARNING BY COUNTY COURT

LAND OWNERS NOTIFIED OF THE LAW—BUTTE CREEK LANDS INFECTED.

The County Court will send out notices in a day or two to supervisors and owners of lands where Canadian thistles are growing. If owners fail to destroy the thistles, supervisors must do so and are allowed $3.00 a day for such work, all of the expense of which becomes a lien on the land. Owners permitting Canadian thistles on their land are guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to heavy fines, as is, also, supervisors who neglect their duties in regard to the pest.

Lands along Butte creek are infected with the pest, as much as ten acres of thistles being seen by a member of the court during a drive, Sunday.

On the last day of the session, the County Court passes an order authorizing the County Judge to procure supplies for county officers. This was done last Thursday. A day or two before Sheriff Beattie needed supplies and put in a requisition and the board ordered them purchased. This is the sole basis of the political attack on the Court and Judge Dimick in a local paper.

The County Court has been enjoined by the Circuit Court against opening the Perdue and Struthers road. Lewis Woodcock is the petitioner and he claims the road is unnecessary as one already exists parallel to it, and his land would be damaged by construction of this new road.

Other County Court business is given in the official report on page 8.

ICEMAN'S WIFE IS GRANTED DIVORCE

SHE ALLEGES THAT HE SPANKED HER—EIGHT DECREES DURING WEEK.

Mrs. Susan Harris was granted a divorce from Henry E. Harris, Saturday, by Judge McBride, and was also awarded the custody of their three minor children, he being required to pay her $25 a month for support of each of the children and more if they become sick.

The suit was filed only a few days previously and she says they were married at Marquam, Sept. 12, 1882. Harris is the well known ice manufacturer of this city and Portland.

Mrs. Harris alleged that he treated her in a cruel manner and that he spanked her; furthermore he had planned to get his family at a distance and insisted they should move from Portland to Oregon City.

Other decrees granted during the week were:

E. H. Pickard from Mary E. Pickard. Defendant did not appear to contest the case.

Idella K. White from Charles White, and $7.50 a month alimony, the sewing machine, trunk and her clothes, and the care, custody and control of the minor child, Bertha Izetta.

Florence Idella Fink from John Fremont Fink, and she was awarded the care, custody and control of their minor child, John Fremont Fink. The plaintiff furthermore was allowed to resume her maiden name.

Ralph Wesley Gowanklock from Hatie Gowanklock.

Lena Baldwin from S. M. Baldwin. Major V. McKinster from Ida E. McKinster.

Alma Carpenter from Henry S. Carpenter.

CLOSE UNSAFE STEPS AT EIGHTH STREET

CITY ENGINEER RANDS FINDS TIMBERS ROTTEN—PLANS FOR TEAM CROSSING.

City Engineer Rands and Mayor Caulfield made an examination of the Eighth street steps, Monday, and found them unsafe. The mayor ordered them closed and both entrances were nailed up. The timbers are so rotten you can bore into them with your finger.

City Engineer Rands has prepared plans for the reconstruction of the steps between Third and Fourth streets and they will be presented at the next meeting of council.

The plans to be presented by the Southern Pacific company to do away with the dangerous grade crossings at the foot of Singer hill, contemplates moving the railroad tracks to the east. The crossing will start from the hill at a point 23 feet above the tracks, to a point above the present location of the track; thence the roadway will slope at about the same grade as now, the level being reached on Tenth street at about where the tracks now cross the street.

It is supposed the railway company will bear all or the greater part of the expense as it will be greatly benefited. The removal of the tracks east will give room for a switch track between Tenth and Eighth streets, on which six or eight freight cars could be loaded or unloaded at once.

NO STRIKE ON O. W. P. INTERURBAN LINES

MAJORITY OF MEN ARE CONTENT WITH PRESENT WAGE SCHEDULE—PEACE PROBABLE.

Street car men say Thursday morning that there will be no strike in Portland although the differences are not yet adjusted.

Employees of the Oregon City line say they will not go out even if a strike is ordered in the city. The men on the O. W. P. & Ry. company's interurban lines are paid on a different schedule from those in the city, and a large majority of the men are perfectly satisfied with their wages and other conditions.

Truths About Artificial Teeth

The great majority of dentists represent to their patients that a rubber plate with fourteen teeth set in a half circle is just as good as anything else for a set of artificial teeth.

Some make such representations knowing them to be false, others because they know no better.

The responsibility for this condition rests with the dental profession.

A great many people would not accept a rubber or celluloid plate if they only understood the superiority of a metal plate in cleanliness, healthfulness and durability.

We would like to talk to with you about metal plates for artificial teeth.
