Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read were at Corvallis, Monday, attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Zella Dodell, late of Wells, Benton county. Mrs. Dodell died Saturday, aged 85 years, 14 days. She crossed the plains in 1868. Mrs. Dodell is survived by five children: George Felix, Eugene M. and Paul E. Dodell and Mrs. Mattilda R. Read, all of Corvallis, and Mrs. Honorine E. Read of this city. Interment was in Palestine cemetery.

The council committee on renaming duplicate named streets, Knapp, Randa and Logus, has not completed its plan, but it will be ready for next meeting of council, July 25. Mr. Randa was in favor of designating Sixteenth, Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets at the south end of town by prefixing the word South. Others would rename them entirely by honoring former mayors and other local celebrities. Among the names suggested are Straight, Latourette, Dimick, Sommer, Caulfield, Logus, Warren, Roosevelt, Dewey, Willamette, Darling and Irvin.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

Dimick-Caples.
City Recorder Walter A. Dimick of this city and Miss Oro D. Caples, of Forest Grove, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday morning. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. Dimick will bring his bride to Oregon City and they will reside in a cozy cottage on Washington street between Eighth and Ninth.

This wedding is the culmination of a pretty love romance that began when Mr. Dimick was a student at Pacific University, and very appropriately the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Bates, principal of Tualatin Academy of the University.

The bride is a lady of culture and will be welcomed by society in this city. The groom is well known in Clackamas county. He is a rising young lawyer associated in practice with his cousin, County Judge G. B. Dimick.

Silver Sets for Rector.
The ladies of St. Paul's guild and members of the King's Daughters, pleasantly surprised Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond at their camp at Gladstone Park, Saturday evening, by arriving unannounced and with baskets laden with all the good things necessary for an elaborate picnic luncheon. The occasion was the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond. The members of the two organizations presented them with a set of silver knives and forks.

FORESTERS INSTALL NEW OFFICERS.

Members of Court Robin Hood No. 9, F. of A., had as merry a time Tuesday night as ever did the famous ranger, whose name the court bears, and his merry men in Sherwood forest. The following officers were installed by Grand Secretary A. Brauer and Deputy Chief Ranger G. Froeman: J. T. Searle, chief ranger; W. Rahi, sub-chief ranger; F. Koenig, recording secretary; W. A. Smitn, senior woodward; W. Rittenhouse, junior woodward; J. Nichols, senior beadle; Mr. Hulston, junior beadle; W. C. McDonald, lecturer; W. Werner, trustee. The work over, "play" began with the serving of a superb banquet, judiciously mixed with music and speeches, and followed by a program that included a 3-round boxing bout between Hall and Peters, a song by "Jimmie" Nichols, a recitation by M. C. Strickland, a German song, "Hi-Lo-Hi-Lo," by Mike Munch, a violin solo by Harry Shaw, song by Emmet Fay, songs by F. Koenig, and others.
