TERSELY-TOLD TALES OF THE WEEK'S DOINGS.

Will Repair a Bridge—

E. D. Olds has been employed to make needed repairs to the Scotts Mills bridge.

Pity the Poor Jurymen—

William Beard and J. J. Hattan are on the first trial jury in the land fraud cases in Portland.

Takes Larger Name—

Gresham, July 26.—The Multnomah Record will change its name to the Beaver State Herald.

Judicially Married—

Miss Maude Campbell and Mr. John Metzler, both of Multnomah county, were married by County Judge Grant B. Dimick in his office at the court house, Thursday, of last week.

Business Change at Molalla—

L. W. and Everman Robbins are now sole owners of the well known business conducted under the name of Robbins Bros., they having recently purchased the interest of Frank Everhart.

Released From County Jail—

George Mackinaw was released from the county jail, Friday, he having completed his 25 days' sentence for assault and battery. Mackinaw, while under the influence of drink, hit a man who was at work on the rock crusher in West Oregon City.

Buys a Woodburn Business—

George M. Turney went to Woodburn, last week, where he will locate, having purchased the confectionery business heretofore conducted in that town by G. N. McGuire. Mr. Turney only recently disposed of a similar business in this city to F. G. Lent, of Portland.

Automatic Roof Sprinkler—

An automatic roof sprinkling system is being installed by the Portland General Electric company at its station on the West Side. The work is being done by a Portland company. This protection will prevent a repetition of the recent fire that played havoc with the cupola.

Buys Lane County Saw Mill—

Justice Lily Stipp made a business trip to Oswego last week to assist in closing a deal by which M. E. Dunn, formerly of that town, becomes owner of a tract of timber land, a sawmill and a logging road in Lane county. Justice J. W. Van Horn, of Oswego, has gone to Cottage Grove with Mr. Dunn.

Water for Canemah Cemetery—

An ice cream social was well patronized, Tuesday evening, on the lawn at the home of Mr. Stokes in Canemah.

The social was given by the Ladies' Aid society for the purpose of securing funds towards the supplying of the cemetery with water. The Canemah Aid has done much in beautifying Oregon City's southern suburb.

Will be Opened for Settlement—

The government survey contract secured by E. P. and H. A. Rands of this city, is for a portion of the south part of the Colville Indian reservation in northern Washington. The work includes the running of the standard and meridian lines. The contract will not be undertaken until next spring. The township lines will be run later. It is the intention of the Government to throw this tract open to settlement.

In Big Street Car Deal—

James B. Robinson, of Chico, Calif., joined his wife and children in Oregon City, Friday, in their visit with Mrs. Robinson's mother, Mrs. F. L. Cochran. Mr. Robinson was one of the party of fifteen who arrived in Portland, Thursday, with C. E. Loss in their private car El Frieda. They are San Francisco and California capitalists and their confidential men, who are associated with Mr. Loss in the deal by which Loss and they have acquired full control of the stock and franchises of the United Railways of Portland. The deal was finally consummated in Portland, Thursday, when the holdings of J. Whyte Evans and J. B. Yeon were taken over. Mr. Robinson, who is superintendent and chief engineer of the Butte County railroad, left for Chico, Saturday night.

Tried To Save; Nearly Drown—

Sam Stowe, an employe of the Willamette Pulp & Paper company, was nearly drowned Friday morning in an effort to save George Hemminger, of Portland, agent of the Pacific Fire Extinguisher company. Hemminger fell into the swift water of the canal at the locks, and as he was unable to swim was near death when Stowe, seeing his plight, plunged into the water to the rescue. Stowe is an expert swimmer but Hemminger clasped him in the embrace of a drowning man and he was rendered helpless. Both men would have drowned had it not been for T. W. Reddick, another employe of the mill, who secured a pike pole and succeeded in bringing the drowning men to shore, both of whom recovered with but slight ill effects from their plunge.

Four Hop Contracts Recorded—

Four agreements, involving the 1906 hop crop of as many Clackamas county farmers, were recorded at the courthouse last week. By the terms of the instrument the growers, in consideration of an advance of 7 cents per pound, that was paid on April 1, or May 1, in the sum of $190, the balance to be paid at harvest time, agreed to sell their crop to the parties making the advance. The balance of the market value of the crop is to be paid when the hops are delivered. Three of the agreements are made in favor of R. M. Gatewood, of Portland, by the following named growers: F. Irish, crop from five acres; W. O. Dickerson, 14 acres, and J. R. and Evan Lewis, 14 acres. Under the same conditions Fred Kamrath, Geo. and Arthur Staben have disposed of their 1906 crop to Charles S. May & Co., of New York. In each case the grower may annul the contract by repaying the $190 before harvest.

CLOSING SESSIONS OF A GREAT CHAUTAUQUA

the man's methods righteous." He said the welfare of the country is endangered by several causes, among which are irreverence, avarice, the liquor traffic and political power. Successfully to meet these conditions are required men of action, "scarcereous that will scare." The need is for virtue, indignation and active men who will adjust their lives to a service for their fellow-men, and not for self. Confidence, he said, is required that every man may make the proper use of the talents with which he is endowed.

Immediately preceding the afternoon lecture, the members of the graduating class from the Chautauqua Junior Bible Department were presented with diplomas by Vice-President Dye, on the recommendation of Rev. Howard N. Smith, who was in charge of this department. The young people constituting the class were:

Intermediate course—Eleanor Palmer, Roberta M. Schubel, Harold A. Smith and Arthur Toby.

Juniors—Helen McGlade, Mildred Jacobs Young, Fulton Magill, Beatrice E. Palmer, Beale Legg, Ralph Young, Rachel King, Ambrose Brownell, Clark Story, Miriam Oberg, Jean Jacobs, Wendal Smith, Lillian Robertson and Gladys Legg.

The roll of honor pupils, who did not quite complete the course contained the names of ten young people, as follows: Gladys Wyman, Olive Risley, Ella Cross, Nellie Johnson, Venne Hoskins, James McGeehan, Marion White, Walter Scott Hoskins, Vedd Brown and Harold Led.

The class in American literature concluded its session under the direction of Professor B. J. Hoadley, by taking up the literary Presidents, viz: Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Madison, John Quincy Adams, Lincoln, Grant and Roosevelt. Professor Bates, of Forest Grove, read "Lincoln's Address at Gettysburg." The class gave the Chautauqua salute at the close of the session and invited Professor Hoadley to return and continue his work at the next assembly.

The M. A. A. C. won the pennant in the baseball tournament by defeating the Portland Trunk company by a large score Saturday afternoon. In the fourth inning, with the score 2 to 2 in favor of the clubmen, A. Heltsman, catcher for the trunkmakers, was retired from the game with a badly injured finger. J. R. Dörner, who succeeded Heltsman, was similarly injured by a practice ball from the pitcher, and the game did not proceed until an Indian substitute was added to the crippled team, which apparently lost heart and was badly routed.

The annual meeting of the stockholders failed, owing to lack of a quorum. An adjournment was taken subject to the call of the president. Sunday, July 22. The concluding sessions of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua for 1906, were made memorable by two grand sermons, one in the afternoon by Dr. Ernest E. Baker, the apostle of "Sunshine Religion," and the other in the evening by the Oregon favorite, Dr. Locke. At the conclusion of Dr. Locke's sermon, the audience joined in singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Parsons' orchestra gave a farewell concert from 4 to 5 p. m., and the singing of National airs by Mrs. H. R. Dunaway of Portland was much enjoyed.

A new feature of Chautauqua life this season was the kindergarten, under the auspices of the Home Training Association, of Portland. It has been called the "garden spot of Chautauqua." That the interest in this particular work did not wane was manifested by the throngs.

Large numbers of Chautauquans took advantage of the physical culture work offered this year under the direction of Professor A. M. Grille, of the Portland Y. M. C. A., more than 200 persons being enrolled in the various classes. In the junior contest the first prize was won by George Olsen, with 45 points; Harry Hargreaves second, 25 points; Mark Emery third, 16 points.

The enrollment in the different classes was as follows: Ladies' class in Indian clubs, 35; ladies' class in calisthenics, 75; girls' class, 40; boys' class, 35; men's class, 10.

Thursday George H. Himes, of Portland, offered three small cash prizes to young people under 18 years of age, who would bring in the first, second and third largest collection of twigs from the forest trees found on the Chautauqua grounds. The awards were made at the tent of the Oregon Historical Society, as follows, all of the competitors being from Portland:

Miss Eleanor Palmer, 912 East Yamhill street, whose list was as follows: White fir, red fir, oak, dogwood, Balm of Gilead, large-leaved maple, vine maple, ash, chittem wood, crabapple, spirea (two varieties), Oregon grape, poison oak, raspberry, thimble berry, gooseberry, service berry, syringa, salal, huckleberry, snowball, ceanothus, soap bush, oso berry, wild rose, large and dwarf.—28.

EVERYBODY IN OREGON CITY KNOWS HUNTLEY BROS.

Have Confidence When He Tells You Pepsikola Tablets Do Cure Indigestion.

Possibly you may think our only reason for praising these tablets is because of the small profit we make on each 25 cent box, but how little satisfaction there would be in recommending a remedy that would disappoint you and thereby lose your trade.

This thing of selling a worthless article is mighty poor business policy. Square dealing always pays best and when we tell you what Pepsikola tablets will do, our confidence is based on our own personal experience in selling them here in Oregon City year after year.

There isn't a remedy in this store that we recommend more highly and unless Pepsikola tablets really do what we claim for them how utterly useless our efforts would be.

For coated tongue, sour stomach, wind belching, fullness after eating, heart burn, sleeplessness, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion we recommend them with every confidence and always refund the 25c should you fail to receive the benefits expected.

A TRAGIC FINISH.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. What is a Backache?

IT IS NATURE'S WARNING TO WOMEN

Diseases of Woman's Organism Cured and Consequent Pain Stopped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It seems as though my back would break." Women utter these words over and over again, but continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, "bearing-down" pains, nervousness and no ambition for any task.

Miss Maude Morris

They do not realize that the back is the mainspring of woman's organism, and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the female organs or kidneys, and that the aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been for many years the one and only effective remedy in such cases. It speedily cures female and kidney disorders and restores the female organs to a healthy condition.

"I have suffered with female troubles for over two years, suffering intense pain each month, my back ached until it seemed as though it would break, and I felt so weak all over that I did not find strength to attend to my work but had to stay in bed a large part of the first two or three days every month. I would have sleepless nights, bad dreams and severe headaches. All this undermined my health.

"I consulted an old family physician, who advised that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it regularly and soon found that I could sleep and eat better than I had done for months. Within two months I became regular and I no longer suffer from backache or pain."—Miss Maude Morris, Sec. Ladies' Aid and Mission Society, 85 E. Hunter St., Atlanta, Ga.
