HOP CONTRACTS AT 16 CENTS AT SALEM

Salem, Aug. 2.—While there has been no flurry in the hop market, the prevailing price has remained at 15 cents, though several contracts at 16 cents are reported. There is no doubt the buyers are on the anxious seat. With the advices from Europe indicating a heavy shortage they realize a little later only high bids will take Oregon crops, but they don't like to risk above 15 cents at present.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

New Era, July 30.—While driving a binder in the Huffman field at New Era Saturday morning, A. J. Hodge was struck by lightning and severely bruised. He had been working since 3 o'clock. A shaft of lightning struck the fence, glanced to a tree and then struck the binder, throwing one of the horses down and knocking Hodge to the ground. Mrs. Huffman had left the tree just a few minutes before.

"Make Hay While the Sun Shines."

There is a lesson in the work of the thrifty farmer. He knows that the bright sunshine may last but a day and he prepares for the showers which are so liable to follow. So it should be with every household. Dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera morbus may attack some member of the home without warning. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which is the best known medicine for these diseases, should always be kept at hand, as immediate treatment is necessary, and delay may prove fatal. For sale by Howell & Jones.

Assessor J. F. Nelson has a notice in another place in this paper of the meeting of the county board of equalization which will convene Monday, August 27, for the purpose of examining the assessment rolls and correcting any errors in valuation that may be found therein, description or qualities of lands, lots or other property.

When we recommend and guarantee Ake-in-the-Head tablets for headaches and neuralgia, it is because we know you must obtain relief or we stand ready to pay your ten cents back. Safe, sure, and always cure.—Huntley Bros.

CHURCH AND RELIGIOUS NOTES

Evangelical Chautauqua Convention. The annual Chautauqua convention and campmeeting of the Evangelical Association was convened at River View Camp, near Jennings Lodge, on the O. W. P. line Tuesday morning, and the sessions will continue until Thursday, August 9. The initial service was a rally, under the direction of Rev. Ezra Maurer and Rev. H. E. Hornshuh. On Wednesday there was a ministerial round table in the morning and a Sunday school convention in the afternoon. Thursday afternoon was taken up by the Y. P. A. convention. The business sessions of the convention will be concluded Friday with general discussions and the election of officers.

Union Services During August.

At a meeting of the Oregon City Ministerial Association Monday, it was decided to hold union services each Sunday evening during the month of August, each meeting to be held in one of the different churches. Next Sunday evening the service will be held at the First Baptist church, and Rev. J. R. Landsborough, of the Presbyterian church, will preach. The following Sunday, August 12, the union evening services will be held in the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. J. R. Landsborough, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, leaves next week for a visit to his former home in North Dakota. In view of his intended departure, the members of the congregation have arranged to informally entertain at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper, Tenth and Jackson streets, Friday evening. An informal program will be given and refreshments will be served.

The Methodist parsonage will be remodeled into a store building and extended to the street.

Don't Be Blue and lose all interest when help is within reach. Herbine will make that liver perform its duties properly. J. B. Vaughn, Elba, Ala., writes: "Being a constant sufferer from constipation and a disordered liver, I have found Herbine to be the best medicine for these troubles, on the market. I have used it constantly. I believe it to be the best medicine of its kind, and I wish all sufferers from these troubles to know the good Herbine has done me." Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

Complains Against Stepmother.

Mary Resch, aged 13 years, of Wilsonville, was sent to the boys' and girl's aid society at Portland, Monday, where she will be detained, pending the investigation of the charges of mistreatment that have been preferred against the girl's parents by neighbors. Resch conducts the Boone ferry and has been married three times. It is alleged the stepmother has grossly mistreated the girl.
