A LARGE CITY SHOP.

"Fresh every hour" is the alluring sign in front of a new candy factory on Main street, just south of Adams Bros.' Bazaar, that was opened last week. The place is attractive outside and in, and the delicious candies in view are so fresh looking as to prove the sign no idle boast. The proprietor, J. I. Mayhew, is a past master of the art of candy-making. He knows the secret and is adept at making over 900 kinds of elegant confections—everything in chocolates, bon bons, fudge, fruit rolls, toasted marshmallows, crisp, caramels, dipped almonds, Cuban sticks, crystallized goods of all descriptions and the finest of spun goods. His factory is as clean and neat as the retail store in front.

This store should make a great success. In this age of adulterations, one should be sure the sweetmeats your loved ones eat, are absolutely pure, and you are absolutely sure of that when you buy in a shop where everything is home-made, as it is in Mayhew's. This store will be a great convenience in other ways. It is equipped to furnish all kinds of ices, fancy and brick ice creams and sherberts on short notice—an hour or two and a person may have delivered any refreshment unexpected company may require. Quality of goods will be strictly first class. Ice creams, soda water and other refreshing summer drinks are retailed in the store.

O. W. P. CARS COLLIDE NEAR MILWAUKIE

With five passengers on board and running at full speed a Sellwood car crashed into an O. W. P. work train about three-quarters of a mile north of Milwaukie, Wednesday afternoon. Motorman Rubish was cut by flying glass and both his legs were fractured above the knee. Although the crash of the car with the train was terrific all the passengers, four men and one woman, luckily escaped with only minor injuries.

A GUSHER AT GLADSTONE.

C. A. Warren is rejoicing over an extraordinarily good well on his Gladstone lot where he is building his new home. Collins & Brown, who dug the well, struck at a depth of 14 1/2 feet a stream of living water about 6 inches in diameter. They went about two feet deeper and struck a subterranean lake six feet deep. There is now 11 feet of excellent water in the well.

Guardian Appointed.

Della E. Yergen was appointed guardian of her brother Carl Garrison, aged 17, who owns $147.00 cash on deposit in a bank at McMinnville.

INSURANCE.

Plate Glass, burglar-proof, and all kinds of casualty insurance written by O. A. Cheney of Oregon City. Office with Justice of the Peace.

A. W. Cheney left Wednesday for Polk county, with a cruiser to inspect his two timber claims, for which he has been offered $1500 apiece. The new railroad now with 12 miles of the claims will go right through them.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK

Clifford Long, son of Peter and Amanda Long of Clackamas Heights, died at St. Vincent's hospital, August 8, after only a day's illness of appendicitis, aged 17 years and 14 days. For some time he was employed at the paper mills, but was lately working in Dr. Nichols' hopyard. Tuesday he was seized with an attack of appendicitis and was taken to Portland the following morning, when an operation was immediately performed, but death ensued during the afternoon.

Funeral services were held at the home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock; interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Fritz Zimmermann, aged 68 years, died Wednesday morning, August 8, at his home at Mountain Road, where he had resided for the last 27 years. He is survived by his widow, four daughters and five sons. Funeral was held from the family residence Friday morning at 9 o'clock; interment in the Stafford cemetery.

C. Corning, aged 71 years, died of paralysis, Wednesday, at the home of his son, Alva Corning, of Willamette. He is survived by three children, Alva Corning of Willamette, Mrs. Theodore Pointer of Sylvan, Oregon, and Mrs. John Anderson of Clinton, Missouri. The body was taken to Sylvan Wednesday night for burial.

Mrs. B. F. Weddle, aged 32 years, died Saturday morning of lung trouble at her home near Stafford. The sorrowing husband and four children are left to mourn her death. Funeral was held Sunday from the Stafford church, Rev. Charles Waehlte officiating.

George Forman of Barton, died at his home, Tuesday evening, August 7, of neuralgia of the heart. He was in his 64th year.

ROCK CREEK AND SUNNYSIDE

August 15.—The picnic at Damascus passed off very pleasantly. Program was interesting and all seemed to have a good time generally.

Mrs. John McMurry has sold her place to Rev. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodlan have gone to the mountains for a week or two.

There was a singing at Mr. Stoll's Sunday afternoon and all enjoyed a good time. They will meet again next Sunday at the same place.

The young lady at Mrs. Griffith's has been quite ill. They have had Dr. Hickman out to see her twice.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter of Beaverton have been visiting their sons and families at Sunnyside for the past week. They had not been there for several years before. They are getting well along in years and are quite feeble.

Blanche Davis is somewhat better and hopes are entertained for a speedy recovery. Grandpa Johnson is about the same.

There was a gathering at Johnson's Monday in honor of Mrs. Elva Hunter's 48th birthday anniversary. She has been staying with her father lately. All enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. She received a few presents and the hearty wish of the company for many more happy years. Those present were Mrs. Donley, Mrs. M. Reed, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. L. M. Hunter, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. B. Deardorff, S. E. Johnson and LeRoy Johnson.

Mr. Walters is having a cellar dug under his house.

VIOLA NOTES

Viola, Aug. 14.—All are glad to know that Grandma Miller who has been very sick during the past week, is rapidly regaining her strength under the care of Dr. Mount.

As a result of the incomplete work on the Viola hill, a rig upset Saturday night and a serious accident was narrowly averted.

Messrs Carlson and Benson intend to start for Alberta next Saturday. They expect, by driving through eastern Oregon and Idaho to arrive at their destination in about six weeks.

Mr. Galeoner has the frame of his new barn about completed.

Those who think that first-class onions cannot be raised on hill land would change their opinion by calling on Grandma Miller.

STAFFORD.

Rain threatened, but did not come, and the few who still had oats in the field were glad. .11 of an inch fell Sunday night, but it seems now like it had cleared off for all time.

Mrs. Weddle died about 4 o'clock Saturday morning, and was buried in the Stafford cemetery on Sunday afternoon. More than two hundred people followed her to her last resting place. The funeral was held at the Barclay church and Mr. Waehlte, the resident minister preached the funeral sermon. She leaves to mourn her demise a husband and four children, the eldest a daughter in her teens, and all from the husband to the three year old baby boy just recovering from the measles, which was the immediate cause of the mother's death, though she had been suffering from a disease of the lungs and throat for some time.

Besides her immediate family she leaves a mother and father, and brothers and sisters, all of whom live near Jefferson. Her mother and sister Kate were at her bedside, and they with a younger sister are still with the stricken family, and it is reported at this writing that the sister Kate has taken the disease and Archie, a boy of 12 had to be taken to a doctor. Dr. Mount has been in attendance, but was not able to give them any hope of the mother's recovery from the first. The anxious father sent down the family physician from Jefferson. He approved of Dr. Mount's treatment thoroughly. Kind neighbors with teams hauled and secured his grain.

On Thursday, the 9th, Mr. Zimmermann was buried at Stafford. He died of cancer. He leaves a wife and large family of children.

Mr. P. Larsen is quite poorly. Mr. Gebhardt and helpers have the addition to the school house up and partly inclosed. It is to be finished by the first of September.

Thrashing machines have been a buzzing on small jobs for the last week or so. Two thrashing at once. The Sharp machine usually comes along last, and scoops the larger jobs. Mr. Powell, our genial merchant, has two sisters visiting him this week. Lu Segert, who was in the hospital with a bad case of blood poison is out with his thrashing machine, but unable to use his hand much as yet.

RUSSELLVILLE ITEMS

Hot, dry weather still continues. Hop picking is about all we hear now days.

L. B. Trullinger has gone to eastern Oregon to work in harvest.

Mrs. A. Paulson has gone to Portland on business.

Ira Flinn and bride of eastern Oregon, are visiting his father, Mr. Flinn, and his sister, Mrs. L. B. Trullinger, of Willhoit.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Bowman have returned from Hood River after an absence of several weeks.
