ADVERTISING THE COUNTY.

The Albany Commercial club distributed among the business men of that city blanks on which the recipients wrote the names of eastern people who would be interested in information about Oregon and especially about Linn county. The blanks and lists of names were collected by the officers of the club and literature regarding Linn county and its resources sent to all whose names and addresses appear on the lists.

Speaking at St. Louis on the occasion of the first anniversary of the Industrial workers of the world, its leader and organizer, Eugene V. Debs, July 29, made the threat that if Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone are hanged on the charge of assassinating ex-Gov. Stenerson, 1,000,000 workmen would rise in revolt and that he (Debs) would lead the army of revolutionists. The industrial workers, which was started for political purposes, now claims to have a membership of 150,000.

Threatened men sometimes live long, but the sentence of death which the Russian revolutionists have passed on Nicholas II, and on several of his subordinates is not accepted lightly by those personages. In more than one instance since the risings in Russia began in 1905, the men marked for slaughter by the revolutionists have been slaughtered. The czar knows this. Knowing it, he will stick close to his bomb proof until the clouds roll by.

A Kansas commissioner visiting Kansas City packing houses found that three piles of perfectly sanitary meats, and these were consigned to three states with rigid inspection laws. People who are satisfied with inferior goods can always get what satisfies them.

The average woman would rather have her husband pat her cheek than give her a thousand dollars. — San Francisco Bulletin.

Most men will have to accept this statement as correct because they have no means of disproving it.

Machine politicians in Illinois are discovering that the new primary law of that state gives the candidate with the most votes a fighting chance. There are counties in which such a result will be more of a revolution than any in Russia.

Responding to the new slogan of his party, President Roosevelt has sent to Chairman Sherman of the congressional committee, a letter inclosing $1 for the election fund. This slogan is "have you sent your dollar?"

Congressman Bede remarks that Uncle Joe Cannon would be a strong candidate. Mr. Cannon has had the habit for so many years that it is needless to use the future tense.

All efforts of the mutineers to find the czar have failed. The czar evidently dug a cyclone cellar before issuing his "imperial" proclamation dissolving the duma.

The railroads are coming to time with reduced passenger rates. Government regulation blesses alike the giver and the receiver.

A woman delegate stamped the Republican state convention in Idaho. It must have been that her hat was not on straight.

Czar Nicholas can keep his army and navy in practice without ordering any sham maneuvers.

Time Wins For a Prophet.

The editor of the Oregon State Journal predicted more than thirty-five years ago, when there was no outward signs of its realization, that Portland will be the largest city on the Pacific coast; and several years ago when he seemed to be down and out, that Wm. J. Bryan, who was beaten twice by bribery, terrorism and gross frauds, will yet be President of the United States. We are of the same opinion still, as to both propositions, and there are indications becoming stronger every day that both will yet be realized.
