HEGAN-HORNSCHUCH WEDDING.

Many Guests Witness Marriage of Popular Oregon City Girl.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Tuesday evening, September 18, when Miss Mary Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Hornschuch was united in marriage to Alexander J. Hegan, of Portland, Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, of Everett, Wash., cousin of the bride, performing the ceremony. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Miss Lydia Hornschuch, of Shubel, cousin of the bride, the bridal party entered the parlor and stood beneath a beautiful canopy of ferns, cut flowers, and asparagus ferns. The bridesmaid was Miss Phoebe Brown, of Portland. The groom was attended by Mr. H. Bouge, of Portland.

The bride was charming in a handsome gown of cream Duchess satin with an over-dress of chiffon and embroidered net. Her long, tulle veil was held in place by a spray of natural orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a becoming costume of pongee.

Immediately following the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served. The evening was spent in music and conversation. Mr. and Mrs. Hegan left on the late car for Fulton, Multnomah county, where the groom holds a position with the Oregon Furniture company.

The following guests were present: Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, Everett, Wash.; Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. F. Miller, Mrs. E. Brugman, Misses Phoebe and Katherine Brown, Rev. and Mrs. Amel Hornschuch, D.
