

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

Miss Burns Entertained in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Crader, of 526 Miller street, San Jose, Calif., gave a delightful outing at Alum Rock last Sunday. The happy event was given as a farewell to their niece, Miss Eliza Burns, of Portland, Oregon. The day was spent with games, songs and other amusements. A dainty lunch was served at the noon hour. No more beautiful or romantic spot can be found than the beautiful glen leading to Alum Rock. A number of different mineral waters are found here, also fresh water in abundance. All of those who were so fortunate as to accompany this jolly crowd of pleasure seekers had a good time and enjoyed themselves to the utmost. Miss Burns will be greatly missed among her friends here in San Jose, as she made many friends during her stay here.

Among those present were: Miss Eliza Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daly, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bordwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dose, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. James Wickham, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crader, Mr. Andrew Wickham, Misses Eveline Daly, Jennie Clark, Jessie Clark, Helen Sant, Messrs. George Sant, Cyril Bordwell, Master George Crader. — San Jose Herald.

The Woman's Club.

A special meeting of the Oregon City Woman's club, was called at the home of Mrs. M. M. Charman on last Thursday afternoon, but as there was no quorum present the meeting was postponed till the regular meeting of the club which meets October 10th, when the work for the winter will be inaugurated.

Among the important matters to be taken up will be that of a public library. Miss Cornelia Marvin, secretary of the Oregon Library commission, will be present and will discuss the ways and means of gaining such an institution for Oregon City.

The giving of a banquet, an annual event with the club, to the Clackamas county pioneers, will be considered at that meeting.

Following will be the program for Wednesday, October 10th:

Quotations—Miscellaneous; Address Mrs. M. M. Charman; music, Miss Irene Reynolds; "A Public Library for Oregon City: Ways and Means Discussed by Secretary of Oregon Library Commission, Miss Cornelia Marvin; Music. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Charman, at Ninth and Main streets.

The You Go I Go Club Entertains.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker on Seventh and Washington streets The You Go I Go Club and a few of its members were entertained by Miss Louise Walker, Miss Louise Huntley and Miss Madge Brightbill. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games. The principal features of the evening were a musical guessing contest and a vegetable guessing contest in which Arden Hickman won the first prize, and Waldo Caufield, the consolation prize.

The table was prettily decorated with sweet peas and vines, and at each place was a pretty favor.

The house was prettily decorated. Ices and cake were served. This club was organized last winter and will hold their meetings this year as soon as all of the members have returned to the city.

Rev. Bollinger and Family Tendered Reception.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger and family were tendered a farewell reception Tuesday evening in the church parlors by the members of the church. Rev. Bollinger, who has been pastor of the Congregational church of this city for the past six years, has resigned, his resignation to take effect October

1st. He goes from here to assume charge of the Highland Congregational church.

Mrs. C. H. Dye, in behalf of the members of the church, presented Rev. and Mrs. Bollinger with a beautiful Haviland dinner set. Rev. R. C. Blackwell of the M. E. church, and Rev. B. Robins of the Baptist church, also made a few remarks. The evening was spent in music. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wetzler, of Oregon City, entertained this week Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Beck, of San Francisco, Cal., and "Major" Maurice E. Russ, a well-known capitalist of Harrisburg, Pa. Messrs Beck and Russ have just returned from an extended trip to the mines in Mexico and Lower California, in which properties they are interested. "Major" Russ is more than pleased with his visit to this section of the country, and will again return next summer. Mr. Beck is a brother of Mrs. Wetzler.

Mrs. Green Entertains.

On Tuesday, Mrs. W. C. Green entertained at her home on Seventh and Center streets, a few of her friends, in honor of Mrs. Chester Muir, who leaves soon for her home at Neola, Iowa. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Mrs. Green was assisted in the entertainment of her guests by Mrs. Edward Shaw, Mrs. Ben Doolittle and Mrs. Hal Brown.

Farewell Reception Given by Young People's Society.

A farewell reception was given Monday night by the Young People's Society of the First Baptist church in honor of its members, who are departing for different colleges: Miss Ona Renner, Ross Eaton, Virgil and Oril Welch, McMinnville college; Miss Maude Cooke, State Normal at Monmouth, and Kenneth Latourette, Yale University.

Reception to Rev. Hammond.

Rev. P. K. Hammond was agreeably surprised by about 20 members of the church calling on him, Monday night, as a little reminder to carry East with him of the esteem in which he is held by his parishioners. The evening was spent in conversation and games. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Webfoot Dancing club of Oswego will give its first dancing party of the season in the grange hall at Oswego on Saturday evening.

John Weise of Beaver Creek was in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wilson attended the state fair Saturday.

Gordon Moores was an Oregon City visitor during the week.

Attorney C. Schuebel was in Portland on business, Saturday.

George Gregory, the tease man, was in the city during the week.

Attorney F. T. Griffith was in Salem on business this week.

Mrs. W. J. Wilson and children are visiting friends in The Dalles.

Lloyd Harding is taking a course of study at Portland High School.

Dr. J. J. Leavitt, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor, Wednesday.

Miss Frances Munch is visiting this week with friends at Champeog.

Attorney H. E. Cross was among the visitors at the state fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwab are spending a few days at the beach.

Miss Mable Tower, of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larson, of Molalla, were in Oregon City, Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Van Horn, of Portland, was an Oregon City visitor, Wednesday.

Charles Robinson and Philip Hammond are attending Portland Academy.

Mrs. R. S. Scott, of Portland, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. D. Latourette.

Robert Nelson has returned to Albany, after a visit with Jack Latourette.

Mr. H. V. Mills, of Portland, was in Oregon City Wednesday on business.

William Woods, who has a position at Drain, is visiting his family in this city.

Attorney C. D. Latourette was in Seattle on business the first of the week.

Mrs. M. McDonald, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. O. W. Eastham this week.

Dr. Casto, of Milwaukee, was transacting business in Oregon City, Wednesday.

H. Ferrin, son of Prof. Ferrin, of Forest Grove, visited Charles Bollinger, Sunday.

E. L. Baker, of Sherwood, was transacting business in Oregon City, Monday.

Miss Bessie Albright has returned from a week's visit with relatives in Portland.

Miss Frances Miller, of Portland, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller.

Mrs. Clara Morey and son, Barry, of Glenmorrie, were Oregon City visitors Saturday.

Dr. H. S. Mount has returned from Seaside, where he spent several days, by the sea.

Miss Constance Holland, of St. Johns, was a guest of friends in this city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton, of Portland, visited with relatives in this city, Sunday.

C. N. Tracy, of Springwater, was transacting business in Oregon City, Wednesday.

Dr. C. B. Smith, of Estacada, was transacting business in Oregon City, Wednesday.

Will Marshall, Russellville's hustling merchant, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

Mrs. L. O. Moore, who was visiting with relatives in Brownsville, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoey, who camped in Salem during the state fair, have returned home.

J. Ferguson, one of New Era's thrifty farmers, was in Oregon City on business, Tuesday.

Jack Latourette will leave Saturday morning for Eugene to attend the state university.

Deputy Assessor Frederick Nelson left Tuesday evening for Astoria on a business trip.

Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope and Earl Latourette were visiting friends near Canby last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce and son, of Portland, were visiting friends in this city this week.

Dr. Willard Morse, a former resident of this city, but now of Portland, was here Saturday.

Mrs. T. S. Lawrence, of Portland, visited with her daughter, Mrs. Linwood Jones, Sunday.

Earl Gordon, who has been with a surveying party during the summer, has returned home.

Mrs. Minnie Burns, of Centralia, Wash., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Moreland.

Mrs. Wilcox and two children spent a few days with Mrs. Wilcox's father, in Portland, this week.

R. Snodgrass, one of Meadowbrook's thrifty farmers, was in Oregon City on business, Wednesday.

Robert Ketchum left last week for a visit to his old home in Kansas. He will remain several weeks.

Judge T. F. Ryan returned Saturday evening from Salem, where he spent four days at the state fair.

Mrs. M. Jack, after a visit with her son, J. E. Jack, and wife, has returned to her home at Marquam.

Adolph Matthes and son of McMinnville, were guests, Tuesday, of the former's brother, E. Matthes.

Miss Mildred Warren, of Portland, spent a few days in this city the guest of her cousin, Mrs. C. C. Miller.

Raymond Caufield, Earl Latourette, Rhea Cole and Ruth Brightbill are attending the Portland high school.

Howard Zinser left Monday morning for Corvallis to take up a course of study at the Agricultural College.

Mrs. Charles Bluhm, of Portland, spent the first part of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mark.

Miss Fannie Porter and Miss Katherine Porter this week have taken up their duties in the Portland schools.

John Hanny left Monday morning for Corvallis to take up his second year's work at the Agricultural College.

H. O. Paddock, son of County Treasurer and Mrs. J. C. Paddock, has gone to Eugene to attend the state university.

Thomas Carrico, of Estacada, formerly of Oregon City, has returned to the former place after a week's stay here.

Mrs. J. H. Upton, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, has returned to her home in Portland.

Miss Bertha Alexander, of Pendleton, has returned to her home after a few weeks' visit with Miss Ethel Albright.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Shaw and daughter, Gwendoline, spent Saturday night and Sunday in Portland with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Woods, of Oakland, Oregon, spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGlashan.

Mrs. William Sheehan and son, of LaCamas, Wash., were visiting this week the former's sister, Mrs. Ed. Sheehan.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Church and baby are visiting at the home of Mr. Church's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Church.

Miss Ethel Cheney, of McMinnville, will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cheney, of this city, Saturday and Sunday.

Raymond Milln, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Milln, left Wednesday morning for Salem, where he will attend the mute school.

Joe Ganong, of Canemah, left for Corvallis Monday morning to take up his second year's work at the Agricultural college.

Mrs. Walden and daughter, Miss Antoinette, who had been at Bonneville for the last two weeks, have returned home.

Allan Adams and Rea Cole have returned from North Bank where they have been with a surveying party for the past month.

Miss Mildred Broughton, of Portland, who was the guest of Miss Alene Albright for several days, has returned to her home.

Fred Luce, after spending the summer with his parents in this city, has returned to Corvallis to attend the Agricultural college.

Miss Ona Renner, Virgil and Opal Welsh left Tuesday morning for McMinnville, where they will attend the Baptist college.

Mrs. J. C. Sawyer and daughter, Mrs. C. B. Frissell returned this week from a two months' stay at their cottage at Nye creek.

Professor W. C. McKee has returned from Lebanon, where he spent a few days. Mr. McKee was accompanied here by his wife.

Kenneth Latourette, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourette, left Wednesday for Yale to take up his second year's work at that college.

Howard Latourette, who is holding a temporary position in the U. S. land office at Roseburg, spent Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City.

Dr. Waldo Adams, who has been attending a medical college in Illinois, was visiting Oregon City friends for several days this week.

Mayor and Mrs. E. G. Caufield returned Wednesday evening from Seaside, where they had been spending a few days in their cottage.

Fred Meyers, cashier of the Commercial Bank, after a few days' outing near the headwaters of the Clackamas river, has returned home.

Miss Grace Robinson, of Clackamas, who has accepted a position with the West Side school, has taken up her residence on Seventh and Main streets.

Ralph Johnson left last week for Troutdale, where he will join a surveying party of the Southern Pacific. Mr. Johnson expects to be gone some time.

Mrs. George Marr, of Portland, visited Miss Muriel Stevens this week. Mrs. Marr formerly resided in this city where her husband was in business.

Misses Nellie M. and Mary Stevens, of Portland, were in this city on business a few days ago. Miss Nellie has accepted a position in the Oregon City schools.

Rev. J. R. Landsborough will return this week from North Dakota. He will hold services in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Harriet M. Roman, of Mt. Pleasant, has gone to Conowingo, Maryland, to visit her uncle, Dr. S. T. Roman. Miss Roman expects to be gone several months.

Mrs. Matilda Ganong Miller has returned to this city from a two weeks' stay at Collins. Mrs. Miller has again resumed her work in the land office at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McGlashan of Watsonville, Cal., returned to their home last week, after a few weeks visit with the former's brother, J. A. McGlashan.

Miss Helen Gleason leaves next week for Salem, where she is to teach in the public schools. This is Miss Gleason's second year in the schools of that city.

Roy Sleight, Harry E. Hughes, Marshall Lazelle and Dave McMillan were among those leaving for Corvallis Monday morning to attend the Agricultural college.

Leo Rosenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rosenstein, of this city, left Monday morning for the Agricultural College. He will this year graduate from that institution.

Miss Frances Myers has arrived from Forest Grove, where she has been spending the summer at her home, to take up her work in the Oregon City schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Jones, after a visit in Boise, Idaho, and Baker City,

The C C Store

WATCH OUR BUSINESS GROW

The Brown Shoe Co.'s

Shoes
BUY THE BEST

That's Brown's 5-Star Shoe. We carry a complete line of them in Men's, Ladies', Misses' and Children's. We have the shoe that will fit your foot at the price to fit your purse. See our sample shoes. We are selling them at wholesale prices.

Buy your Rubbers at the C C Store.

Blankets

White, gray and tan cotton blankets—Our special price—48-68-72-89-98-$1.48 the pair—

Heavy gray wool blankets the pair $3.00

Fine white wool, the pair. $3.75

Outing Flannel

We have a nice line of outing flannels in plain colors, also stripes and checks at 5, 6, 8 1-3 and 10c the yard.

Flannelettes

Flannelettes in light and dark shades—pretty patterns for children's school dresses at 9c and 10c the yard.

THE HORSESHOE

is an emblem of good luck. The savings pass-book is another emblem of good luck; and not only that, but of business shrewdness. Have you one of our books?

The BANK OF OREGON CITY

Bank open from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Miss Bertha Alexander, of Pendle-

The Fair Store

Our new goods are arriving daily from the great Eastern markets, and are being opened and placed on show as rapidly as possible. They are beautiful and were bought RIGHT, and everyone knows we will sell them at the

LOWEST PRICES