

WAGE-EARNING PEOPLE

We invite the attention of every wage-earner to the advantages of our Savings Bank. It affords a safe and profitable place for the accumulation of small savings.

The Bank of Oregon City

Fail to Buy Roseburg Plant.

The Willamette Valley company failed to close the deal to take over the Roseburg Water & Light company, and the plant has been sold to a New York man.

Boss Carder in Woolen Mills.

T. F. Brennan, who was boss carder in the woolen mills for the last three years, has resigned and left for the East. He is succeeded by Delbert Hart, who recently returned from Stockton and Marysville, Cal., where he held a similar position.

Oregon Patents.

Patents were granted Oregon inventors last week as follows: Walter T. Gordon, Juniper, machine for attaching slats to conveyer-belts. William A. F. Schoenebeck, Svensen, clothes-line apparatus. Edwin E. Thomas, Portland, steam-actuated valve. Herbert M. Webb, Deering, lamp-chimney.

A Clackamas Pioneer.

Heppner, Or., Sept. 23.—Albert Wright, who came here when there was but one building, died Sept. 16, aged 81. He came to Oregon from Iowa in 1853 and settled in Clackamas county, taking up a donation claim seven and one-half miles south of Oregon City. He came to Eastern Oregon in 1872.

Ely Coming to Town.

Fred Ely, for a long time a prominent resident of Elyville, has bought property in Oregon City and will shortly move down closer to town. P. M. Graves was the seller, the property being located in Ninth street and known as the Califf property. The consideration was $1400.

Willamette Lad Dead.

The body of Patsy Neil Kanney, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Kanney of Willamette, who died at Willamette Saturday night, was shipped today to Snohomish, Washington, for burial. The little fellow was a general favorite with all who knew him and his loss will be felt as much by the friends of the family as by his parents.

As Good As Hood River.

Mr. Waldo and R. E. Harbison of Hood River were in Oregon City Tuesday and inspected the hills south of town looking for fruit ground. Mr. Waldo has been a prominent fruit grower in the Hood River section and recently sold his place there. He is favorably impressed with the land in this vicinity and says it should raise fruit equal in all respects to the Hood River valley. The gentlemen were guests of Judge Grant B. Dimick while in this city.

St. John's Rapid Growth.

It is heard every day that St. Johns, the enterprising suburb of

City and Vicinity

Distribution of books from the Canby new city library began Monday.

John Risley of Risley station, was transacting business in this city Monday.

Some damage to prunes around Estacada, but crop pretty well saved, says the News.

Men as well as women will like the manager of the B. & A. Everybody admires a manly man.

E. T. Dedman, the strawberry grower of Clackamas county, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Dement's Best Flour. Basis of good bread is good flour. 42t1

A new sidewalk leading from the foot bridge on Twelfth street to Barclay high school is being built.

Mrs. Mary Barlow has had improvements made on her property on Washington street between Twelfth and Thirteenth.

Miss Irene McCown, who taught in the Oregon City public schools last year, is now Dr. Coe's assistant in Portland.

Rev. Chambers of Portland, held services at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday, Rev. P. K. Hammond being in Chicago.

Mr. Loren Kaser and wife, nee May Wishart, formerly of this place, have taken up their residence on 551 Fourth street, Portland.

A car load of poles for the Northwestern Telephone line were distributed along the route between Canby and Aurora last week.

Miss Maysie Foster, who recently moved to Portland, has been appointed contraalto soloist of the Mizpah Presbyterian church of that city.

W. H. Woods, after visiting with his family in this city for a few weeks, returned Tuesday morning to Drain, where he is employed in a sawmill.

W. P. Johnson of San Francisco, president of the Willamette Pulp and Paper company, is in Oregon City looking over the interests of his company.

Gilbert L. Hedges returned Monday from Vancouver, Wash., where he had been conducting a case for a client before the land office for the past few days.

Everman Robins, junior partner of the Robins Brothers' store at Molalla, returned to his home yesterday after a few days' visit with friends in Portland and Oregon City.

Miss Ailine Hardin, of Canby, has arrived in this city to attend the Barclay high school. Miss Hardin will make her home with Mrs. E. L. Shaw while in Oregon City.

Sunday, September 30, will be Rally Day of the Sunday school of the Baptist church. The exercises will take place at 12 o'clock, when an excellent program will be rendered by the young folks.

Dement's Best Flour. To try it is to appreciate it. 42t1

Brown and Collins have been awarded the contract to dig a well for A. E. Thompson, who recently came from Heppner and bought an acre of land at Gladstone. It is Mr. Thompson's intention of erecting a modern residence in that suburb.

Mrs. W. H. Godfrey went to Portland Friday morning to meet her friends, the Misses Eva and Estelle Hunter, who arrived from Maple Bay, Minn. They have both accepted positions in the schools near Eugene.

Miss Priebe, who has been sick for some time, is very low at her home on Seventh street. She is the daughter of Charles Priebe. A sister, who is at Wilsonville, has been sent for.

The city is putting in a system of catch basins at the foot of Sixth street, which will complete the improvement of that street and finish up the work of drainage of the thoroughfare.

Mrs. S. M. McCown is having a residence erected near the Golf Links, and when completed it will be one of the most attractive houses in that section. Mrs. McCown was formerly a resident of this city, but moved to Portland several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, who had been residing at Clatskanie, Ore., have taken up their residence in Portland, where Mr. Myers has gone into business. Mrs. Myers was formerly Miss Laura Conyers and has a large circle of acquaintances in this city.

Mack Howell has moved with his family to the place he recently bought of O. W. Eastham. Mr. Howell has made a number of improvements on the residence, one being a veranda. H. B. Cartledge, recently from Salida, Col., will occupy the Howell residence at 12th and Jefferson street.

Martin Taughtman of Wilsonville was in town Tuesday and received the papers from Clerk Greenman that entitles him to vote whenever he so desires and to exercise all other privileges of an American citizen. The Portland-Salem electric interurban right-of-way goes through Mr. Taughtman's fine farm.

Dement's Best Flour makes the best bread. Ask your grocer. 42t1

Grandpa De Vaney, of Jefferson, Ore., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Howell. He leaves Tuesday for Hubbard, where he will visit with friends for a few days. Mr. De Vaney is one of Linn county's most prominent pioneers, where he has large property interests.

Dr. Beard and wife arrived from Grants Pass a few days ago, having come by team. They were eight days coming, and camped on the way. Dr. Beard has given up the practice of medicine and will devote his time with his brother, William, in running the Beard farm at Maple Lane.

Mrs. Anna Merrill Seaman, who held the position as assistant postmistress during the administration of Postmaster E. M. Rands, is now assistant postmistress for Postmaster Blackerby, of Silverton. Mrs. Seaman has the best wishes of her many friends in this city in her work.

James Church, a well known Oregon City young man, is at present holding a responsible position in Ladd & Tilton's bank in Portland. Mr. Church was formerly connected with the Portland Flouring Mill Co., both here and at Lind, Wash. He recently resigned from the latter place and took the Portland position.

Norwood R. C. Charman, who has been employed the last few years as division engineer of the Northern Electric Railway that extends from Chico, Cal., to Sacramento, returned to Oregon City Friday evening, and is visiting relatives here. He leaves Wednesday evening for Eugene, where he will take up a special course at the State University.

Miss Gussie Humphrey Monday commenced the Fall term of her kindergarten class in the Weinhard building with a good attendance which promises to increase. Miss Humphrey has laid the foundation of a large class of children and by her experience and education is well equipped to conduct such a class.

Because Bill Bullock of Willamette Falls was a little joyful Sunday night and raised a small disturbance on the streets, he was taken in tow by Night Officer Ed Shaw and yesterday was brought before Recorder Dimick, who at once extended the courtesies of his office to the offender. Bullock was fined $5, which was paid on the spot.

Mrs. Mary La Forest presented to this office several ripe figs of the second growth from a tree on her place, at Twelfth and Washington streets. The figs are about the size of a hen's egg and have a delicious flavor. The tree has borne fruit for several years but this year the figs are much larger and of a better quality.

Joe Meldrum of Salem, is in Oregon City visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meldrum. Mr. Meldrum has been a resident of Frisco for several years, but his place of business was burned during the earthquake. Joe has many friends in this city who are glad to welcome him home again. He will remain here only a few days before returning to the capital city.

Carleton B. Harding, who is employed by the North Bank railroad, spent Sunday at his home in this city. He left Monday morning for South Bend on business, and from there he returns to his work. Mr. Harding met with quite a serious accident a few days ago, having his foot near the ankle badly cut with an ax, which necessitated his laying off for a few days.

The Knights of the Macabees held a smoker Monday evening which was in every sense of the word a success. A large attendance of members was out to hear J. W. Sherwood, State Commander, say a few words. The meeting was held in W. O. W. hall and after the smoker and refreshments were indulged in, the rest of the evening was spent at cards. This commandery of the Macabees is one of the best in the state and is in a flourishing condition.

Rev. Bollinger's Farewell. The Rev. E. S. Bollinger will next

School Books and Supplies

We have everything needed for the schoolroom. If you get your outfit at Huntley's, the kind will be right, the quality right the price right. We were the lowest bidders for furnishing the year's school supplies for the Oregon City schools.

- Lead Pencils 1c, 2c, 3c
- Slate pencils, dozen..... 3c
- Pencil Sharpners 5c
- Book Straps 5c
- Steel Pens, doz. 5c and 10c
- Penholders..... 1c, 2c and 5c
- Pencil box, with key..... 5c
- Rulers 5c, 10c, 15c
- Big Sponges 5c
- Colored crayons, 28 different colors 5c
- Fluid Ink 5c
- Composition Books 5c, 10c and 15c
- Huntley's Big Value Tablet, 12 oz., good paper 5c
- Brownie Lunch Boxes, 15c size for 10c
- Pen Tablets .. 5c, 10c and 15c
- Gold Fountain Pens, sold on 1 week's trial $1.00
- Ingersoll Stem-Winding Watch $1.00

Rulers and book covers free with all purchases. Don't be afraid to send the children. We know the right books for every grade and we will send home a bill showing all prices. We buy and sell second-hand school books.

HUNTLEY BROS. CO. Druggists and Booksellers.

Sunday deliver his farewell sermon. He recently accepted a call to the Highland church of Portland and will immediately leave for his new field of work.

The Congregational church has received many applications from ministers to fill the pulpit made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Bollinger, but no definite action as yet has been announced. Several of the applicants have been invited to deliver sermons at the church. The Rev. Oakley, of Eugene, is one who would like to come to the Oregon City pastorate and he will be heard a week from next Sunday in the Oregon City pulpit.

Elizabeth Beakey, aged 78 years, heard the horrified screams of the tot's elder brother, and she ran to the rescue. She dragged the heavy door off the child and gathering the bleeding form of her darling in her arms, hurried to the house, put her burden down and collapsed. Death from heart failure followed almost instantly. It was first thought she had fainted and it was a half hour before the family was convinced she was dead.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schuebel.

FOR FIRST-CLASS Work in the Barber line, try the O. K. SHOP Electric Massage for blackheads. "Head Vibratory," stops hair from coming out.

ANOTHER FREE OFFER

HAVE YOU AN ELECTRIC FLAT IRON

Electric Flat Irons Save Your Time

Electric Flat Irons Save Your Money

ELECTRIC IRONS ARE ALWAYS READY

If you care for CONVENIENCE, COMFORT, HEALTH, ECONOMY in your household; if you care to be up-to-date, progressive, in the swim; you will use an Electric Flat Iron.

By filling in the coupon below, you will receive one of our ELECTRIC FLAT IRONS, under conditions which ought to attract you.

STYLE NO. 1—Regular household, 6-lb. Flat Iron. STYLE NO. 2—Nickel-plated 3-lb. Smoothing Iron for dainty work.

The Iron will be delivered promptly upon receipt of coupon without expense to you.

CUT OUT COUPON.

C. G. MILLER, Contract Agent. PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, Oregon City. You may deliver to me one Electric Flat Iron, style No. _____ which I agree to try, and if unsatisfactory, to return to you within 30 days from date of delivery. If I do not return it at that time you may charge the same to my account at $4.00. It is understood that no charge will be made for the Iron if I return it within 30 days.

NAME Dept. "E" Address.....

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

C. G. Miller, Contract Agent, Oregon City, Ore.

New Fall Styles

Men's and Youth's Suits and Overcoats, Hats, Pants and Shirts, big variety at reasonable prices.

Complete stock of Shoes for Ladies, Men, Misses and Boys. We save you from 50c to $1.00 on every pair.

Full selection of Blankets, Comforters, Trunks and Suit Cases, 33 per cent less in price comparison to other stores' prices.

WE SELL NONE BUT FIRSTCLASS QUALITY

Rosenstein's Clothing House

Two Doors South of Postoffice

