PLANNING TO REVIVE OREGON CITY Y.M.C.A.

There is an indication that the Y. M. C. A. building movement in Portland, which is meeting with so much success, will have a reflective action in Oregon City. After two years of absolutely no organization in this city there is beginning to be felt a demand for some sort of organization of this kind.

The present situation of the Y. M. C. A. building at Eleventh and Main streets is thought to be too far north of the main part of the town and a more central location is desired. The matter is in the hands of the board of trustees who hope to soon have a meeting and consider the question from all view points.

At the present time there is no place for the youth of Oregon City to find athletic exercise coupled with a moral atmosphere. There is no military company for the older men to join which would have its influence for good. A number of the citizens and business men recognize this fact and by re-establishing the Y. M. C. A. a healthful athletic spirit could be developed.

Teacher at Maple Lane.

Miss Alta Shank has been engaged to teach Maple Lane school.

Butteville, Sept. 24.—Butteville was the scene of a robbery Saturday morning. The safe of J. J. Ryan, the merchant and hopgrower, was blown open by unknown parties, who seemed expert at the job, and $200 was taken. A horse was also taken from the barn owned by Ryan. No clew was left by the highwaymen, but the authorities have been given all details of the case and are doing their best to locate the law breakers.

Death of Fred Boberg.

Fred Boberg, after a short illness, died at his home in New Era Tuesday, September 25. Mr. Boberg was born October 3rd, 1864, in Europe, and came to Oregon, settling at New Era, where he has since resided. In April, 1898, he was married to Miss Emma Bremer, of the same place.

who is left to mourn his death, besides, three sisters and a brother, his parents dying several years ago. Boberg's death will be keenly felt, not only by his family, but by a large circle of friends. The funeral services will be held Thursday at the Lutheran church at New Era, Rev. Mertz officiating.

Death of Miss Harris.

Miss Mary Harris of this city died Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness. Miss Harris was born at Portsmouth, Virginia, from where she went to New York City. In 1890 she came to Oregon and settled at Astoria, where she resided for about two years, coming to Oregon City with her brother, Virginius, who had also been a resident of Astoria, in 1893. Miss Harris endured her long and hopeless illness with christian resignation. She was a woman of sterling character and made many friends who deeply regret her death. She leaves an only brother, Virginius, to whom she was greatly attached. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a devout member. Rev. H. D. Chambers, general missionary of the diocese, will officiate. The interment will be in Mountain View cemetery. The pall bearers were John Humphrey, William Rakel, O. A. Cheney, William Wright, F. Williamson and James Wilkinson.

She Found Relief.
If you are troubled with liver complaint and have not received help read this. Mrs. Mary E. Hammond, Moody, Texas. "I was in poor health—with liver trouble—for over a year. Doctors did me no good and I tried Herbine, and three bottles cured me. I can't say too much for Herbine, as it is a wonderful liver medicine. I always have it in the house. Publish where you wish. Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co."

MOUNTAIN VIEW NOTES.

Hopickers are all at home again. Most of them have done well. Mr. Lee has moved into the house formerly owned by George Ely. Mr. Reaman is out again, after a long, hard spell of sickness. Last week several here were under the doctor's care. Mrs. Hall and Nora Currins are better. Mr. Hall had a cousin visiting him and now his mother is here from Kansas. James Kays has been in feeble health and his mind became weakened so it was necessary to send him to the asylum at Salem. Mrs. Kays has gone to live with her daughter, Mrs. Murrow. Next Sunday at 3 p. m., Rev. Bolinger will be at our church for services. This will be his last time with us. The church seats have been repaired and painted and the dust cleaned out.

Mrs. Selby has two sick children. Charlie Dicky came home and brought some very fine apples. Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, who are visiting relatives here, spent a few days at St. Johns. Mrs. Stafford met with quite a painful accident, spraining her ankle while at St. Johns. They are at present with Mrs. Stafford's parents at Maple Lane.

We are all glad that Mr. Parrish is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. Mrs. J. H. Murrow and Mrs. Will Greenlee of Portland were here a couple of days last week. We regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frost, who have moved down nearer the business part of town.

SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK.

Mr. Stoll and some of his family enjoyed Wednesday at Portland park. Perry Hunter had the misfortune to lose a horse this week. George Johnson's family have very bad colds. Mrs. Alice Deardorff has gone to Portland to attend the Methodist conference. Rock Creek school is progressing finely. The singing at Mr. Rodlun's was enjoyed by many, the house being full. The hostess served coffee and cake.

and all had a fine time. They will meet at Mr. Chitwood's Sunday evening, October 7. Estes Deardorff spent Saturday night and Sunday at his brother, Joe Deardorff's. Farmers have commenced plowing.

SPRINGWATER NEWS.

Hopickers are returning home well pleased with their outing, and with a goodly amount of change. Prune drying is well towards a finish, though from the lack of driers, and because of the late rains, there will be a good portion go to waste. James Guttridge, who went east of the mountains about a year ago, was taken sick up there with typhoid and complications. He is in Portland hospital, a very sick man. Miss Ora Llewellyn and Mr. Zell of Prineville, Oregon, were married at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. J. Edward Blair, Sunday, September 23. They have gone and will make their home in Prineville. The bride's brother, George Llewellyn, came down from Morrow and brought his best girl with him to attend the wedding. Mr. Miller, who has W. H. Kandle's farm rented, has brought his bride, who was Miss Zimmerman, home from Portland. They are now at home in Springwater, and the opinion of the writer is that Mrs. Miller will make a splendid home.
