WOMEN'S NEGLECT

SUFFERING THE SURE PENALTY

Health Thus Lost Is Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? We hear every day the same story over and over again. "I do not feel well; I am so tired all the time!"

More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and no doubt you feel far from well. The cause may be easily traced to some derangement of the female organs which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, bearing-down pains, flatulency, nervousness, sleeplessness, or other female weaknesses. These symptoms are but warnings that there is danger ahead, and unless heeded a life of suffering or a serious operation is the inevitable result.

The never-failing remedy for all these symptoms is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Miss Kate McDonald of Woodbridge, N. J., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: Restored health has meant so much to me that I cannot help from telling about it for the sake of other suffering women.

METHODIST PASTORS ASSIGNED CHARGES

APPOINTMENT FOR CLACKAMAS COUNTY AND NEARBY TOWNS REV BLACKWELL RETURNS.

Bishop Henry W. Warren at the Oregon conference of the Methodist church which has been in session at Sunnyside, announced the appointments of ministers and their pastorate Monday night at 10:30 o'clock. In the vicinity of Oregon City and in the county the appointments read as follows: Borling, to be supplied. Canby and Canby circuit, to be supplied. Clackamas and Oswego, W. B. Moore. Demaseus, to be supplied. Estacada, C. T. McPherson, of Medford. Gresham, Alfred Thompson. Marquam, Henry Spires. Mullino, to be supplied. Oregon City, R. C. Blackwell. Viola, J. J. Patton.

John Schultz Insane. John Schultz of Maxburg was examined Friday before Judge Dimick on a charge of insanity and was committed to the asylum at Salem. He is 55 years old and his mania took the form of a desire to sleep in a stall out in the barn, although he had a good bed at his home. He had formerly been an inmate of the asylum but was thought to have been cured.

Wants Zig Zag Water. L. B. Wickersham has made filing on 90,000 miners' inches of water on Zig Zag creek. This creek is located near Mount Hood and is a camping ground for many of the Oregon City people who go out there for a vacation.

TRADES GLANDERED HORSE. Deo Wright, deputy stock inspector, discovered a horse that had been recently traded, suffering from glanders. As it is a criminal offense to exchange or sell an animal which is afflicted with a contagious disease, Mr Wright will report the case to State Veterinarian McLean, who is now absent in Eastern Oregon.

HEARST POPULAR IN CLACKAMAS

Endorsed by Convention Two Years Ago, But Bryan's Candidacy May Make Some Difference Now.

Two years ago the Democratic county convention embodied in its platform a resolution endorsing Hearst as a presidential possibility. At that time the publisher was the idol of the majority of the Clackamas Democracy and hence the resolution. It is probable that he is still as popular a man as he was then with the local Democrats, but few are inclined to talk concerning his victory in the recent New York convention and the adverse criticism that has been showered on him by some of the Democratic press and leaders.

There are Democrats here who are as Mayor McClellan has openly bolted the nomination of Hearst, there are found many doubting Thomases among the rank and file. Those who were friendly to the newspaper man two years ago are not so friendly at the present time. They think that he will probably win over the Republican candidate and that will put him in line for the presidency and that does not smack good to the voters. They want William Jennings Bryan and they don't want his chances spoiled by any success that may come to Hearst in the race for governor of New York.

None of the wisecracks would talk for publication as to what view the majority would take of the conditions in New York. Ex-County Central Chairman O. D. Eby said that it would take time for him to express an opinion. The present chairman of the county central committee, John Cook, said that he had opinions on the situation but did not know whether he voiced the majority of the county Democrats or not. It was too near the open season for pheasants, he said, and that it would take a week's good hunting and reading the dispatches of the progress of the campaign for him to make any statements.
