

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

On Thursday afternoon a notable wedding took place at the home of Rev. Lansborough of this city, when Miss Carrie Webster was united for life with Mr. Lloyd Lancefield of Portland. Miss Webster is a daughter of Mrs. Florence Curry Webster, well known to many old residents of Oregon City as the daughter of Governor Curry of Oregon territorial days, hence the bride is a granddaughter of one of Oregon's most honored characters. Just at this time the story of Governor Curry is becoming known after years of oblivion, as it has been set forth with romantic coloring by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye in her latest book, "McDonald of Oregon." In those old days when the Governor and his wife, Chloe Boone, lived at their home on the Willamette, above Oregon City, Miss Florence, the mother of the bride, was a belle much sought by Oregon City lads, who often went up the river to escort her to parties of the old Oregon day. Of all this, Miss Carrie knows but little, having heard rather than seen the glories of her mother's girlhood, but the elegant Webster home in Portland is a veritable museum of Curry relics and history. Mr. Lancefield, the groom, is a former student of Pacific University and an estimable young man. Their friends congratulate them.

Woman's Club Holds Meeting.

The Woman's Club held its first meeting of the season at the home of the president, Mrs. M. M. Charman, on Eighth and Main streets this afternoon. The meeting was opened with miscellaneous quotations by the members. An address was made by Mrs. M. M. Charman, after which Miss Irene Reynolds, a musician of much talent, rendered several selections. Miss Cornelia Marvin, secretary of Oregon Library commission, gave a most interesting talk on "A Public Library for Oregon City." Ways and Means." Much interest is taken by the ladies of this city in trying to secure for this city a public library, and it is hoped by their efforts that one can be secured. After Miss Marvin's address several musical selections were rendered. Mrs. Charman was assisted in the program by Mrs. Jeanette Scott, of this city. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The Charman home was tastefully decorated with Oregon grape, ferns, roses and autumn leaves. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Miss Pratt, Wednesday, October 24th.

Afterwards the floor was cleared and dancing was enjoyed till the early hours of the morning. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation and music.
