OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1906.

ESTABLISHED 1866.

WILL START CREAMERY PROJECT AT CLARKES

MASS MEETING CALLED FOR GRANGE HALL SATURDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 27.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE INVITED

Co-operation of Town and Country To Build Up Industry That Will Promote General Good.

At 1 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 27, a general meeting of all farmers interested in the establishment of a co-operative creamery, will be held in the Grange hall at Clarkes. At that time the committee, which was appointed at a previous meeting will make its recommendations.

The committee, consisting of J. Schram, J. Elmer, G. Grossmuller, Henry Kleinschmidt, William Bottemiller and W. Wettlaufer, met last Thursday and decided to recommend a set of by-laws and also to propose the Buhl site at Rock creek. A report on the building will also probably be ready by that time.

The meeting next week will be a rousing one of all the farmers in the neighborhood to stir up even greater interest in the enterprise than is now manifested. The district is badly in need of a creamery, since there is hardly any opportunity at present for the farmers to dispose of their cream. The country about Clarkes is well adapted to the creamery industry, and the slogan of those pushing the undertaking is, "Separator, creamery, cream check—the cream check lifts the mortgage." Up to now already $1000 worth of shares have been disposed of. It is the desire of the promoters to incorporate with at least $1600 or $1700 of shares sold. The shares are selling at $10 each.

Since this undertaking is calculated to promote the interests of Clackamas county as a whole, the farmers about Clarkes feel that Oregon City is also interested in the enterprise. They have extended an invitation, therefore, to the business men of the city to come and attend the meeting a week from Saturday, and, if they see fit, take a financial interest also in the corporation. Farm and city interests are interdependent, and this new creamery will undoubtedly promote that relationship.

MOLALLA GRANGE FAIR

PREMIUMS AWARDED AT SECOND ANNUAL EVENT IN SOUTH CLACKAMAS.

Molalla, Oct. 15.—The Grange fair was held here Saturday. Stock exhibit much better than last year.

Owing to the fact we had several deaths in the immediate vicinity, the pavilion exhibits were somewhat short of the previous fair. The juvenile department was much improved; yet it was short in two classes, viz: grain and mechanical display. Nine dollars are the total cash premiums won by the juveniles.

On account of the appearance of rain Friday evening, the amusements were materially cut short. Many exhibits were brought in too late to receive credit.

The good day Saturday came to aid between the dark days of sadness, and resulted in a good attendance. There will be a credit balance of something like $30 to begin with next year when we will try to put up a still better show.

Mrs. Clara H. Waldo was on hand at the appointed hour, leaving with us one of her appropriate speeches. The worthy lecturer was very well pleased with her short visit at Molalla.

The premium list, as near correct as possible on short arrangement, is as follows:

BREAST WOUND FAILS TO PROVE

J. P. DAVIS' STORY OF BEING HELD UP NEAR EAGLE CREEK STATION DOUBTED BY POLICE.

According to the story of J. P. Davis, an employe in the mill near Eagle Creek, he was held up on the road about a mile from the Eagle Creek station of the O. W. P. line. He claims to have been making his way to the car bound for Portland, about 9 o'clock Sunday morning, when a man, whose description is a matter of a good deal of uncertainty, ordered him to throw up his hands. Mr. Davis was carrying a small valise in one hand, and upon complying with the command only partially, the highwayman fired a shot at him and then ran away. The bullet, which was fired from a 22 calibre rifle, took effect and lodged in Davis' right breast, inflicting a slight flesh wound.

Sheriff Beattie left for the scene of the attempted hold-up about 11 a. m., and made a thorough investigation. Since Mr. Davis' home is not within the limits of Clackamas county, the sheriff did not get the opportunity to interview the wounded man personally. From inquiries in the neighborhood, it was learned that the man who was supposed to have made the attempt, was described as wearing a brown hunting coat by some, and others again declared that Davis described him as wearing a blue jumper. Davis himself is not sure whether he would be able to recognize his assailant if he were confronted with him.

The only facts that have thus far been established are that Davis was shot with a 22 rifle, and that he did not lose anything in the way of valuables or money in the course of the adventure. The authorities are inclined to discredit the hold-up part of the story, and while no theories have been advanced as to the manner in which Davis received his wound, the matter will be investigated further and the truth of the story ascertained. Mr. Davis was able to walk to his home at Lents without assistance, which would indicate that his injury is of a very slight nature.

G. W. Dimick, Hubbard, Apple and Walnut Growing in the Willamette Valley.

Geo. W. Dixon, Canby, Value of advertising to the Fruit Grower.

W. W. Jesse, Barlow, Co-operation. C. P. Andrews, Mt. Pleasant, Strawberries.

Dr. Beard, recently of Grants Pass. A. J. Lewis, County Fruit Inspector, The Working of the Law.

In view of the fact that the resolution of the State Horticultural society regarding affiliation of local societies with the state society, is to be acted upon at this meeting, it is important that all members should endeavor to be present. All persons interested are cordially invited. J. C. ZINSER, Secretary.

THIRTY CLACKAMAS STUDENTS AT O. A. C.

LIST OF THOSE REGISTERED FROM THIS COUNTY AT THE CORVALLIS COLLEGE.

The Agricultural college at Corvallis is a favorite institution with Clackamas county students and that its popularity is increasing is attested by the fact that no less than 30 are enrolled there this year from this county. The complete list follows:

Joseph A. Ganong, Howard Gill, John E. Hanny, Marshall James Lazzelle, Fred Deininger Luse, William Lester Marrs, Ralph S. Milln, Evaline Newkirk, Leo Rosenstein, Thomas R. Slight, Claude B. Sprague, Helen M. Sprague, Roy H. Sprague and Francis H. Zinser, all of Oregon City; Soren F. Holm, William Alvi Sellwood, Mariabel W. Cheney and Etta A. Hall, of Milwaukie; Otto H. Elmer, Mulino; Georgia V. Ewing and Walter Walling, Oswego; Frederick L. Griffin, Canby; Zoia Irwin, William T. Stratton and Cora M. Yocum, Estacada; Elton Irwin Kelly, Aims; John Ketels, Clackamas; George J. Reiling and Alvah A. Witzig, Parkplace; Raymond Seely, Wilsonville.

The registrar reports the total enrollment already 655, which is nearly 100 larger than ever before at this time of year. He says the probabilities are that at least 800 students will be in the institution during the school year.

PREPARATIONS FOR FREE DELIVERY MADE

Postmaster Randall received word from the department Monday morning stating that the letter boxes, 21 in number have been shipped. Eighteen of the number will be put up and three kept in reserve. The department also authorized Mr. Randall to ask for bids for the erection of the boxes. The leather pouches for the carriers have arrived, and after the carriers are selected at the examination next Saturday, preparations for inaugurating the service on December 1, will be well forwarded.

Cruel Treatment Charged.
Minnie McCulloch of Portland has sued for divorce from her husband, John McCulloch, for cruel and inhuman treatment and non-support.

OREGON POPULATION OVER HALF MILLION

LATEST REVISED FIGURES BY STATE LABOR COMMISSION. ER O. P. HOFF.

Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff is spending his days down at Salem, figuring up Oregon's population. His very latest gives the state in excess of a half million inhabitants.

The way he arrives at his result is thusly: In a seven column table he gives in the first column the population in 1900 (Government census) which was 413,536, next census of 1905, 449,871; next estimate based on school children in 1904, 466,986, next estimate based on school census of 1906, or 495,324; next estimate based on school enrollment of 1906, 518,483; next estimate based on school attendance 1906, 500,754; and finally the average of school enrollment and attendance, 1906, which is 504,649, and which he says is a fairly accurate statement of the present population. Clackamas county's figures in the seven columns are as follows, respectively: 19,658, 20,478, 20,631, 22,012, 22,352, 20,552 and 21,638—the last being our present population according to figure-sharp Hoff.

PROGRAM FOR THE HORTICULTURALISTS

Speakers and Subjects For County Society Meeting Next Saturday.

Following are some of the speakers who will address the Clackamas county Horticultural society in the county court room Saturday, October 20, at 10 o'clock:

INSTALLATION AND BANQUET

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT INAUGURATION OF NEW K. & L. OF S. OFFICERS.

Supper and Dancing Follow the Work—Many Come From Portland in Special Car.

In a most impressive lodge ceremony at Woodman hall, Monday evening, Mrs. Feeny, of Portland, acting as national president, installed the following officers of the Knights and Ladies of Security: Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, president; Fred Williams, vice-president; Jean Woodward, second vice-president; Edmond Richards, prelate; Mark Chapman, secretary; Mrs. Jennie Boyles, financier; Miss Ella Lutz, conductor; Mrs. Elmer Lankins, guard; Clayton Green, sentinel; Mrs. W. A. White, musician; Mrs. P. J. Lutz, captain.

Mrs. Lutz, the outgoing president, has been a faithful worker, having served five years as president. Mrs. Schwartz, the newly elected president, by virtue of her faithful services in the past is unquestionably entitled to the new honor she has received and will fill the office with credit.

The installation took place in the center of the main hall and presented a picture, with the team in their beautiful new robes worn for the first time at an installation.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, the officers and members of the Portland lodge and invited guests were escorted to the banquet hall by the staff. A sumptuous supper had been prepared and the tables presented an inviting appearance, decorated with flowers, fruits and Virginia creeper, the center piece being a huge jardiner of La France roses and maiden hair ferns. The hall was decorated with flags, evergreens and autumn leaves.

After the banquet, Cooke's orchestra furnished music for the dancing which was indulged in till a late hour. There were about 150 present, a special car bringing many from Portland.

The order of Knights and Ladies of Security of this city is in a very flourishing condition, having on its roll 115 members, and recently winning first prize in a membership contest in which over 1000 lodges participated. The drills and ceremonies of the Order are very pretty and impressive, the staff wearing elaborate robes.

The members of the staff are as follows: Mrs. P. J. Lutz, captain; Mrs. Carl Kinsey, conductor; Mrs. A. I. Wilson, Mrs. Alex Simmons, Mrs. F. Phillips, Mrs. M. P. Chapman, Mrs. Eva Leighton, Mrs. Wm. Estes, Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Lillian Saunders, Mrs. Thomas Trembath, Mrs. A. Krueger, Miss Burgess and Miss Wallace.

Meeting For Men and Boys.
There will be a meeting in the Sunday school rooms of the Baptist church at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon for men and boys. Dr. C. M. Babbitt of Portland will talk.
