SAWDUST TRIAL ENDED.

Jury Requires Three Hours To Reach a Verdict.

The trial of C. E. Dubois was resumed at 9 o'clock, Thursday morning, the verdict of not guilty being returned at 1:30 p. m. as stated in last night's Star.

The arguments on both sides were short and lasted about an hour. It was contended by the prosecution and admitted by the defense that sawdust and planer shavings had been cast into the creek. The defendant was charged with "permitting sawdust and planer shavings to be cast into the creek emptying into the Clackamas river." The defense urged in answer to this charge that the defendant had not been guilty of any wilful act or any negligence, that he had used due diligence to prevent anything of this kind by constructing an effective bulk-head. The case resolved itself, therefore, into a question of whether or not the Dubois mill had violated the statute by some overt or neglectful act, or whether the sawdust that actually did get into the river got there from Dubois' mill by pure accident, or might have come from some other mills a long while before.

The jury was charged and retired at 10:30, taking three hours to reach an agreement.

Mr. Brownell conducted the defense, and Deputy District Attorney Schueler the prosecution.

WILL DISSOLVE OLD CHAUTAUQUA COMPANY

THE STOCKHOLDERS ADOPT RESOLUTION OF DIRECTORS BY UNANIMOUS VOTE.

RESULTS OF FRIDAY'S MEETING

New Corporation Will Take Over Assets and Pay All Debts of the Present Association.

Off with the old, on with the new, was the unanimous vote of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua association stockholders' meeting held in the court house Friday afternoon.

This of course refers only to the ownership or rather financial support of the assembly, not to the purpose, aims or conduct in general of the assemblies.

There were 303 shares of stock represented at the meeting, and every share was voted aye on the resolution recommended by the board of directors to dissolve the association and transfer the entire assets to a new company that is to assume the debts of the old association amounting to $2250.

The work of forming another Chautauqua association was delegated to the newly elected board of directors, which, with the exception of A. F. Parker, who was elected to succeed the late E. E. Charman, is the same as formerly.

In the absence of President W. C. Hawley, C. H. Dye, vice-president of the association, presided. Secretary Harvey E. Cross made a statement detailing the financial condition of the organization and explaining the existence of a deficit and how the same accumulated. Following this statement, the resolution directing the dissolution of the old corporation was unanimously adopted, as was another resolution directing the board of directors to proceed with the organization of a new corporation to carry on the Chautauqua work and solicit subscriptions to its stock, such new corporation to acquire the assets of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua association and to assume its obligations.

This being the first annual meeting of the stockholders that had been held for two years, it was decided to hold an election of officers, in order that the dissolution of the old association and the initiation of a new corporation might be regularly proceeded with. This election resulted in the re-election of the old officers and directors with the exception of Director A. F. Parker, who succeeds the late E. E. Charman, as follows: President, W. C. Hawley; vice-president, C. H. Dye; secretary, Harvey E. Cross; treasurer, E. G. Caufield; directors, W. A. Huntley, George A. Harding, C. B. Moores, State Treasurer-elect Geo. A. Steel, Captain J. A. Apperson and A. F. Parker.

Seven members of the newly elected board of directors, viz: Messrs. Apperson, Cross, Dye, Harding, Huntley, Moores and Steel, have pledged themselves to each take $100 of the stock in the new corporation, but the directors will not begin soliciting stock subscriptions until they have been assured of improved transportation service in enabling visitors to reach the Chautauqua grounds. This matter has been presented to President W. H. Goode of Portland, who has assured the Chautauqua promoters that their petition will be considered and acted upon, probably favorably, some time during the present month.

When that important matter is concluded satisfactorily, the formation of the new association will be pushed rapidly in order that the details for holding an assembly next summer may receive early attention. The assets of the old corporation consist of an unincumbered lease to 75 acres, which does not terminate for 40 years, and buildings of the estimated value of $5000. It is proposed to incorporate the new corporation with a capital stock of $5000, consisting of shares of $25 each.

Inhuman Treatment and Desertion.
C. W. Geer has filed a complaint, praying for a decree of divorce from his wife, May E. Geer, on the grounds of inhuman treatment and desertion. Orders for the publication of summons were also filed.

Death's Daily Harvest.
Charles M. West, of Elyville, died Tuesday morning, after a short illness, from a severe attack of typhoid fever. Mr. West was 44 years old and leaves a wife and two children. He was employed as a blacksmith in the paper mills, and was regarded as a reliable, steady man of excellent character.

The funeral services were held in the Congregational church at Elyville Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, and interment was in Mountain View cemetery. The Artisans, of which Mr. West was a member, had charge of the funeral arrangements. The following were pall-bearers: Sam Francis, Frank Burley, Frank Albright, and William Hall. The Rev. W. H. Robins conducted the services at the

Mrs. Frank Bruner, who was so terribly burned last week by the explosion of a lamp, died at her home near Liberal, Thursday, after a week of intense suffering. Funeral services were conducted at her late home Friday morning by Rev. R. C. Blackwell of the Oregon City Methodist church. The funeral cortege left Liberal at 11 a. m. and came to Mountain View cemetery where interment was made in the afternoon. Mary Parker, the maiden name of the deceased, was born in Marion county 60 years ago, from where in her early childhood she removed with her parents to Clackamas county, where she lived continuously until death. Besides a husband, she is survived by four children, as follows: Mrs. G. A. Heidinger, of Montana; Leon Bruner, of Southern Oregon; and Mrs. C. P. Huston, of Challis, Idaho.

Cure For The Blues ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained.

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: "She has been feeling 'out of sorts' for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her periods she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 13th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes: "I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female troubles, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency, as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.
