

Popular Books Published

AT $1.50

Huntleys Special Price 50c

To Have and to Hold, Castle Cranecrow, The Call of the Wild, Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come, Man from Glengarry, Man on the Box, Soldiers of Fortune, The Millionaire Baby, Cardinal's Snuff Box, Helmet of Navarre, If I Were King, Eben Holden, David Harum, Sea Wolf, St. Elmo, Raffles, Leopards Spots, The Sherrods, Sky Pilot, The Spenders, Janice Meredith, The Virginian, The Cost, Crisis.

These are the books everybody is reading. Make your choice today. They are going fast.

Huntley Bros.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

Miss Mary Conyers of this city writes from Norwood, N. Y., where she has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lewthwaite, that they had just returned from an outing in the Adirondacks, where they spent a most delightful time at Sylvan Falls hotel on the St. Regis river; also that they visited the famous Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence river, that are noted for the beautiful summer homes of the wealthy from all over the world. Mr. Lewthwaite was formerly connected with the W. P. & P. Co. of this city, but is now general manager of the Norwood Paper mills. Miss Conyers leaves shortly for New York city, where she will resume her musical studies. She has a sweet soprano voice and gave a number of recitals in this city, where she pleased large audiences with her singing. Miss Conyers has many friends here who are anxious to hear her sing when she returns which will probably be next year.

A birthday surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. E. Harrington of Gladstone Thursday evening. It was one of the old kind of surprise parties—the kind that the recipients do not know anything about before hand. The evening was spent very pleasantly in playing various games and in partaking of refreshments. Mrs. Warren assisted in doing the honors with the Misses Eva, Pearl and Wava Harrington. The guests present were Judge and Mrs. G. B. Dimick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tooze, Mr. and Mrs. F. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Carter.

The occasion was the celebration of Mr. Harrington's 34th birthday. A handsome china plate, cup and saucer was the present of Judge G. B. Dimick.

Norris-Bowie.

Dr. Rae Norris sprung a complete surprise on his nearest relatives as well as his host of friends by going to Portland yesterday and taking as a life partner Miss Ida Bowie, recently from California. The relatives and friends though shocked at not being taken into the doctor's confidence, are no less happy and congratulate him and his bride, who is reputed to be a handsome girl and as beautiful in character as face. Dr. Norris is a rising young physician who is building up a lucrative practice by skillful and faithful work.

A party of Oregon City people gave a surprise party at Mrs. Kugelmann's residence at Sunnyside yesterday. The party, which returned last evening, included the following ladies: Mrs. A. Knapp, Mrs. R. Siler, Mrs. M. Michaels, Mrs. D. M. Klemesen, Mrs. A. Schoenheims, Mrs. L. Nobel and Mrs. C. Hartman.

A marriage license was issued in Portland Thursday, October 11, to Everett Derstine Adamson, aged 18 years, of 413 Couch St., and Miss Edna Kyler, aged 16 years. Miss Kyler formerly lived in Oregon City, where she attended the Barclay high school. Her mother is at present a resident of this city.

Albert F. Knight of Canby, and Miss Ethel Gore of Multnomah county were granted a marriage license last week in Portland. Mr. Knight is one of Canby's most prominent young men and has a host of friends who extend their congratulations.

The marriage of Ingeborg Nybo and C. A. Nelson took place in the private office of County Judge Dimick Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Nelson is a resident of Tacoma.

The dance given by the Milwaukie band in the Armory hall Saturday night was a success in every way. It was the first of a series to be given by the band this winter.

Fred Schaffer of Molalla was in the city Tuesday.

L. W. Robbins of Molalla was in town Monday.

F. H. Matthew of Butteville was in Oregon City on business, Tuesday.

George and Ralph Knight of Canby were in the city on business Tuesday.

Willis Knox of Fossil was transacting business in this city Friday.

J. E. Vick of Molalla was transacting business in Oregon City, Friday.

Mr. Wolfer, of Aurora, was transacting business in Oregon City, Tuesday.

Rev. W. L. Wettlauffer of Clarkes was in Oregon City the first of the week.

Dr. Leavitt of Molalla was in the county seat transacting business, Tuesday.

"Rube" Confer returned to Estacada Sunday, after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Confer.

Albert Coupe and family have purchased a farm near Logan and left for that place Saturday morning.

C. W. Owens a prominent resident of the Needy country, was in Oregon City Wednesday on business.

Judge T. F. Ryan will go to Molalla Thursday on business connected with the Oregon City and Molalla electric road.

D. Wright, deputy stock inspector, was in the city Monday. He reports a breakdown in the Ogle Mountain mine, where two wagons were sluiced and badly damaged.

C. A. Cass of Hood River, member of the drug firm of Keir & Cass, was in the city Monday to look after some property which he acquired here recently through H. E. Cross.

Mrs. Henry Meldrum left Sunday evening for Bingham Springs, where she will visit for a week with her husband, who is holding a position with the Smythe surveying party.

Mrs. Charlie Beers, nee Lelia Jones, of Salem, visited her brother Linwood E. Jones and wife, Friday. Mrs. Jones was called to Portland by the serious illness of her uncle, Mr. Mead.

Thomas Myers of Portland, who has been ill with a light attack of pneumonia at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Ab. Dillman, has recovered sufficiently to leave to spend a few weeks with his parents, on their farm near Maple Lane.

Mrs. Mary Krumm, of McMinnville, was the guest of Mrs. O. O. Cheney in this city Friday. Mrs. Krumm left for Crescent in the evening, where she will visit with her brother, Charles Reynolds, for a few days, before returning to her home.

Charles Meserve, formerly editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, but now on the Grants Pass Courier, passed through this city a few days ago, on his way home from Hood River, where he had been attending the Hood River Fruit fair. Mr. Meserve is secretary and manager of the Grants Pass Fruit Growers' Union, and is fruit inspector for Josephine county.

WOOD WANTED—Eight cords of 1st growth fir wood wanted. Inquire of Harry Shaw at the Enterprise office.

Wanted—Gentleman or lady with good reference to travel by rail or with rig, for a firm of $250,000.00 capital. Salary $1,072 per year and expenses. Salary paid weekly and expenses advanced. Address with stamp, Jos. A. Alexander, Oregon City, Ore. Dec. 21

Hops Advancing.

Over in England, where the hop crop is a failure and where prices are made, they are awakening to the fact that hops, especially Oregon hops, are hopped this year. The London market went up lively Monday. Transactions in the valley also show advances. Fred Elwert of Sherwood sold 115 bales at 15 cents yesterday; down around Woodburn several sales were reported at 14 and 14½, and Krebs Bros at Salem sold over 1000 bales at 15½, and all the dealers there are offering that price. One lot at Dallas brought 17 cents.

MONEY TO LOAN AT 6 AND 7 per cent. Farm security. U'Ren & Schuebel.

DEATH'S DAILY HARVEST

Le Roy C. Driggs, brother-in-law to C. D. Latourette, died at Port-Wednesday at 2:30 a.m., aged 65, from cancer. Mr. Driggs was formerly a resident of Oregon City and is well-known here, having lived here for about 15 years. A wife and two sons survive. One son, E. F. Driggs, is located in Brooklyn, and the other, L. L., lives in New York city.

Robert Wilkinson, Jr., who has been ill for a year or more, died Wednesday morning from tuberculosis at the home of his parents.

Baptists at Albany.

The largest gathering of delegates and ministers that ever attended a Baptist convention in Oregon are at Albany at the 21st annual convention. Rev. H. B. Robbins of Oregon City was made a member of the committee on nominations.

Distinctive Clothes of Quality for Particular Men

WE can supply your wants. As for value giving we know, and will prove to look where you may you will not find any values to equal those we offer.

Men's Suits at $8.50 to $25

Men's Overcoats $7.50 to $25

Men's Cravette Raincoats of latest vogue $8.50 to $20

YOUNG MENS SACK SUITS

of smartest cut in Worsted, Cassimeres and Cheviots. As "Seeing is believing" we ask you to come and see our assortment $6.50 to $15.00.

CHILDRENS CLOTHING -- You will not find any values to equal those we offer $2.25 to $6.00.

I. SELLING

JURYMEN DRAWN FOR NOVEMBER

At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Sheriff Beatie and County Clerk Greenman drew the thirty-one names of the men who are to constitute the jury-panel for the coming term of the circuit court of Clackamas county. These men are summoned to appear for jury duty on November 5, for the opening of court.

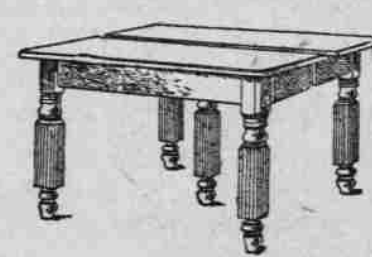

C. D. Robbins, Harding; Peter Held, Haines, Oswego; J. J. Kruse, Oswego; J. M. Park, Springwater; O. S. Whitten, Oswego; M. P. Chapman, Oregon City; Edw. Wetzler, Milwaukie; Jonas Kline, Bull Run; Duane C. Ely, Oregon City; W. F. Boberg, Sherwood; James Marquam, Marquam; Wm. Harris, Maple Lane; P. Wornsdahl, Killin; E. R. Hubbard, Marquam; Linton Paine, Milk Creek; John Grover, Mil-Fred Metzner, Oregon City; Jno. C. waukie.

FRANK BUSCH The Housefurnisher

We never want you to leave this store displeased, as our success lies in pleasing you, and there's a way to right all errors no matter how serious they may seem. A satisfied customer helps us in myriads of ways. We try to preserve for our store that permanent significance of reliability that is today associated with its name.

This lamp stands 18-inches high. $1.50.

Elegant golden finished 6-foot extension table ..... $5.00

Iron Bed like cut, reduced for this week, ending Oct. 13 ..... $3.50

Chinese Matting 15c per yard.

6 high-back dining room chairs. $3.90

85c per yard will buy the best Ingrain carpet that was ever made. We have cheaper grades, as low as 45c per yard.

Wool Blankets 85c per pound; this week only

Lace curtains sold by the yard, fancy patterns, 15c per yard.

Gem Cook Stove. Fully Warranted; 22-inch oven ..... $20.00

J. E. Smith Hardware Co. The House of Quality

All Groceries New Groceries Stock

Complete Line Arrived this Week—Now Open and Ready for Business

J. E. Smith Hardware Co. The House of Quality.

DON'T FORGET THE CASH PRICES