Many an Oregon City Reader Will Be Interested.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter.

Under the date of February 27th, 1906, W. M. Stone, a well-known resident of Oregon City, writes us the following: "I have been much benefited by the use of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. My trouble was occasional dizzy spells and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I had to get up often at night. I had to pass them, I have also had some ache, sore throat. Heals cuts, bruises, few attacks of backache. Having es, scalds. Stops any pain.

IN ALL THAT'S GOOD MAPLE LANE GRANGE MAKES FINE EXHIBIT

Maple Lane Grange No. 296 held its second annual fair in its hall Wednesday. It was largely attended both by members and friends.

Among the visitors present were Mrs. A. M. Brayton, Mrs. M. Ingram and Mrs. I. D. Taylor, of Abernethy, Parkplace; Mr. and Mrs. William Grisenthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spence of Central Grange, Beaver Creek; Mrs. V. Y. Bennett of Aberdeen, S. Dak.; Mrs. Wheeler Church and Mrs. S. S. Walker, Oregon City.

The morning session was opened by the Master of the Grange, S. T. Roman, Lambert Beard acting as secretary pro tem, and after the usual routine of business a sumptuous banquet was enjoyed.

After dinner a brief time was well spent in viewing the exhibits, which had been brought by the members of the Maple Lane Grange. Master Roman then called to order and the following program was rendered: Opening address, "Master S. T. Roman; Song, "Work For the Night Is Coming," Grange; address, C. E. Spence; recitation, Mrs. William Beard; duet, Edith and Ruth Parker; recitation, Shirley Swallow; vocal solo, May Splinter; recitation, Mrs. A. Mautz; address, William Beard; recitation, Myrtle Swallow; duet, Pleasant Allen and John Darling; address, Mrs. Ingram, of Abernethy Grange; address, Mrs. Brayton of Abernethy Grange.

The program was concluded by a few well chosen remarks by Mr. Roman. Miss Ethel Jackson was accompanist for the vocalists. A social hour followed the program.

Among the exhibitors were the following:

C. W. Swallow—Rhode Island Greenings, Baldwins, Grimes Golden, Russets, Clavis (a seedling that has been given that name by Mr. Swallow taking letters from Lewis and Clark, last year being the first year it bore), Mills Prize, Early Massachusetts, Early Freeman, Kay, Swallow Greening, (seedling, the original apple tree being on Mr. Swallow's father's place in Massachusetts). Onions, assorted; Squash, Golden Narrow; Prunes—Sugar, Italian and Silver; Pears—Napoleon Butter, Bergamont, Vicar, Winter Nellis, Winter Bartlett; evaporated apples, without sulphur; two varieties of French walnuts; preparturinis; Franquette, French, chestnuts.

Mrs. Swallow—Canned fruit, jellies and canned vegetables.

Mrs. John Crawford — Tomatoes, Early Bovee potatoes.

Miss Bessie Crawford—Laver Cake.

A. J. Lewis—Apples: Yellow Bellflower, Northern Spy, Fall Pippin, Baldwin, Orange Quinces; vegetables—cabbage, turnips, beets, radishes, carrots.

Mrs. A. J. Lewis — Cake, canned fruit and jellies.

Mrs. Sarah Derrick—Canned fruit, bread, cake and jellies.

Mrs. Martha Hobbie—Bread, jellies, canned cherries.

Mrs. A. Mautz—Canned fruit, bread, biscuits, butter, grapes, cake, quinces, cabbage.

Mrs. William Beard—Bread, cake, canned fruit, vegetables, grain; dried prunes.

S. T. Roman—Otaheite Orange, raised at Mount Pleasant from tree about two feet high. There are 32 oranges on the tree and the fruit has a rich flavor.

L. M. Davies—Apples (King of Tompkins).

Mrs. James Shelly—Pickles and jelly.

Miss H. Bailey—Collection of house plants, including a Cuneatun, aspidistra and dracaenas. Miss Bailey has recently completed a conservatory near Maple Lane.

Two beautiful patchwork quilts had been made by the ladies of the grange and chances were sold for 10 cents. The tickets were placed in a box and drawn by little Myrtle Swallow, the lucky number being 226, held by Mrs. Orway, who was recently married, and who will leave for her new home in Massachusetts Friday evening. She will take the comforter as a pleasant remembrance of the fair at Maple Lane. The other winning number, 266 was held by William Lewis.

Miss H. Bailey presented Maple Lane Grange with a beautiful Cuneatun plant which was auctioned off by A. J. Lewis. The highest bid, $1, was by Wallace Lewis

In the evening the floors were cleared and dancing was enjoyed till a late hour by the young folks.

The decorations of the hall were very artistic, with vines, variegated leaves and ivy. Over the door was the word "Welcome" in evergreens. The booths where fancy needle work and home made candies were sold, were prettily made of bunting and ivy. The needle work booth was presided over by Mrs. James Shelly, Mrs. A. Splinter and Mrs. A. J. Lewis. Miss Bessie Crawford had charge of the candy booth, which did a flourishing business. The decorations were in charge of Mrs. A. Splinter and Mrs. James Shelly.

Maple Lane is a progressive, growing grange. It owns a commodious hall, built in 1903, and is now contemplating the addition of a kitchen for the convenience of the ladies on such occasions. Regular meetings are held the first Saturday in each month and at the next meeting an election will be held.

The following are present officers: S. T. Roman, master; Mrs. Mary Shelly, overseer; Wm. Beard, secretary; A. J. Lewis treasurer; Mrs. Seely, lecturer.

Lest We

forget—Baby is restless, can't sleep at night, won't eat, cries spasmodically, never fails to cure. Every mother should give her baby White's Cream Vermifuge. So many times when the baby is pale and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to his cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial. For sale by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

Made Life Miserable.

Divorce proceedings were instituted Friday afternoon by W. B. Bell against Clara C. Bell on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Plaintiff alleges that since the time of their marriage he has been persuaded from time to time to turn over various properties in his wife's name, and that after he had done so she began to make life miserable for him by constant nagging and scolding. According to the complaint she spent a large share of her time among the neighbors stirring up strife and trouble between them and himself.

At the Wm. Vaughn estate sale of personal property near Molalla the first of the week, the sales totaled over $2300 in less than three hours.
