

Cut Rate Subscription

We want your subscriptions - all of them, we will save you money, risk and trouble if you will bring them to us. We meet all combination and club offers made by anybody, and often go them one better.

How is this?

| | | |
|------------|------------------------|--------|
| Pub. Price | Cosmopolitan, one year | $1.00 |
| $6.00 | Worlds Work | 3.00 |
| | Delineator | 1.00 |
| | Mc Clures Magazine | 1.00 |
| | | 6.00 |

These are the magazines you want - not the cheap ones you don't want at any price.

Our price is $3.65

HUNTLEY BROTHERS CO.

The Rexall Druggists.

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

Griffith-Buckles.

A very pretty but quiet wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Estelle Buckles and Mr. George E. Griffith.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Buckles of Willamette. Rev. H. B. Robins, pastor of the Baptist church performed the ceremony.

Only immediate members of the families of the young couple were present. After refreshments were served, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith left for a short trip.

The bride is a charming young woman and was formerly employed as a saleslady at Adams' store, where she made many friends by her obliging and courteous manner. The groom is a popular young business man of this city.

When Mr. and Mrs. Griffith return to this city, they will occupy a cottage recently built and handsomely furnished by the groom at Thirteenth and Main streets. They will be at home to their friends after November 1st.

Miss Calla Hornshuh of Shubel, and Olef Oas of Portland were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hornshuh, last Saturday evening, Rev. Wetlaufer performing the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Portland. Many friends wish them happiness and success.

McKenzie-Dedman.

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the wedding of Miss Nanna Dedman and Mr. Jacob McKenzie, both of Portland, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. S. Dedman of Clackamas. The Rev. W. B. Moore of the Methodist church of Clackamas officiated. Dr. and Mrs. Dedman attended the bride and groom. Mrs. Will Dedman played the wedding march and sang "The Answer." Miss Jessie Paddock caught the bride's bouquet. A wedding breakfast was served at the close of the ceremony, about thirty relatives and friends comprising the wedding party. The decorations in the parlor were in green and white and the dining room in red. The couple were the recipients of many costly gifts. They will make their home in Portland, where both have been employed in the Maier & Frank establishment. They go attended with the best wishes of a large number of friends.

Allger-Meindl.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meindl on the Abernethy, when their daughter Katie was united in marriage to Mr. A. C. Allger by Judge Dimick. The ceremony was performed Sunday noon, and a select party of friends and relatives partook of an excellent wedding feast after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Allger are well known in the county and will make their home at 749 Mississippi avenue, Portland. The guests were Martin Welch, Mr. and Mrs. John W. McCallie, Miss Mary Saub, Mr. Con Hilgar, Frank Meindl, Verda Meindl, Eugenia Meindl, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meindl, Anna Meindl, Jr., Albert Meindl, Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Meindl, Grace Meindl, Mr. and Mrs. William Allger, Miss Lena Stoll, Fred Poujade, Katie Friedrichs, J. A. Cain.

Greenwell-Chitwood.

Miss Dollie B. Chitwood and Mr. Warren Greenwell, both of Clackamas county, were married at the home of the bride's parents near Damascus, at high noon, October 17, Rev. J. A. Royer of Damascus performing the ceremony. A bountiful wedding dinner was served, and many beautiful presents were received by the happy couple. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chitwood, the Misses Mary, Hazel and Emma Chitwood, Messrs. John and Lyon Chitwood, Mrs. J. Greenwell, Misses Ana and Elsa, Mr. George and Master Roy Greenwell, Mr. and Mrs. Gantenbiene of Portland.

The Eastern Star entertained the members of that Order and their Masonic brethren at a social in the Masonic Temple Tuesday night. The evening was pleasantly spent playing whist, at which Mrs. E. P. Rands won ladies' first prize and Charles W. Evans won the gentlemen's first prize. Refreshments were served during the evening. Much credit is due Miss Myrtle Buchanan, Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Linwood Jones, the committee in charge, for the success of the entertainment.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Ray Austin of Liberal spent Monday in Oregon City.

G. Fisher, a Logan merchant, was in the city Monday.

Dr. J. J. Smith of Molalla was in the city on Monday.

Fred Schafer of Molalla was in the county seat, Monday.

C. Green visited with his uncle at Estacada over Sunday.

George Crook of Mulino, was in the city on business Monday.

J. P. Galeener, merchant from Viola was in the city Monday morning.

Martin Boyles, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Tuesday on business.

Union evangelistic services will begin in Oregon City on November 11.

Mrs. O. Wissinger of Milwaukie, visited her sister, Mrs. T. L. Charman, Saturday.

Elbert Larkins and Jake Bohlander of Harmony, were transacting business in Oregon City, Monday.

Mrs. Charles Noblett and baby were visiting friends in Oregon City Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Noblett are now residing at Needy.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Griffith have returned from their honeymoon and are at home to their friends at Thirteenth and Main streets.

Born, Sunday, October 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell of Milwaukie, a daughter. Mr. Campbell is conductor for the O. W. P. They formerly resided in Canemah.

The city is paving Molalla road from Blyville to the city limits with crushed rock. Henry Jones is the contractor and the stone is being hauled from Washington street.

W. F. Bailey of Parkplace is shouldering considerable misfortune of late, in that three of his children are sick with typhoid fever. One of them has been confined for seven weeks or more.

The handsome modern cottage being erected by Wallace Cole at Sixth and Center streets, is fast nearing completion. There will be six large rooms with all the modern improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Marshall of Portland visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Midlam at Canemah Sunday. Mrs. Marshall formerly resided in this city, and is a sister of Mr. and Mrs. Midlam.

H. H. Johnson and daughter Violet have moved from their farm on the Clackamas river to Oregon City and are occupying the Kelly cottage at Ninth and Jefferson streets. Miss Johnson will attend school in this city.

The many friends of Miss Eva Moulton will be pleased to know that she has so far recovered from her recent accident to again resume her position in Geo. C. Brownell's law office. It will be many weeks before Miss Moulton fully recovers her usual strength.

Miss Zelma Shaver, who is now residing in Portland, was an Oregon City visitor Monday. Her mother, Mrs. J. R. Shaver, who had been at Molalla for some time, passed through this city Monday on her way to Portland, where she will spend the winter.

Miss Lizzie Pankratz, after an enjoyable visit of ten weeks with Oregon City friends, leaves Wednesday evening for her home at Ketchikan, Alaska. She will take the boat from Seattle, Thursday evening, and reach home Saturday. While here she was a guest of Mrs. Alvin Cannon.

Charles Gray has returned from Eastern Oregon where he had been for the last five months working in the harvest fields. Mr. Gray, who purchased five acres of some of the best property on the West Side, has bought seven more acres since returning to this city.

Oregon City Masons who attended the laying of the cornerstone of the new temple at Portland, Saturday, report a large crowd and impressive ceremonies. The opening prayer was read by Chaplain T. F. Ryan of this city. The principal address was by Judge John B. Cleland, past grand master.

A storage shed is being built in the rear of the city water works building. When completed the shed will add space to the warehouse in the rear about 10x50. The place will be used for storing tools, filtering alum, and the like. The warehouse now in the rear of the pumping station is occupied by tanks.

Mrs. Gertrude Strange of Corvallis, is visiting friends in Oregon City. Mrs. Strange formerly resided here when her husband, Prof. H. E. Strange was city superintendent of the public schools. Prof. Strange died several years ago. Mrs. Strange expects to leave soon for California, where she will spend the winter.

E. Joehnke, who recently returned from Mexico, where he had been for some time, left Tuesday for Marshfield, where he will practice law. Mr. Joehnke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Joehnke of Mt. Pleasant, and was graduated from the law school of the University of Oregon in 1904. His friends wish him all success in his new field.

Mrs. W. E. Frances of Manila and Mrs. Nicholas Sumbly of Portland, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. Rae Norris of this city the first of the Boys Clothing

Hercules Suits

Hercules Suits we have exclusive agency for Oregon City, a suit that will wear twice as long as the average one, a statement that we will fully protect, Economy to pay $5.00 for a suit that will outwear any two suits that you can buy for $4.00.

Fabrics are all wool and will stand the hardest kind of service. We claim for Hercules the strongest made, longest wearing $5.00 suit made.

I. SELLING

PARKPLACE ACREAGE SALE IS COMPLETED

PART OF CATHOLIC HOME SITE IS SOLD—OTHER REAL ESTATE DEALS.

A deal was closed Monday whereby the heirs of the Straight estate disposed of a 15-acre tract of land at Parkplace, the present site of the Catholic Refuge home. The purchaser is G. Smith of Greenpoint, and the consideration was $2000. Mr. Smith is going to plat the ground and erect buildings on it. The sale was made through W. F. Schooley, the man "who makes property move." Other sales and leases made by Schooley are as follows:

F. E. Zook, recently of Willamette, purchased a lot at Gladstone, and is erecting a comfortable home on it at the present time.

J. W. Willoughby sold 8 lots and a 7 room house at Canemah to Mr. Grossenbacher of this city.

E. E. Stubbs of Salem rented a house Monday at Fourth and Center streets. Mr. Stubbs will be employed in the Willamette mills.

Mr. Bush of Council Bluffs, recently of Portland, rented the store adjoining Schooley's real estate office and will open up a cigar and confectionery store just as soon as his goods arrive. The stock has been ordered and a few minor alterations will be made in the building.

Blood Poisoning.

results from chronic constipation, which is quickly cured by Dr. King's polychous germs from the system and infuse new life and vigor; cure sour stomach, nausea, headache, dizziness, and colic, without gripping or discomfort. 25c. Guaranteed by Howell & Jones' drug store.

H. E. CROSS

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Real Estate, Loans, Insurance

Main Street, OREGON CITY

POINTERS FOR EVERYBODY

SAVE YOUR MONEY

Buy where you can get the best for your money.

Special this week: Children's ribbed and fleeced lined underwear from 8c a garment, up to A1 Jaeger's at 35c each.

Call and we will gladly show you our stock and convince you that this is the only place to save money.

The FAIR

WM. ROBISON Willamette Bldg.

W. L. BLOCK

The Home Furnisher

The Store That Saves You Money

Goods Sold for Less Than Elsewhere

Furniture, Ranges and Stoves
Carpets, Crockery, Granite-ware and Wall Paper.

Main and 7th St.

Opp. Suspension Bridge