"ROLL OF HONOR" FOR DISTRICT SCHOOLS

SUPERINTENDENT ZINSER MAILS INSTRUCTIONS FOR KEEPING SAME.

County Superintendent Zinser has been visiting the country schools all week.

Saturday morning some literature was mailed to the teachers in the county, instructing them to keep a "Roll of Honor." The Roll of Honor consists of a neatly engraved linen paper, which is to be framed and hung up for public inspection, containing the names of scholars who have attained a prescribed standing in scholarship and deportment.

The library books will be sent to the various districts about November 1, supplied with cards and pockets recommended by the Library commission for the purpose of keeping track of the books.

TREES A MENACE TO O. W. P. TRACKS

Condemnation proceedings have been begun by the O. W. P. & Ry. Co. against A. D. Burnett. The plaintiff corporation alleges that it owns a right of way over two pieces of land owned by defendant and that trees on defendant's land stand in such close proximity to the right of way that they threaten serious damage by falling on the tracks of plaintiff's railway.

Plaintiff has obtained permission from Noah Stickney, who holds a half interest in one of the parcels of land, to cut the trees, but plaintiff and defendant cannot agree upon the amount of damages due defendant for cutting said trees. The court is asked to ascertain the damages due.

New Barn for Pioneer Express.

C. N. Greenman has leased part of the building formerly used as a sash and door factory at Twelfth and Main streets, and has had the building fitted up into one of the finest barns in the city. Mr. Greenman has moved his belongings from the barn on 13th street to the new quarters. The old barn is to be torn down and he will probably erect several modern cottages on that valuable property. Mr. Greenman has been in the transfer business in this city since 1865, and has built up such a trade that it requires four wagons to carry on the traffic.
