

SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NEWS

Hendricks-Humphrey.

The marriage of Miss Ada Humphrey and Mr. Elmer Hendrickson took place at the home of the bride's parents at Mt. Pleasant at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. R. C. Blackwell officiated. Both the young people are well known here. Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Humphrey are old residents of the county while Mr. Hendrickson has been employed as machinist for the O. W. P. company here. The couple will make their home on upper Fifth street here in Oregon City.

A quiet wedding took place last week in Tacoma, Wash., the contracting parties being Miss Frances Myers and Mr. L. Holden. The marriage took place in the Episcopal church of that city, Rev. Davis performing the ceremony. Miss Myers is the fourth daughter of the late Hon. John Myers and a sister of Mrs. Robert L. Beattie of this city. She spent her childhood days in and near Oregon City, and has many friends here who extend their congratulations. It was while Miss Myers was at Tacoma visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Starkweather, that she met Mr. Holden, who is a civil engineer, and who has property interests near Tacoma. Mr. and Mrs. Holden will make their home at Tacoma.

The German society of Oregon City is making arrangements for a grand ball to be given Tuesday evening, November 27, at the Armory. Toule & Doll's orchestra of four pieces will furnish the music for dancing. The committee on arrangements is composed of D. M. Klemsen, John Vigelius and M. Klinger. The German society gave several dancing parties last winter that were largely attended and the committee in charge will spare no pains to make this one of the social events of the season.

Mrs. Elizabeth Amanda Paine has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Kittie Alma, to Henry Franklin Pusey. The wedding will take place Tuesday, November 6, at 11:30 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Paine, 553 Bidwell Ave., Portland. They will be at home at 553 Bidwell Ave. after November 20.

There will be a general church social at the M. E. church Friday evening. This is an acquaintance social. All members of the church are expected to be there to meet and greet strangers and visitors who are cordially invited to come and get acquainted. Short program of games and refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hendrickson, who were married Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Humphrey, at Mt. Pleasant, Rev. R. C. Blackwell officiating, have taken up their residence on upper Fifth street.

The wedding of Anna Hostetter and T. F. Homing took place in the county court room Monday afternoon. Judge G. B. Dimick officiated. The bride resides in Clackamas county and the groom is a resident of Multnomah county.

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed by Judge Dimick in the county court chamber Thursday at 2 o'clock, when Ella Crague was married to James H. Waddell, both of Tacoma, Washington.

A quiet wedding took place in Portland Wednesday, the contracting parties being J. O. McFadden, of that city and Nina J. Risdon, formerly of this place, but now of Portland.

About 50 members of the Wacheno tribe of Red Men attended the celebration of the 33d anniversary of the Willamette tribe No. 6. A banquet for 300 followed the exercises.

Miss Maybell Hanna and Christian Jensen White were married in the county court room Thursday afternoon. "Judge" W. A. Dimick performed the ceremony.

Mrs. George Warren, daughter of J. A. Tufts, left for Floriston, Cal., Wednesday with her son. Mrs. Warren had been visiting here for a month or more and was taken ill. She has just recovered sufficiently to return to her home.

Rev. Oakley of Eugene, to whom the local Congregational church will extend a call, is about 59 years of age, and has been in Eugene for the last two years. He began his ministry in Detroit, Mich. Since coming to the Coast he preached four years at Oakland and ten years at Tacoma. His family consists of his wife and three sons. The eldest son is married and lives in the East; the two younger boys attend the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bentley of Marquam were in Oregon City, Tuesday, on their way to visit their sons at Center and Sellwood. Mr. Bentley has been a resident of Oregon since 1874, coming here from Missouri where he resided during the Civil war, in which Mr. Bentley bore an active part as indicated by the copper button on his coat lapel. He says times are prosperous around Marquam, and the farmers are busy digging their potatoes, which are turning out a fair yield and good quality.

Rev. J. F. Doescher of Shubel arrived in Oregon City Monday evening and left for his home Tuesday morning. Rev. Doescher was on his way home from Sherwood and Newberg, where he had been for the last week holding services. Rev. Doescher preaches in both English and German, and will hold services at the German Lutheran church in this city next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to this service. Rev. Doescher has charge of four congregations, namely, Shubel, Oregon City, Newberg, and Sherwood. Services will be held at Shubel next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

E. SCHMIDT WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

The will of Edward Schmidt, who committed suicide some time ago, has been filed for probate. To his son Herman he leaves one dollar to satisfy all claims, having provided for him before his death. His daughter receives $200, and his minor child Viola, in accordance with her mother's wishes before her death, receives the income of $2000, $120 annually, to provide for her education and maintenance.

The rest of the real, personal, and mixed property goes, share and share alike, to Bertha Schmidt-Kell, Amelia Schmidt, Edward Schmidt, Louisa Schmidt, Amanda Schmidt and Viola Schmidt. A further condition of the will is that the property is not to be sold until Viola arrives at the age of eighteen.

Herman Schmidt is appointed executor and Louisa Schmidt is appointed guardian of the minor children.

PERSONAL LIBERTY VS. LAW OBEDIENCE

The regular meeting of Warner Grange was held in the Grange hall Saturday, October 27. At this meeting there was a general discussion on spraying and cultivation of orchards, the potato blight and other matters of interest.

The discussion on spraying led up to an agreement that a debate upon the question of personal liberty in the matter of orchards and spraying as against compliance with the law of the state in regard to orchards, would be held at the next meeting at the Grange hall on November 24. Hon. George Lazelle will take the side of personal liberty and Mrs. George Randall the benefit of complying with the law.

Inasmuch as the Grange will have a chicken dinner on that day and the information that will undoubtedly be secured from the discussion, Grange hall will hardly accommodate the Grangers and others interested in this subject, that will be in attendance.
