Jones-Brasel.

A quiet wedding will take place at St. Paul's Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Emma Brasel and Mr. Herman K. Jones, both of Portland. Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector, will officiate, the impressive rite of the Episcopal church being used. Only immediate relatives of the bride and groom will be present.

The bride is a most estimable and accomplished young woman. She is the daughter of Mrs. Kate Brasel of Portland, and the groom is a popular young man, and is manager of the "Trouble Department" of the Pacific States Telephone company, with headquarters at Portland. Mr. Jones spent his boyhood days in Oregon City, coming here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith W. Jones, when two years of age. He has a host of friends here who extend their hearty congratulations. A reception will be held this evening at the home of the groom's brother, Linwood E. Jones, of Seventh street, at which only relatives will be present.

BIG MACHINE IN OPERATION DEC. 1

Progress of Work on O. W. P. & Ry. Power Plant at Cazadero, Reported by I. M. Park.

I. M. Park, who has charge of the carpenter work of the big power plant of the O. W. P. & Ry. company at Cazadero, thinks that one of the big machines will be in operation about December 1. Mr. Park has been serving on the jury, but has been exempted by the judge on account of business at Cazadero necessitating his return.
Mr. Park's home is at Springwater, where he has a fine farm, but has moved his family to Cazadero, where they will remain for about two months longer, when his work will be completed. He was formerly a resident of Oregon City, and he resided several years near the Barclay school house. From here he moved to Bridal Vell, where he resided several years before going to Springwater.

Markle From Markle.

Elinor V. Markle wants a divorce from her husband James C. Markle. The two were married in Minnesota in 1900, and the wife alleges desertion since September, 1903. Mrs. Markle also asks the right to resume her maiden name, Elinor V. Dayton.

Condolence Resolutions.

Molalia Grange has adopted resolutions of condolence on the deaths of two members, Miss Myrtle Cross and Mrs. Mattie Wells. Both were faithful members, and the grange charter will be draped in mourning for 30 days. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives.

OREGON CITY'S GREAT FIRE SALE!
ROSENSTEINS FINE STOCK ON SACRIFICE SALE
When this store was on fire the smoke and water did most damage. The loss fell on the fire insurance companies. The gain will be for the people. Every dollar's worth of goods must go. Men's, boys' and children's Suits, Overcoats, Cravanettes, Pants, Canvas Coats, etc. Also boots, shoes, hats, caps, shirts, underwear, sox, sweaters and all the new stock of ladies' skirts and jackets. The prices are so low that no fair-minded person can resist the temptation to buy. A great portion of the finest have not been damaged—only smell of smoke a little. But they must be sold and they will be fairly slaughtered.
$20,000 Worth of goods of all kinds at such prices as they will bring.
