

Impoverished Soil

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking in your system.

There is no fat food that is so easily digested and assimilated as

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil

A Year of Blood.

The year of 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at Howell & Jones' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FATHER.

This was once a happy home, In the days that have gone by, When grief and sorrow were unknown, But now we give a sigh: For a shadow is now standing Where the sunlight used to stand, And from us a soul's departed To that far off better "land."

Father's gone from earthly trouble To be crowned at Jesus' feet, And if we do our best to please Him We may all hope there to meet: We are lonely now without him, We miss his steps so full of grace, We miss his kind and loving words, But most of all we miss his face.

There is work here to be finished, E'er we meet our loved one gone; There are sorrows to be borne, E'er we sing our parting song; We must do our best to please Him, Win the races to be won, And at last if called to Jesus, We shall say, "Thy will be done." GRACIA L. INGRAM.

MCDONALD.

"Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, of Oregon City, who wrote 'Dr. McLoughlin and Old Oregon,' 'The Conquest,' and other stories, has just published a book of fascinating interest, says the Victoria, B. C. Colonist, entitled 'McDonald of Oregon.' The hero of the story is Ronald McDonald, a real man, who was born at Astoria on the Columbia in 1824, and who gave the particulars to Mrs. Dye personally before his death. McDonald had an adventurous experience in Japan, while yet a hermit nation, and in the East. A good deal of his impressions about Japan written with his own hand in manuscript is in the Provincial Library. They were among the papers of the late Malcolm McLeod, of Ottawa, son of John McLeod, a pioneer fur trader of this coast."

MOLALLA NEWS.

Carry Herman had a narrow escape last Thursday on his engine. As the morning was rather cold he thought he would warm his feet while he was oiling up; a set screw on the shaft caught his overalls and tore almost all his clothing off, throwing him on to the hot boiler and making some bad burns. He "shut her down" just before the drive belt caught him. Although he is burnt, scratched and bruised, he is thankful he is still able to be on his feet.

W. A. Shaver returned from his mountain ranch Saturday night bringing out a lot of cattle for the winter. He reports the range excellent for this time of the year.

Allen Wells has returned home after a few weeks visit with his mother and sister of Marion county. Plowing is the watchword whenever the weather will permit.

Steps are again being taken to secure the long needed and much talked bridge across the river near Meadowbrook. At one time the lumber was subscribed for a bridge at this point but the county court failed to come to our aid then and the matter was dropped, and the Meadowbrook people have been swimming or wading the river for a long time in order to reach Molalla or go up to Dickey prairie or around via Liberal.

DeNeui-Athey.

Flora Athey and K. DeNeui were united in marriage by Judge G. B. Dimick in the county court chamber Wednesday evening.

A Portland License.

A marriage license was granted in Portland, Tuesday, November 6, to Norman J. Bradley of Oregon City and Miss Genevieve M. Belleu of Portland.
