Drying preparations simply dehydrate; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. THIEF TAKES ALASKA CHRISTMAS MONEY

Takes Purse Containing Cash Sent From Alaska to Purchase Gifts.

A purse containing valuable papers and $22 in money, sent all the way from Alaska to buy Christmas presents was stolen from off the dining table in the home of Mary Adelle Case of Falls View, one morning last week.

Miss Case placed the purse there to have it handy to give the money to her brother Charles who was to buy the presents. He came down in a few minutes and the loss of the pocket book was discovered. Another purse belonging to Mrs. Case and lying on the table, was not touched.

There is no clue to the thief, who is supposed to be a tramp. A door opened into the dining room from off the porch.

The $22 was sent by Miss Case's sister who lives at Haines, Alaska, with instructions to buy Christmas presents and send to her in that far-off land.

SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK.

Some of Pat Murphy's sheep were killed and injured by dogs last week near Sunnyside. The dogs were not caught. Harry Feathers also had one killed by dogs recently. He saw the dog but did not kill it.

Mrs. Alice Deardoff is on the sick list. Dr. Hickman was out to see her Monday and pronounced the illness to be caused by a liver and kidney trouble.

Tom Keyes is again in the neighborhood for a short time. Charles Hunter, wife and daughter were making a short visit at his father's last week.

Will Donley has been rather under the weather for a week. Hunters were around doing lots of shooting Sunday in spite of the rain. Mrs. Lillian Hunter spent several days in and around Portland last of the week.

EAGLE CREEK NOTES.

More rain than needed. Potato digging at a stand still because of it. J. T. Brown's house has been painted, making quite an improvement to the looks of his place.

School commenced in district No. 50 on the 5th of this month with Miss Bessie Chittenden as teacher.

J. P. Woodle dug about 50 acres of potatoes this year.

The Sellwood Mill company has the frame for the roof of their mill nearly ready. When all is completed it will have a very nice mill which will be handy for the farmers who wish lumber.

I understand that Thomas Pankey has sold his farm to Herman Harger and that he will perhaps move to southern Oregon.

Grover Douglas is improving rapidly in health. The Linderman saw mill is running full blast, and gives employment for a large number of hands.

The O. W. P. is placing the poles in place for the wire line to Portland which I understand is to be in operation soon.

Funeral of Mrs. Elmer Wright.
The funeral of Mrs. Nanna Paddock Wright of Grants Pass, notice of whose death was in yesterday's Star, is being held Thursday afternoon at the old home of her parents, County Treasurers, Rev. W. B. Moore, officiating, and Mrs. J. C. Paddock at Clack. The body arrived at Oregon City Thursday morning, accompanied by the bereaved young husband. It was taken to the Paddock home in Gladstone so the mother, who is ill, could have a last look at the loved face of her daughter. From there the funeral cortege went on to Clackamas. The deceased was about 30 years of age and a graduate of the University of Oregon. She leaves many friends besides relatives to mourn her untimely death.

There's No Reason
why your baby should be thin, and fretful during the night. Worms are the cause of thin, sickly babies. It is natural that a healthy baby should be fat and sleep well. If your baby does not retain its food, don't experiment with colic cures and other medicine, but try a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and you will soon see your baby have color and laugh as it should. Ben McDonald Writes.
Mrs. Eva Emery Dye has received a letter from Ben McDonald of Butte, Montana, brother of the hero of her book, Ransid McDonald, expressing great delight in her treatment of the historical events, connected with his family. He has sent to Dr. Helmsken of Victoria for the mysterious package. He says he remembers Dr. Helmsken, having met him many years ago, at the home of Sir James Douglas of Victoria. It is possible this package may contain the long lost picture of Ransid McDonald, none of which are known to be in existence.

Road Across Eagle Creek.
It is proposed to open a road across Eagle creek in the Tracey neighborhood. It will require a $300 or $400 bridge across that creek, and the Estacada News says it believes that if the county will build the bridge and approach the people will do the rest.

"SAVED MY LIFE"

—That's what a prominent druggist said of Scott's Emulsion a short time ago. As a rule we don't use or refer to testimonials in addressing the public, but the above remark and similar expressions are made so often in connection with Scott's Emulsion that they are worthy of occasional note. From infancy to old age Scott's Emulsion offers a reliable means of remedying improper and weak development, restoring lost flesh and vitality, and repairing waste. The action of Scott's Emulsion is no more of a secret than the composition of the Emulsion itself. What it does it does through nourishment—the kind of nourishment that cannot be obtained in ordinary food. No system is too weak or delicate to retain Scott's Emulsion and gather good from it.

We will send you a sample free.
Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Here are some of the San Francisco recoveries. All of them were declared by physicians to be incurably ill with Bright's Disease or Diabetes; N. W. Spaulding, President Spaulding Sav Co.; Adolph Weske, founder Cal. Cracker Co.; Carl D. Zelle, pioneer druggist; Chas. Engelke, editor San Francisco Journal; R. M. Wood, editor Spirit Review; Edward Short, of the Call; C. A. Newton, yardmaster S. P. Co. (Sacramento); John A. Phelps, Hotel Repeller; Mrs. M. Empey, 100 Steiner St.; Mrs. S. E. Cline, 1737 Broadway; Mrs. P. Goyshelz, 228 Fillmore St. (tapped 28 times); R. C. Pell, Manager Pacific Coast Biscuit Co.; F. J. Bachelder, Pacific Coast Agt. Seth Thomas Clock Co.; E. B. Cutler, Attorney, 330 Pine St.; Wm. Hale, Real Estate, 215 Sansome St.; Mrs. C. O. Mathewson, Proprietor Hotel Clifton; Thos. Haskins, Merchant (Fossilum); Col. Wm. Hawkins, U. S. Quartermaster's Department; Chas. F. Wacker, Merchant, 131 6th St.; Mrs. Thos. Christol, 426 27th St., and hundreds of others. Some were at death's door when put on the compounds, but many such recovered. That many were in extreme danger is proved from this: Some recovered who had been tapped dozens of times; others were already in the twilight of uraemic poisoning; many had from four to six physicians confirm the fatal diagnosis; several left standard hospitals in extremis; several had relatives called in for last interviews, and a few recovered who were in a state of absolute coma.

In a word about 87 per cent of all cases of Bright's Disease and Diabetes, heretofore positively incurable, are now curable under the new Fulton compounds. The Fulton compounds for Bright's and Kidney Disease is St. Joe Diabetes, 41-43 pamphlets free. We have just established a depot in your city where you will find the compounds and pamphlets, viz:

INSPECTOR MAY CUT DOWN SCALY TREES

JURY RETURNS VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT IN THE SELLWOOD VS. REID TRIAL.

After a protracted deliberation of almost three hours the jury in the case of Sellwood vs. Reid returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, thereby upholding his action in cutting down 34 prune trees which were infested with San Jose scale. The delay was unlooked for by those who had been following the trial, since the instructions of the court were to determine three distinct matters of fact which were abundantly established by evidence and admission on the part of the plaintiff.

Apparently the argument of Attorney Latourette touching upon Reid's unnecessary exercise of authority weighed stronger than was expected. It was clear, the court instructed the jury, that the law merely required the officer to establish an infested condition, to prove proper notice given the owner to spray, and to show that the owner did not spray within the time allowed. Then, according to the construction given yesterday, the officer can spray the orchard himself or destroy it. Neither step is made mandatory to be taken first.

The point which caused the trouble was the question of whether the commissioner's act did not show instead of sole attention to duty a certain degree of recklessness, when, instead of burning the infested trees he left them lying on the ground where he had ordered them cut. It is evident that point weighed considerably with the jury, though under the law as interpreted by the court, it should not have been considered.

WANTS POSSESSION OF HER EARNINGS.

Sarah E. Nelson of the St. Paul house, in this city, is suing for divorce from her husband Charles J. Nelson on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. A temporary injunction was granted Saturday morning restraining defendant from drawing any of a $1700 deposit in defendant's favor in the Bank of Oregon City.

Plaintiff married defendant in 1898, and alleges that in 1899 defendant indulged in high and riotous living and gambling, and treated the plaintiff shamefully. The work of keeping up the household devolved on her at all of the various hotels and restaurants they have conducted in Salem, Portland and Oregon City since their marriage. When they opened up the St. Paul House plaintiff says she did all of the cooking and practically ran the establishment. By her own efforts she had accumulated $400 which her husband deposited in the local bank. Her industry increased the sum to about $1700. The defendant left her a month ago and has not communicated with her since then. He has threatened at various times to draw the money in the bank, and the restraining order of the court followed. The plaintiff prays for a decree of divorce and an award of the $1700 for alimony and attorneys' fees, also costs and disbursements of the suit. Geo. C. Brownell represents the plaintiff.
