BRILLIANT CHURCH WEDDING.

Miss Susanna May Mark of West Oregon City and Mr. John Lowry of San Francisco, were married in the first Congregational church, this city, Wednesday, November 14th, by Rev. Edward E. Bollinger, her former pastor, now of Highland church, Portland. Softly through the church came the sound of the beautiful Lohengrin bridal chorus. With Miss Edna Daulton at the organ, twelve young lady friends of the bride entered singing, as they slowly marched to the altar rail. They were Mrs. Melvin McCord, Misses Ivah Gordon, Ivy Roake, Ethelwyn Albright, Cis Barclay Pratt, Martha Francis Draper, Jean White, Luella Niles, Estella Niles, Laura Pope, Grayce Maude Marshall and Helen Daulton.

Following this chorus came the bridal party, Miss Myrtle Buchanan as maid of honor, in a gown of pink, and the Misses Alice Lewthwaite and Hilda McGetchie, bridesmaids, in pink and white, carrying pink and white carnations. The bride on the arm of her father, James M. Mark, wore white crepe de chene over white taffeta. Her bridal veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms sent from San Diego, Cal., and she carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair ferns. They were joined at the altar by the groom, his best man, Mr. Lewis Feaster, and the officiating clergyman, where amid a bank of ferns, holly and cedar, with baskets of magnolia foliage, suspended above, the impressive ring ceremony was pronounced, that united for life two of society's popular young people. Little Miss Shannon Pettenger of Oswego, acting as ring bearer, was a charming little fairy all in white. During the ceremony, Miss Ivah Gordon, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Echo Samson McCord, played "O Promise Me." The young ladies of the bridal chorus were also ushers and were dressed in white.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mark, where 150 guests were invited.

The house had been beautifully decorated in Oregon grape, Oregon holly and white chrysanthemums, the front stairway in cedar branches, entwined with ribbon.

Mrs. E. M. McCord served punch. When the bride's cake was cut the ring fell to Miss Martha Frances Draper, the coin to Miss Alice Lewthwaite, while Miss Ruth Moreland caught the bride's bouquet.

The reception was one of the most highly enjoyable affairs of the season. The bride's charming personality has made her a general favorite in social circles. The groom is a capable young business man of San Francisco, where he is a building contractor. The happy couple received a large array of beautiful and costly presents. They left last night for Portland spending Thursday with friends there before going to their new home.

Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCord, Mr. and Mrs. Walter White, Mrs. Moreland and the Misses Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. Euston, Mrs. A. Daulton, Mrs. Sarah Evans, Mr. J. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Hallinan, Mr. and Mrs. Keown of Portland, Mr. Pettenger and daughter Miss Shannon Pettenger, Mrs. G. W. Prosser and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walling, Oswego.

Pitts-McArthur.

The marriage of Miss Alice McArthur and Mr. James R. Pitts of Newberg took place at high noon Thursday, in a pretty but quiet wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McArthur. The ceremony was performed by the minister of the Christian church at Canby, and was witnessed by only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride was gowned in white and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Grace Clemens of Oak Grove, wore white and carried scarlet chrysanthemums. Mr. Elmer McArthur of the regular army, just returned from Alaska, brother of the bride, was present man. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Pitts parents of the groom, and their granddaughter, Mildred Elsert, of Newberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newman of California, the latter a sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitts will go to house-keeping on his poultry and fruit farm at Newberg.

Stafford, Nov. 14.—The seven surviving children who were present at the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gage, are Earl of Burns, Harney county; W. A. and A. H., both of Cloverdale; C. M. of Linton, J. Q. of St. Helens; Mrs. C. A. Sweek; Mrs. O. Z. Holton of San Francisco, and Mrs. Agnes Howard of near Ritzville. The following day, November 7, was the china wedding anniversary of their eldest son, W. A. Gage, and that was celebrated in gala style, and J. Q. Gage was again called upon to make a presentation speech, while pretty pieces of chinaware were uncovered to the complete surprise of W. A. and wife. The grange at Oswego, of which Mrs. J. P. Gage is a member, completed the round of surprises by presenting her and Mr. Gage, Sr., each a beautiful chair.

Miss Mary E. Conyers, formerly of this city, gave a most successful concert in Norwood, N. Y., on November 9. The music hall was filled with an appreciative audience and every number on the program was enthusiastically applauded. Miss Conyers sang three clusters of songs and was ably assisted by the best talent from Potsdam, the musical center of northern New York. Special trains were run from two near-by villages and the people of Norwood pronounced it the most successful affair of the kind ever given there. Miss Conyers has gone to New York city to further pursue her musical studies with Mr. Paul Savage.

Mr. A. E. Thompson, employed at the Cascade Laundry in this city, was married last week to Miss Flora Williams of Hood River at Hood River. The couple have just returned and taken up house-keeping at their new Gladstone home.

Grace Birnie and E. E. LeFebvre of Wasco county were married by City Recorder Dimick, Thursday afternoon in the law offices of Dimick & Dimick.

Allen-Morey.

Miss Maud Queen Morey and Mr. J. Percival Allen of New York were married at high noon Saturday at the home of Mrs. F. F. Morey by Rev. P. K. Hammond of St. Paul's Episcopal church. It was a quiet home wedding, only the relatives being present. The bride was given away by her brother and Miss Martha Draper played the wedding march. The couple left for New York, where the groom follows his profession of civil engineering.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Harry Muir and Miss Elizabeth Franklin, which will take place at Miss Franklin's home in Neola, Iowa, December 5th. Mr. Muir has many friends here, his old home. Up to the time of his graduation from our public schools, he was a resident of Oregon City. After leaving school he entered the naval service on the Battle ship Iowa. His bride is not so well known here, but all his friends as well as hers, extend congratulations.

Stafford, Nov. 14.—Flora Athy and Rient De Nul were married on Wednesday, November 7. It was a stormy day, but many friends of the couple hope that this will be an exception to the rule and prove the start of a happy and prosperous married life.

The Ladies Aid society of Canemah met Thursday with Mrs. Louise Cole. At noon a bounteous dinner was enjoyed and the afternoon spent in quilting. Mrs. Emily Marshall received the friendship quilt given to the oldest member present. These ladies are also doing a noble work in providing for the poor of the community. The following attended this meeting: Mesdames Bowers, Cole, Carothers, Faust, Freeman, Howell, Midlam, Muller, F. Painter, J. Painter, Porter, Martin, J. Kinzey, C. Kinzey.

Mrs. R. E. Whitley and Jas. Neagle both of Pendleton, were married in the county court chamber Tuesday morning. Mr. Neagle is a prominent business man of Pendleton and a member of the firm of Neagle Brothers, large wagon manufacturers of eastern Oregon. Both bride and groom have friends in Oregon City.
