VARYING TALES OF HUSBAND AND WIFE.

The case of Johanna Boe vs. Jens A. Boe was taken up in the circuit court Friday morning. The morning session and part of the afternoon session was taken up with the examination of witnesses for the plaintiff. The defendant took the stand in his own behalf shortly after the afternoon session opened. G. B. Dimick represents Mr. Boe and George C. Brownell is conducting the case for Mrs. Boe. The suit is for divorce and $3,000 alimony on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Boe alleges in her complaint that Mr. Boe for ten years past has maltreated and abused her, that he keeps whiskey in the barn continually, that at one time he struck her with a cane. According to the testimony this morning she was reduced to a nervous wreck and had to leave home, going to her sister's place in Portland. There are four children; the oldest one, Andrew, 16 years old, corroborated his mother's testimony and testified that his father never did any real work but always "milked" about the house. Dr. McNeary testified to her sound mental condition, and a sister, Mrs. Reynolds, testified to her physical condition when she left her husband a month or so ago. Mrs. Michaelson, the plaintiff's mother and Mr. Michaelson, of Astoria, a brother, were also called to the witness stand.

The defendant took the stand this afternoon and told quite a different story. He alleges that the oldest son, Andrew, is an incorrigible youth and a mischief maker; that his mother regards him as her "pet" and shields him in all his misconduct, even breeding disrespect and disobedience to their father. His version is that his wife left home without any indication of leaving him and that relatives at Portland worked on her until she took the steps to get a divorce. All the stories of ill-treatment, he maintains, are conjured up in her imagination and he insists that she has exhibited at numerous times symptoms of insanity, imagining that somebody is trying to kill her.

Mr. Boe is a Scandinavian, and, though speaking in a somewhat broken manner, used good and forcible language and gestures in recounting his version of the family squabbles which were occasioned by the alleged prodigal son.

Notice to Would-be Citizens.
Judge McBride in accordance with the new naturalization law yesterday afternoon set the first Tuesday and every Tuesday thereafter during the term for the day upon which naturalization papers may be taken out. The new law is a good deal more stringent than the old one and requires a good deal more red tape.

Always Was Sick.
When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such a man exists.

Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.

$400 RAISED FOR HIGHLAND CHURCH

But $800 More Needed—Bad Condition of Viola-Clear Creek Road.

Viola, Nov. 21.—The road between Viola and Little Clear Creek is in the worst condition it has been for many years. Miss Lula Miller and J. R. Hamilton were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Patton performing the ceremony. Their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous life. James Sevier is delighted with the donkey engine which he made from his threshing engine. He says it works to perfection. The largest saw logs are handled without difficulty. The Viola Sunday school is planning to have a Christmas tree. Rev. Patton is gathering money to erect a M. E. church at Highland. About $400 have been provided; $800 more must be raised in order to build the house desired.

W. O. W. ELECT R. T. BARBUR AS CLERK.
The semi-annual election of officers of the Willamette Falls camp of the Woodmen of the World was held Friday night. A large attendance was a feature of the meeting. The successful candidates were: Clerk, R. T. Barbur; council commander, H. E. Stevens; banker, E. H. Cooper; advisor, Lieutenant, Mr. Calkins; escort, Mr. Booker; watchman, A. Warner; sentry, Mr. Gossler. The board of managers are I. D. Taylor, elected for the long term, 18 months, and Elmer Lankins, elected for the short term, Frank Betzel is musician. The office of clerk is the most responsible and the only office to which a remuneration is attached. Mr. Barbur, who was the successful one from a fairly large field of candidates, is an old resident of Oregon City, and well-known and popular both in and out of Woodmen circles. He is employed as fireman at the Willamette mills.

Schoolhouse Dedicated.
Superintendent J. C. Zinsler has returned from the dedication services of the new schoolhouse at Estacada. A basket social and a large miscellaneous program were the main features of the dedicatory services.

The Oregon legislature will be asked this winter to create many new offices including a railroad commission, with three members drawing $5000 a year each; state board of control with three members, salary $2500; two new supreme court justices, salary $4500; state bank examiner, $3000; state auditor, $3000; insurance commissioner, $3000, and about a dozen others, salary not specified.

Be Charitable.
to your horses as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Barksfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by Huntley Bros. Drug Co.
