Bell-Kopper.

Mr. Albert Bell and Mrs. Alpha Kopper, both of Sandy, were united in marriage at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, Sunday, November 25, at high noon. T. G. Jonsrud, J. P., performed the ceremony in the presence of about twenty-five invited guests. Afterward a sumptuous dinner was served.

Mulvey-Kincaid.

A quiet wedding took place in the parsonage of the St. Johns church Thursday evening, Rev. Fr. Hillebrand officiating. Myrtle Kincaid and Michael E. Mulvey were the principals. Mr. Mulvey only recently returned from Alaska where he is reported to have made quite a strike. Miss Kincaid is the daughter of prominent residents of Antelope, Oregon. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock and immediately after the newly wedded couple left for Portland to take the train for the home of the bride's parents. Maggie Mulvey attended the bride at the wedding and Chauncey E. Ramsby was best man.

Cupid's Busy Day.

With the last day of circuit court proceedings and most of the divorce disposed of, Cupid "got busy" in the county clerk's office Saturday morning. County Judge Dimick officiated at a marriage ceremony in the county court chamber, the bride being A. M. Jensen and the groom S. A. Lyng, both of Portland. The couple left immediately for a short honeymoon trip to St. Helens.

A marriage license was issued to Mrs. Alfie Kapper and Alfred Bell, both of Sandy.

May Hall of Canyon Creek and T. Roy Garrett of Marquam also procured a license.

Miss Elsie Morgan and Guy Stabler were the principals in a quiet wedding in Judge Dimick's court chamber, the judge officiating.

Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mihalstn celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, Sunday, November 25, in a delightful manner. About sixty relatives and intimate friends were present to honor this worthy couple's twenty-fifth year of married life. The house was beautifully decorated in Oregon holly, the tables in roses and carnations. Several members of the family are musically talented and there was music all day. Dinner was served at six and was thoroughly enjoyed. Clever toasts were offered and responded to. Many beautiful presents, including a rich array of silverware, were received.

Miss Fannie Friedman and Mr. Alolph Mihalstn were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in New York city on November 25, 1881. Mr. and Mrs. Mihalstn are the parents of eight children. Mrs. Yetta Pallas of Portland, Harry, Sam, Hannah, Herman, Lena, Bella and Leo. They also have two grandchildren, Leo and Clarence Pallas. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mihalstn offer congratulations and join in the hope that they may see many more anniversaries as pleasant as this one was.

The first of the series of parties to be given by the Willamette club this season was run off in gala style at the armory Thursday evening.

The decorations consisted of ferns and palms and bunting. Every window was trimmed with ferns and the lower wall was decorated with the words "Willamette Club" made of ferns. The orchestra was stationed on a small platform in the center of the hall. The platform was covered with palms and draped with red, white and blue bunting. Refreshments were served by an attendant at the lower end of the hall. The music was the best that has been listened to in Oregon City for some time. Parsons and Everest of Portland furnished the orchestra of five pieces. Eighteen dances comprised the program. About fifty couples attended.

Mrs. Clyde G. Huntley, Mrs. Norman Lang, Mrs. Leonard L. Pickens, Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith and Mrs. Alfred L. Beattie were the patronesses at Thursday night's function. The committee on decorations were R. McAlpin, J. M. Smith, Al. Price and Chas. Goetting. Refreshments were in charge of Harry Draper, Dr. H. S. Mount, Howard Latourette, Livy Stipp and J. W. Cole. The committee on membership to whom credit is largely due for the splendid attendance, are Mort Latourette, Livy Stipp, and Harry Draper.

The Ladies of the Maccabees met Saturday afternoon and initiated two members, Miss Emma Melan and Miss Charlotta Baker.

A marriage license was issued Monday to Mrs. Julia Marshall and Albert Califf. Both parties possess considerable experience in the matrimonial line.

Constable Bert Jonsrud and Alfred Bell of Barton were in town on business, Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Hidy and baby and Mrs. E. W. Calkins and baby went to Hubbard Saturday morning to spend the day. From there they go on to Woodburn for a visit.

Mrs. U. S. Armstrong and baby George of Barlow were here, Friday. Mrs. L. Cleve who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Kraxberger, left Saturday morning for a visit with another daughter, Mrs. F. D. Kraxberger of Macksburg.

Mrs. W. L. Woodcox of New Era was shopping in town, Friday.

W. H. Logan, an enterprising dairyman of Logan, was in town attending to business matters, Friday.

August Moehnke was in the city Sunday enlisting the services of Dr. Hitchman. Mr. Moehnke injured his hand a short while ago and had the member tied up in a turpentine application. He got his hand too near the flame and burned it severely.

Mrs. K. Grey moved from Elyville, Monday, to Wasco, to be with her daughter Miss Jennie Grey, who is in poor health.

With the adding of the night trains it is just about time Oregon City was having a night force in the postoffice along with the other mail plums dropping this way.

Superintendent J. C. Zinser went to Estacada Friday morning to help dedicate the new school house, a fine building of which the citizens of that town are justly proud. The merchants are going to run a cut of the school house on the back of their envelopes to help advertise the town. Mr. Zinser has been ill of a cold for several days and confined to the house, but thought this occasion too important to miss because of lagrippe.

J. J. Kuntz of Beaver Creek was in town Saturday, completing arrangements for his big sale next Saturday. Mrs. Kuntz and their five sons will leave in a few days for the East and will spend the winter at their old home in northwest Missouri. Mr. Kuntz is greatly impressed with the Coos Bay country and will move there next spring. He says North Bend is the coming town, as it has superior advantages in site over Marshfield, the present larger town three miles south of North Bend. The two will be connected by street cars shortly.

The petition of City Treasurer Mort Latourette was filed Monday with the city recorder. Neither he nor Mayor Cauffield has a competitor.

The Fourth street steps have again been thrown open to the public and with the repairs that have been made present a very creditable appearance.

The Borealis, Aurora's sparkling newspaper, advises its readers to gather mushrooms for the Portland, Oregon City and Salem markets. It says mushrooms grow in the woods around Aurora thicker than hair on a dog.

Mrs. Ernest Rand went Tuesday morning to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in Corvallis.

G. W. Dimick of Hubbard, made a short visit with his son W. A. Dimick, returning to his home Tuesday morning.

Miss Mae Strange, a teacher in the New Era schools, is expected home Wednesday evening for a vacation during the remainder of the week.

A. W. Cheney and family leave Saturday morning for a trip through California, New Mexico and Colorado. They will be gone all winter spending the greater part of the time in Los Angeles. The trip is made for the benefit of their little boy, Oran's, health.

The Oregon City board of trade meets next week and for the first time in its history prospects are bright for a report showing the organization to be free from debt. Accounts are being checked up this week and a report will be formulated in time for the meeting the first of December. C. H. Dye is president of the board and Judge T. F. Ryan is secretary.

Miss Carrie Seeley will be home Wednesday night to spend Thanksgiving with her people here. Miss Seeley is time-keeper in the Mer & Frank store in Portland. She has 750 employees on her list, besides additional holiday help. This is her fourth year with this firm.

George Steel from Meldrum-way was in the city Tuesday morning. That explains why City Attorney J. U. Campbell and Deputy District Attorney Chris Schuebel were out of town. Steel has a fine field for huntsmen out his way, but he does not invite people with shot-guns on his premises. In fact, he invites them in no uncertain terms to stay off. The two local bar-busters believe in "stealing" a march on a man if his name is "Steel."

Special Road Tax at Highland.

County Judge G. B. Dimick went to Highland Tuesday morning for the purpose of levying a special road assessment in road district No. 10. The success achieved thus far in the levy of special road taxes, in Sandy and Viola particularly, is very encouraging and testifies to a healthy, public-spirited sentiment in the county.
