COURT TO SEE COUNTY POOR

COMMISSIONERS CITE MALE PAUPERS TO APPEAR AT JANUARY TERM.

Then and There Must Show Cause Why They Should Not be Stricken from Poor List.

The county court at its session Friday morning took action on the male paupers in Clackamas county in a manner that is somewhat of an innovation. The paupers are cited to appear before the court the first Wednesday in January, 1907, and show cause why they should not be stricken from the poor list.

This is not as the result of any irregularity but simply to start to supervise the pauper class somewhat more thoroughly.

It was also decided that no money should be paid out for printing or stationery except with the endorsement on the order by one of the county commissioners.

In the matter of vacating an alley in Oswego the court having knowledge of objections, laid the matter over for awhile.

George H. Gregory, Sr., Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia—Funeral on Saturday.

The funeral of George H. Gregory, Sr., who died of pneumonia at the home of his son George H. Gregory, Jr., at Molalla, was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the house. Interment took place in Mountain View cemetery, the Rev. Spies, officiating.

Mr. Gregory, who was 80 years old, was born in Somersetshire, England, in 1827, and came to this country in 1868. He lived in New York state, where he was a large property owner and tease grower, until the spring of 1904. Three sons and four daughters survive of whom George H. Gregory, Jr., of Molalla, and S. E. Gregory of Carus, reside in Clackamas county.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Locke, of Allee, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it. For sale by Howell & Jones.

TAKE NOTHING FOR GRANTED. Make Huntley Bros. Prove What Pepsikola Tablets Do For Indigestion.

It stands to reason that Huntley Bros. would not come right out in these columns year after year and ask you to try Pepsikola tablets for indigestion if they were not pretty sure you would receive decided benefit.

You can see that for yourself. The remedy fails to cure every case, of course, but they always pay your quarter back, should the tablets fail to do good.

Life is too short for misrepresentation in matters of this kind, and for the small profit Huntley Bros. make on a 25 cent package it would be mighty poor judgment to induce you to make a trip to this store and then sell you something that would disappoint you.

If troubled with sour stomach, heart burn, wind belching, coated tongue, loss of appetite, weakened energy, steady poor nerves, improving or other stomach trouble, just try Pepsikola tablets on our say so. Our word for it, they will build up your energy, steady poor nerves, improve your appetite, enrich your blood and put new life in your stomach as sure as this world.

When you want your horses well taken care of, stop at the Farmers' Feed Barn.
