AT THE STORE FORMERLY KNOWN AS
Rosenstein's Clothing House
TWO DOORS SOUTH OF POSTOFFICE, MAIN STREET, OREGON CITY, THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF FLOOD-BOUND GOODS FROM THE RAILROADS HAVE BEEN BROUGHT IN AND COMBINED
WITH THE ROSENSTEIN STOCK SLIGHTLY DAMAGED BY FIRE
IN NOVEMBER LAST, AND NOW IN ONE GIGANTIC OFFERING OF

$25,000 Worth of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings are put upon the Altar of Sacrifice. Forced to the Slaughter at the mercy of your cash for as low as 15c on the dollar.

There's no Hocus Pocus about this genuine, gigantic massacre of a mighty stock of good merchandise, most of it new, intended for Christmas trade, but held too late for delivery to the consignees and turned over to the UNION FIRE SALVAGE & ADJUSTMENT CO. by the railroads, as a last resort to be sold by them at any price the goods will bring. 'Tis a matchless opportunity to make every dollar do double duty in the joyous work of Holiday buying of useful gifts for the Men's and Boys' Christmas. And people are flocking from all directions to share in the marvelous bargains. Competition is dazed! Never again, in the lives of those who read these lines will clothing go at such ridiculous prices—for every dollar's worth in this mastadonic offering would cost an advance of a third on the regular prices of these goods that we offer "for a song" at present ruling prices in the wholesale market. But this is a case of MUST! Every dollar's worth of goods in the great sale must be closed out at some price and the store cleared ere the New Year! How different an affair is this gigantic sale of these immense stocks at 15c to 25c on the dollar up to 50c on the dollar, from the stereotyped, prearranged and really meaningless sales heralded through the newspapers far and near.

Here is Sacrifice That Stops at No Loss

To accomplish its great purpose of selling these monster combined stocks. The prices tell the story—You waste nearly half of every dollar spent elsewhere during the progress of this sale, which ends with the month. We'll give you nearly double for your dollar what other stores offer. MAKE US PROVE IT! READ.
