

BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS

FINE GOODS

Several hundred yards fine Cheviots, Tweeds, Cassimeres and Flannels in gray, gray mixed, dark patterns and red, suitable for Men's and Women's suits or Ladies' skirts, jackets, undershirts and underwear.

This consignment of fine woollens consists of the very choicest styles and best qualities and will be sold in lots from 3 to 100 yards at the cost of the wool.

38 per cent. of Actual Value

UNION FIRE Salvage & ADJUSTMENT CO.

THE LID IS OFF

THE

Christmas Bargain Pot IS BOILING OVER.

ROSENSTEIN'S STOCK

Main St., 2nd door south of post office, now in the hands of

Union Fire Salvage & Adjustment Co.

$25,000 worth of the finest Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Christmas Furnishings that money can buy, is on

SLAUGHTER FIRE-PRICE SALE

Don't spend a cent till you see these Bargains. If we can't save you fully ONE HALF, don't buy here. That's square talk---no nonsense.

There never was a time in the history of over 100 stocks of goods that have been sold by The Union Fire Salvage Company, that we were compelled to slaughter fine goods at such Low Prices. Don't be a sceptic; see the grand stock and you will say this is surely a wonderful SACRIFICE SALE.

STORE OPEN NIGHTS TILL CHRISTMAS.

City and Vicinity

Joseph and Amandy Fellows, of Highland, were Oregon City visitors on Wednesday.

A. L. Bigelow of Flanagan, Or., was a business visitor to this city on Tuesday.

Call on Mrs. H. T. Sladen for Christmas millinery. Beautiful Hat at a big reduction, just the thing for a present. 2-2

Some hats at half price. They may suit you. Call and see them. On 7th St., one door from Main street. Mrs. H. T. Sladen. 2-2

August Treheiler will be able to return to his work in the mills in a few days, having been forced to stay in his room with a fractured thigh.

Roy Sleight, student of the State Agricultural college at Corvallis, came Tuesday morning to spend the holidays with his mother and sisters.

Mrs. H. E. Harris' sister, Mrs. Vina Jones of Eastern Oregon, came Tuesday for a short visit. The sisters had not seen each other for fourteen years.

Mrs. Margaret Hendricks, of the Twilight neighborhood has been seriously ill for several days. Mrs. Hendricks is the mother of Frank Hendricks, rural carrier No. 6.

Chester Roake, wife and two children of Chico, Cal., are expected Monday to spend Christmas with Mr. Roake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Roake.

In a recent divorce case, one of the questions put to the husband was this: "Did you ever make Christmas or birthday presents to your wife?" The husband replied that he had not and was sorry for his neglect; that he had given her authority to draw on his bank account and that now, when it was too late, he had learned that it was not enough. A permission to use money at will expresses confidence, but it lacks the essential element of love—the personal attention, the study of likes and dislikes, the selection of a gift and the sweetness of its presentation. The lover during his courtship days knows the difference. Why should not the husband?

Emil Guenther of Shubel visited with his daughter, Miss Elmira Guenther, a popular clerk of the Yokohama clothing store Monday and went on to Portland on a business trip.

A meeting of the Alumni association of the Oregon City schools is being arranged for during the holidays.

The new annunciators at the Barclay school building are expected to be finished and ready for use Thursday morning. There are connections in every room and the teacher can without any trouble call for "hot air."

T. M. Long and two sons Elbon and Archibald and Herman Rakei, of Skamokawa, Wash., came Tuesday noon, to visit until after the holidays with home people.

Trafton Dye went down to Portland Monday and being detained on account of the street car strike, visited until Tuesday with his friend, W. B. Shively.

The First Congregational church will have an old fashioned chimney-plate and a real live Santa Claus, with treats for the children on Friday evening, December 21.

H. K. Bennett and Gus Fournal of Gervais bought Tuesday the saloon business of the Log Cabin and will begin business Thursday. The Log Cabin saloon was formerly owned by Geo. Young of this city, who at present is located on the bottom floor of the Armory building and conducts a shooting gallery. H. K. Bennett is to be the proprietor of the new concern and Mr. Fournal the manager. Mr. Fournal was formerly one of the largest hop growers in the vicinity of Gervais, but sold his property before moving to Oregon City.

St. Agnes Orphanage has now more babies than at any time since the founding of the institution. The number has increased to 70 and many of these are of a very young age. The citizens of Oregon City could do some very good deeds during the Christmas time by sending to the orphanage small gifts—toys, clothing, etc. The persons in charge will appreciate such donations and such deeds of kindness will make the babies a happy Christmas. Those who cannot take their donations can leave same at Dr. Carl's office and will be credited as the donor.

L. H. Kirchem of Logan transacted business in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. John Hellmyer and sons John and George of Clackamas were in Oregon City, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, who have been making an extended stay at Hot Lake, have returned home.

Mixed nuts 15c; peanuts 8 1/3 and 10c. RED FRONT:

J. Hermann of Molalla, came in for a load of freight Wednesday morning. Mr. Hermann speaks very highly of the amount of business now being done out in the Molalla country.

J. L. Kruse and Z. Ellingsen of R. F. D. No. 5, Sherwood, were in town Monday. Mr. Kruse had his paper changed from Willamette, having had to move his mail box about half a mile south to strike the Sherwood route.

A marriage license was applied for at the county clerk's office Tuesday afternoon, but was not issued as the witness was not willing to swear to some statements required to be made. The parties overcame the difficulty by applying for the license in the clerk's office of Multnomah county.

The Holly club consisting of Misses Nettie Kruse, Lennie Seeley and Nellie Swafford; and Messrs. Harry Gordon and Leonard Runyon gave a delightful party at the Phillips & Olds skating rink Tuesday evening. About sixty invitations were heartily accepted and all had a jolly time. The rink was prettily decorated in bunting and evergreen and the girl members of the club wore sprigs of holly. Punch was served by Mrs. J. L. Swafford and Mrs. E. P. Ketchum, who were patronesses of the affair.

Mr. Marshall, who was hurt some time ago in the woolen mills, is improving rapidly. Mr. Marshall was working in the carding room, when he stepped on some of the broken teeth of the carding machine and as his shoes were rather well worn out, the teeth worked through the sole into the foot. He paid no particular attention at the time, thinking the same a very small matter and only realized too late how serious the injury was. Blood poison set in, but under the care of a physician the limb did not have to be amputated.

Xmas goods cut. RED FRONT:

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller is very ill.

Mrs. Haden of Portland visited her sister, Mrs. B. A. Sleight, Wednesday.

W. J. Caulfield is expected home from Collins, Saturday, for the holidays.

Mrs. R. D. Miller has gone to Hillsboro to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt.

Harry Allen of Underwood, Wash., is expected Saturday to spend Christmas with his sister, Mrs. E. C. Hamilton, and family.

The high school boys have challenged the Alumni association of the city schools for a football game on New Year's day.

Mrs. Edward Sheahan and little son go Saturday morning to spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Joseph Kuertin, and sister, Mrs. Will Sheahan at Camas, Wash.

Mr. Manning and the Misses O'Dell, of McMinnville will come Saturday to spend Christmas with their friend, Mrs. G. W. Clark.

Russell Wood, timekeeper for the Dimick Lumber company at Drain, will be home Thursday, to remain until after Christmas with his people here.

Joe Harless of Molalla started for the Ogle Mountains mines Thursday morning. He expects to find P. A. Fairclough working at the mines and should he find out different will phone to this city.

Falls View residents have been heard to complain lately about the planking of the county road. Many of the planks have rotted and have been removed so that the road is really in a very bad condition. The bad spots are within the city limits.

The wood awning in front of the Portland House, a boarding place on Main street, was placed out of commission Thursday morning by the wind storm. Although the affair was not entirely demolished, it was condemned and barriers were placed in front of the hostelry to warn pedestrians of the danger.

K. I. Johnson, one of the prosperous onion growers of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City, Thursday.

F. Mueller of Clarkes was seen on the streets of Oregon City, Thursday.

August Funk of Viola was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

"Tilly Olsen" failed to show up at Shively opera house Wednesday evening. Bad train connections seemed to have been the cause of the canceling of the date late in the afternoon.

The Misses Emil of Scholls, Washington county, were guests of Mrs. Walter Dimick of this city. The young ladies have been attending Willamette University and were on their way home for the Christmas holidays.

L. Adams' windows, always beautifully arranged, are especially attractive during the Christmas season. The displays show all sorts of beautiful as well as useful gifts. The arrangement is unique and deserves much praise.

Representative W. I. Vauter of Medford was in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon meeting members of the legislature. The representative is a strong politician and has aspirations for the chair of speaker of the house.

Frank Busch, the House Furnisher, has been the landing place of all the children for several weeks past for the displays of toys in the windows has made them all think of the "dreamland." Last week the large window was especially attractive with the toy trains, "glant whirl," automobiles, etc., all in section of Central Park, New York. Many a lad was heard to express what he hoped Santa Claus would bring on Christmas day.

Oregon City's well known poultry fancier, Elmer Dixon of Mt. Pleasant, will be kept busy the greater part of this winter as Judge of poultry shows in Oregon, Washington and California. Mr. Dixon has recently returned from Eugene where he was one of the judges in the show held in that city last week. Next week he goes to Everett, Wash., for the poultry show which is to be held in that city from the 27th to the 30th of December. On January 9-12 he will be at Alameda and in Portland January 16-20 and also Walla Walla between January 21-26.

Mr. Kirchem of Logan transacted business in Oregon City Thursday.

Court Robin Hood, No. 9, F. of A., initiated three candidates Tuesday evening. The lodge is in a very prosperous condition.

A happy family reunion and big Christmas dinner are being arranged for at the home of Mrs. E. J. Marshall of Canemah. Sixteen guests are invited and the children expected are Mrs. B. W. Myers, Athena; W. E. and R. T. Marshall, Portland; Mrs. W. L. Midlam and Miss Grayce of Canemah.

Mrs. N. Miller returned Wednesday noon from a three days' trip to Woodlin, Wash. She had been called to the bed side of an old friend and neighbor, A. F. Berry. The Millers and Berrys were neighbors seventeen years ago at Maple Lake, Minn. Mr. Berry is almost seventy years old and was living alone on a small ranch he owns in Woodlin. Mrs. Miller brought him home to care for him. The trip was a hard one and Mr. Berry is now dangerously ill, with little hopes of recovery, suffering from kidney and heart trouble.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan has not been able to attend the meeting of the Oregon Good Roads association which Thursday, Mr. Ryan is vice-president met in LaGrande Wednesday and of the association and was on the program to speak on "Systematic Construction of Good Roads." The reason of the non-appearance of Mr. Ryan at the meeting was on account of sickness in the family, and the amount of business which is requiring his attention in this city at the present time. Judge Ryan would also have to leave Saturday for Sandy. Occupying the position of Deputy Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. lodge, he must be present to institute the new lodge at Sandy.

Marriage Licenses.

Dec. 12.—W. A. Burleigh and Zetha B. Guild.

Dec. 14.—Thomas F. Johnson and Myrtle Johnson.

Mattie Hessemer and Elmer Burnett.

Blanche McDonald and Charles D. Rollar.

Dec. 17.—Parnella Y. Hill and C. H. Dec. 18.—Ella Egle and Daniel Lais. West.