ARC LIGHT TO BE RAISED 20 FEET

Poles Distributed Along Main Street for Change Ordered by Council.

The new poles for the change of the height of the arc lights have been placed on the ground near their respective places. The change was ordered by the council some time ago. The new poles are 60 feet in length and will raise the arcs about 20 feet higher than they are now.

The change will make possible the casting of light at a much greater distance than at the present time, and the streets will be much better lighted than before.

Notwithstanding the above arguments, many have been heard to say that the lower the lights are placed the better the lights, for when the lights are placed there is always an area under the light itself that is entirely dark. Portland has experimented on this for years and finally placed their arcs as low as the law would permit.

NAMES SUGGESTED FOR DEKUM FARM

M. E. Bigham of Oak Grove Gives Indian Phrase in English Words.

M. E. Bigham of Oak Grove suggests that George Dekum name his farm "Dogwood Home," or "Lone Fir Tepee." The latter name possesses the double recommendation of being descriptive of the beautiful lone fir tree that stands in front of the house, and while English words yet the phrase has an Indian sound.

LOGAN.

An entertainment is underway for some time in January by the junior members of Harding Grange. S. E. Gerber, who was injured at the Ogle Mt. mines is getting along nicely and will be able to come home in a few days. He had an ankle injured by a large stone, then while attempting to get out of the house where he slept, which was on fire, his ankle was hurt worse and one wrist dislocated. At present he is at a private hospital in Gladstone. Loganites had better watch their hen roosts. There is some one in Logan who makes chicken stealing a profession. The last place visited was Fred Gerber's. Mr. Gerber says if other members of the family had not made a noise, himself and son would have got their man. Mr. Hen thief will get his dose yet. Patrons of the creamery have received 30 cents per pound for their butter fat, for last month. If eggs and butter keep soaring up, housekeepers will have to invent eggless, butterless cake receipts. Miss Emma Fallert is home again from Portland. Mrs. Moser is on the sick list. F. Gerber is doing some plumbing work for W. Kirchem.

REDLAND JOTTINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fullam went to Portland Saturday. Mrs. A. M. Kirchem spent last Friday visiting Mrs. L. Funk. Ada Gerber and Tillie Hubert went to Gladstone Saturday to visit the former's brother who is in the hospital there. Mahala Gill of Logan visited her sister, Mrs. Barrett, Sunday. Mrs. Wintzle, who has been in Portland for several weeks came home for a few days last week. Everybody is busy preparing for Xmas. There will be a Christmas tree at the Redland M. E. church. Every body invited.

MULINO ITEMS.

A number of Mulino young people attended the social and entertainment at Molalla Friday evening. All reported a good time. Miss Elva Erickson called on Mrs. Daniels Sunday evening. A special road meeting was held at the Grange Hall last Friday for the purpose of levying a 5 mill tax on the road district which carried with a large majority. W. A. Woodside purchased a cow at the sale at R. Shuble's last week, also a number of useful articles. Mr. Lee made a business trip to Oregon City last week. Wren Adkins is logging on his mother's place this winter. C. T. Howard is again making hard wheat flour at the Mulino mill. Alvin Buckner spent the night with Fred and Agnes Woodside last week.

MARK'S PRAIRIE.

The twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. John Goetz died last week and were buried in the Zimmerman cemetery. Miss Beatrice and Miss Grace Ritter sang a beautiful and appropriate song at the grave. Several relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leach were visiting them Sunday. Phillip Miller attended the dance at New Era. Geo. Oglesby and sons Charles and Frank, were visitors at Mr. Kerr's, Sunday. Mrs. Hannah Mcorris and Mrs. Tena Compau were visiting their sister, Mrs. Henry Kraus, one day last week. Our farmers are taking a rest now and planning for spring work. There is a big demand for cedar hop poles here. Oglesby Bros. will use several hundred in their hop yard. Needy Camp No. 511. W. O. W., elected the following officers at their last meeting: C. C., Geo. Oglesby; A. F. J. G. Noe; B. F. E. Fish; C. B. F. Smith; Es. E. Werner; Sen. W. G. Askins; W. D. T. Ackerson; Man. W. H. Stewe. Henry Kraus is putting a neat picket fence around his house which adds to its looks very much. Our school has been having considerable trouble of late and our directors have been called to the school house several times the last few days. What the district needs is a first class man teacher who will take a few "kinks" out of some of our obstreperous pupils. The Woodmen of Needy will have a smoker and supper for their friends in the near future. Howell & Jones' busy store has been making a special display of framed pictures, while their store is crowded within with Christmas goods.

TO REACH THE MODERN MIND

THOUGHTFUL PAPER READ BY DR. HEPPE AT MINISTERS' MEETING.

Chapter from Book He Has in Preparation—East Portland District Association Adjourns Wednesday Evening.

The feature of the afternoon session of the M. E. Minister's Association meeting at the First Methodist church, Wednesday, was the scholarly paper by Dr. Heppe on the "Most Efficient Method of Reaching the Modern Mind." The paper the pastors were favored to hear is a chapter from a book in preparation by Dr. Heppe.

The meeting adjourned sine die Wednesday afternoon. It was of great interest to the 25 pastors who attended during one or all of the sessions. The annual conference will meet May 1, at the call of the Presiding Elder. Following are the proceedings of the closing session:

Wednesday afternoon: Devotions conducted by L. F. Smith and Dr. Heppe lead in prayer. The minutes of the morning session read and approved.

The purpose and power of Sunday School by J. W. McDougal: Three purposes found in the Sunday school—1st, religious instruction; 2d, impart biblical knowledge; 3d, the promotion of temperance. The Sunday school is not to be regarded as an educational institution, where salvation of pupil not to be thought of. The power of the Sunday school to be found in determination to accomplish its work. 2d, the power of the personality of the officers and teachers and abiding faith and trust in Christ. The teacher should exemplify Christ and approach the Word in spirit of reverence and power. H. Spiers spoke on the Sunday school as an evangelizing field; a need of a pressing home of the lesson. The Sunday school lesson should be studied in an atmosphere of prayer. This theme was discussed further by C. H. Wooley.

Most efficient method of reaching the modern mind—Dr. Heppe. Chief function of the mind is thought. That however is never alive but is connected with feeling and volition. To reach the modern mind you reach the modern man. Intellectual and educational methods not correct of themselves, but a harmony must be preserved. Speculative system with regard to doing things, is a system morally wrong. Minister must speak things he has seen and heard. Modern mind never can be reached by speculation, but a plain statement of the fundamentals. Second: We notice emphasis placed upon the literary side. The modern mind wants less pumice stone and more whetstone. Scholarship is simplicity. Profundity is mud. The christian scholar never boasts of his scholarship. The intellectual and emotional methods must become a unit, that both sides of man's nature may be touched.

The kind of preaching necessary to the revival—Rev. L. F. Smith, Trinity, Portland: A revival sermon must be preached in its fullness. It is a complete circle and must be presented as such. We must find out where the sinner is hiding and push him out of his hiding place. It must be an expository sermon and finally wrought out in an atmosphere. We should expect the Gospel to do its work.

Spiritual Life of the Pastor—Dr. Ford: The chief business of the pastor is to save souls. The spiritual life is the essential life. It sustains a vital relation to welfare of the church. The pastor as the significant force of the Revival—J. C. Gregory. The report of the committee on resolutions, was read by J. W. McDougal. Personal Work in the Revival—A. D. Wagoner. The worker and his own soul—J. H. Fowler.

A Western Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Howell & Jones, druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MORE LIGHT FOR SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Big Corporation Discovers Electricity—Its First Step for Modern Methods.

The public is pleased with an improvement at the Southern Pacific depot. It is one step that the company has taken toward getting away from the primitive methods or ruts it has fallen into at this place. Electric lights have taken the place of the coal oil lamps.

Reports have gone out that the agent is all smiles for the car shortage problem has been apparently solved and the large shippers of this vicinity have been able to secure the necessary cars. Hurst of Aurora is shipping potatoes to the people of California, Lindsley & Son have been loading lumber for some time and the shipments are to be sent to Salt Lake City markets, while Sam Gregory, the Clackamas county teasel grower, is shipping his product across the continent.

The shippers of this district that have to bring their product to Oregon City for shipment are still greatly handicapped as the cost of loading their cars eats a large percentage of their profits.

Some of the business men through the pages of the Star have given solutions to the switching and transportation facilities of the railroad company at this point. It would be well for the shippers to study these facts that have been presented. It means that they should get together and see what could be done before the company gets into the notion that the improvement of better lights is sufficient to satisfy the demands of its patrons.

Huntley Bros.' windows have received a great many words of praise during the past week and the young men who got the idea ought to be proud of their work. All sorts of useful holiday gifts abound in the window and are tastily arranged while in the background white and red predominate.

Price Bros.' holiday displays are very attractive. The windows in the first place are especially adapted for the best kind of displays. In one corner old Santa Claus can be seen peeping out of the chimney at a beautiful display of men's togs, while in the other window, shoes of all sorts are displayed on a bed of imitation snow.

Our Failure

Because of our being unable to secure music for the occasion we were obliged to give up our formal opening day. Now in order to make amends as far as possible, we have decided to have a Souvenir afternoon on FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28. During the afternoon we will give away a plate to every lady customer who buys 25 cents worth or more. It is our intention to make this day a profitable one to every customer who comes to our store. In order to do this, we will cut the price on every article excepting contract goods. In this space it is impossible to quote prices but we promise you if there is anything in books, China, Cut Glass, Leather Goods, Holiday sets, Mirrors, Fancy Stationery, Silverware, umbrellas, Bibles, etc. that you want, this will be the one day of the year you can get it at your own price. We have set the day for Friday, thinking that more of our out of town friends would be able to come in than any other day of the week. We hope you will not disappoint us and we assure you we will endeavor to do our part when you come.
