Chas. Holla is being hunted these days by Constable Ely, but seems to be keeping out of sight and succeeds in making jumps from one place to another. The charge against Holla is failure of payment of $30 board bill at the boarding house of M. Justin. Holla skipped and had apparently planned the move for some time as he took all his belongings, trunk, etc., when making the jump during the night.

Miss M. E. Litzker of Goldendale, is here for a two weeks' visit with friends.

F. Mayfield of Mayfield Bros., who operate a general merchandise store at Highland, was in Oregon City, Monday.

F. W. McLeran, manager of the Wilhoit Springs was in town Monday afternoon. Mr. McLeran had just returned from a business trip to Portland and witnessed some of the inconveniences of the strike Sunday, having had the pleasure of walking 26 blocks Sunday evening to reach the home of his brother. In order to make certain of not making the trip from Portland to Oregon City on foot, Mr. McLeran took an early car for this place. He returned to the springs, Tuesday morning.

"Gorton Minstrels" which were to have appeared at the Shively the 23d, have written to postpone their date here until after the holidays. On Dec. 31, "Jerry from Kerry" will be given and on Jan. 7, "Belle of Japan." Both are popular plays.

Upon securing a marriage license Friday morning from the county clerk, Myrtle Johnson and Thomas F. Johnson, both of Multnomah county, proceeded to the room of the County Judge where their matrimonial knot was retied.

The parties were married some time ago, but on account of some misunderstanding of the law, a legal re-marriage was performed.

Charles U. Wilson has been heard from through friends who have met him in New York city. Mr. Wilson is now a member of the "Margaret Witecherly Stock company" which is filling at present an extended engagement in Brooklyn, New York. The company is a well known one and the friends of Mr. Wilson will be pleased to learn of his progress in his chosen profession. Mrs. Charles Pope and Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, since going to the East have met Mr. Wilson and have given flattering reports of his work.

Deputy Sheriff Ely went to Bolton Monday morning for the sale of the foreclosure of mortgage against the property of Charles Baker. The mortgage was held against the property by the Bank of Oregon City. The foreclosure of the chattel mortgage will occur on March 26.

Mrs. John Cox is very ill at her home on Tenth street. Her father, L. M. Davidson of Oswego, came Sunday, expecting his wife who has been with her daughter some time, would be able to return home with him, but Mrs. Cox was not well enough to go.

Oregon City Aerle No. 993, F. O. E. met Monday evening for regular meeting. It was decided to hold the initiations, which are to be followed by a banquet, on New Year's Eve.

Miss Jonsie Dillman has so far recovered from her recent severe illness, as to be able to be out calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sladen were down on their ranch at Fern Ridge, over Sunday.

J. V. Harless and George Ogle of Molalla, started for the Ogle mountain mines, Monday morning.

Mrs. Stuart of Seattle, nee Miss Clara Warner, arrived in Oregon City Sunday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Warner. Mrs. Stuart will remain during the Christmas holidays.

George Dow and Miss Georgiä Silva of Portland, Mrs. Yount and Misses Leonna and Katherine Silva of Rainier were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson.

J. R. Hunt and daughter Cora of Willamette were in Portland Saturday and Sunday, stopping here over Sunday night with their son and brother, A. S. Hunt.

Miss Edna Caulfield is expected to return from the University of Oregon for the Christmas holidays on Friday. Miss Clara Caulfield will not be able to return until the following day.

A large number of Oregon City people who were in Portland Sunday afternoon had to return on the Southern Pacific train on account of the tie-up traffic of the electric cars.

The Knights and Ladies of Security had a very enthusiastic meeting Monday night and initiated one candidate, Miss Gertie Mayo, with five applications on the table. Light refreshments were enjoyed. The team and a number of members expected to go to Portland tonight to do initiatory work but because of the car strike were compelled to postpone the trip. At the next meeting of the local lodge, January 7, a class of eight will be taken in. A committee was appointed to prepare for a big supper for that occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brown were given a surprise at their home on Clackamas Heights, Saturday evening. A number of their neighbors marched into their home, singing "Glory, Glory." Games were indulged in until a late hour, when a bounteous luncheon was served, after which the guests departed, congratulating themselves that they had so completely surprised Mr. and Mrs. Brown. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Long, Mr. and Mrs. McAnulty, Mrs. De Ford, Mrs. Shortlodge, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Draper and Miss Anna Schaffer.

DEATH RECORD

Kanney—The baby son of C. W. Kanney of the West Side died Sunday morning at the home. The body was taken to Snohomish, Wash., Monday afternoon for burial. Brief services were held by Rev. P. K. Hammond.

The body of Charles Burkhardt is expected to arrive in Oregon City on Thursday's train from the south. It will be remembered that A. J. Nobel of this city went to San Jose last week upon the receiving of a message of the serious illness of Mr. Burkhardt and of the second message received here after Mr. Burkhardt's death. Mr. Burkhardt died in San Jose on Friday and the remains are being brought back by Mr. Nobel, who is a brother-in-law of the deceased.

Batdorf's Fingers Mashed.

Edmund Batdorf, who is employed by the paper mills, had three fingers mashed Tuesday. The accident happened while Batdorf was doing volunteer work in aiding the lock-keepers. His hand was caught in the cogs of the gate. He may not lose his fingers.

Beauty More Than Skin Deep.

Every one who wants a good healthy color, and a clear skin free from biliousness, sluggish liver and chronic constipation should get a package of Dainty Laxakola tonic tablets, nature's sweet restorer. Huntley Bros.

WOMAN SAT ON BURGLAR

Harlem Wife Aided Husband In Fierce Fight With Midnight Marauder.

THEN RAN FOR POLICEMAN

"If You Stir I'll Blow Your Head Off," Was the Robber's Bluff, but "Mr. and Mrs. Josephson Called It.

"Come, bestir yourself," said Mrs. Albert Josephson, wife of the superintendent of the fashionable Lenox Court apartments, New York, to her spouse in the early hours of a recent morning. "I think there is some one in the house."

"Tut, tut; you're just nervous. Let me sleep," returned the husband drowsily. But his nap was short. His wife was sure and, being sure, persistently shook him until he was wide awake.

"Oh, well, just to satisfy you I'll get up and take a look around," he said. Then a deep voice came out of the gloom from somewhere at the foot of the bed:

"Excuse me; you won't do anything of the sort. You'll be just where you are, and you'll keep mighty quiet about it. If you stir I'll blow your head off."

Josephson, however, decided he wasn't going to keep still, so he sprang into the darkness and grappled with what turned out to be the biggest man he had ever encountered. They rolled about the floor, and the intruder cursed. Josephson didn't. He needed all the breath he could muster to take care of his man.

Mrs. Josephson in the meantime turned on the light, and when she saw the intruder about to get away she joined in the battle without waiting to dress. Finally she aided by sitting on the big man until her husband got a good grip on him. Then she hurriedly slipped into a dressing gown and started for the door.

SHE SAT ON THE BIG MAN.

ed for a policeman. She found two of him in less time than it usually takes in Harlem, even when the need is not so great.

The bluecoats returned with her and braced the big man. At first he was sullen. Afterward at the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, the police say, he gave his name as John Kelly, his age as twenty-one and his address as 538 Second avenue. His occupation was set down as "laborer," and from his appearance when the police found him rolling about the floor with Josephson it was no misnomer. He had put in a laborious half hour.

In his pockets, the police say, they found a bunch of skeleton keys and a pair of gold cuff links, which, Josephson said, had been taken from his shirt. On the floor of the bedroom clothing belonging to the Josephsons was found bundled up ready to be taken away.

Faithful Dog Did His Duty.

David Conover, carpenter, entered his home on Trenton avenue, Chelsea, N. J., and discovered blood trails over the floor. He traced them to a door through which he entered with some trepidation and discovered his Newfoundland dog Tip in an excited condition. Conover went over the house and found that he had been robbed. There were signs of a battle between the thief and the Newfoundland, with clear evidence that the burglar had been severely bitten. But the thief, notwithstanding his wounds, carried off his loot.

Hung Hog's Head on Husband's Door. Fotti Huddin, a Mohammedan of Asbury Park, N. J., had his wife before Justice of the Peace Borden to explain why she hanged pigs' feet and a hog's head on his door knob and also called him a monkey. He admitted he had another wife in India, but declared when he married the wife against whom he is now complaining in New York about twelve years ago, when she was only seventeen, he told her of his wife in India.

DEATH DUE TO POISON IS VERDICT

INQUEST INTO CAUSE OF DEATH OF FORMER OREGON CITY WOMAN.

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 18.—No new developments have occurred in the case of the poisoning of Mrs. Nettie Mrs. Seeds' death was purely accidental. Mrs. Seed's death was purely accidental, though one physician says the dog wash contained carbolic acid while there was no evidence of that acid in Mrs. Seeds' stomach.

The dead woman's husband, J. T. Seeds, when he left home Friday told her she was not looking well and cautioned her to not forget to take her medicine. He was a half-hour late returning home that evening, and found preparations made for supper but his wife was not visible. Searching he was horrified to find her body in an inner room.

At the inquest, it developed that Mrs. Seed's medicine was in a bottle on a shelf alongside a bottle of poisonous dog wash, which she probably drank by mistake. There is no suspicion that she took the poison intentionally.

Mrs. Nettie Seeds was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis of Mt. Pleasant. Besides the parents, she leaves a sister, Mrs. W. T. Rowan, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Davis reside. Except for a dispatch announcing the death, the family here had heard no particulars of Mrs. Seeds' demise until told of the above dispatch to the Star. Mrs. Seeds was 26 years of age.

- Secretary of Treasury, George B. Cortelyou.
- Secretary of War, Wm. H. Taft.
- Secretary of Navy, Victor H. Metcalf.
- Attorney General, Charles J. Bonaparte.
- Postmaster General, George Von L. Meyer.
- Secretary of the Interior, James R. Garfield.
- Secretary of Agriculture, James Wilson.
- Secretary of Commerce and Labor, Oscar L. Strauss.

Mr. Dooley's New Observations.

In the language of a friend "Dooley is gittin' gayer and wiser all the time." He has never written so brilliantly as in the new series of Dooley articles which are now appearing in The Chicago Sunday Record-Herald. His views on "Me Young Frind Count Bonney's Love Affairs," "Th' Prindint's Activities" and other timely observations in the new series are the choicest things the author has ever offered his thousands of admirers, full of witty sayings which will be quoted for years to come. These "Dooley" articles, each complete in itself, will appear in successive Sunday issues of the Record-Herald.

Guaranteed Remedy for Indigestion.

Interesting Statement by Huntley Brothers.

When a man comes into this store and calls for any particular indigestion remedy, we give what he asks for, but in case he leaves it to us we usually recommend Pepsikola tablets.

Here is a preparation we have been selling right over the counter for years and from actual observation we know it must be good, and really does relieve and cure indigestion and dyspepsia or there would be a steady stream of people coming back for their money, as every 25 cent box is sold with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefitted or there is nothing to pay.

You simply try Pepsikola tablets with the understanding that they will steady your nerves, improve your appetite, relieve wind belching, coated tongue, sour stomach, fullness after eating, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion or Huntley Bros. are ready at any time to pay back your money without the least argument.

Beef and Mutton Advance.
There has been an advance in price paid by local butchers of beef and mutton. They are now paying $2.75 per hundred for heifers and $3.50 to $4.50 for steers. Sheep are bringing from 5 to 5½ cents a pound.

Both of New York's senators were in their seats when the senate roll was called. Now Mrs. Platt ought to know where to find her husband.
