One of the most enjoyable events of the season, was the first open meeting of the Berthick club, Friday evening, when about sixty guests were entertained at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. James Chase. The house was artistically decorated in Oregon grape, mistletoe and garlands of red crepe paper. Partners were chosen for progressive whist by matching articles drawn from baskets that were passed—an iron-holder and an iron, a knife and a fork, a cup and saucer, were among the combinations. Prize winners were Cis Barclay Pratt, a hand-painted plate of dainty design; R. R. McAlpin, a handsome deck of cards. An auction of antique created a great deal of merriment, bids ranging from half a million to one penny, kept the bean-money in circulation. The packages were wrapped in tissue paper and tied with ribbons and each was given fifty beans as a start. In the musical game, seven or eight gentlemen guessed all the numbers. Three other selections were played, resulting in victory for C. D. Latourette, who was given a harmonica. Col. Robt. Miller secured the consolation prize, a jewsharp. A delicious luncheon was served. The evening was brought to a delightful close by the singing of several popular airs, by the entire company. Mrs. Chase was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Wm. A. Huntley, Charles H.
