The Christmas decorations in the St. John church Tuesday, were so beautifully artistic and realistic as to be deserving of special mention. The ladies of the Altar society composed of the following officers, president, Mrs. J. Miller; secretary, Miss Gusta Myers; treasurer, Miss Beta Mattlies; had the decorations in charge. The three main altars were decorated in Oregon grape, ferns and mistletoe, while garlands of green strung with red Christmas bells, hung from the four corners of the sanctuary, with an immense bell of red suspended from the ceiling where they were joined in the center. The manger at the right of the sanctuary was the work of B. Kuppenbender. The child in the manger, the sheep grazing on the hill, the cattle sleeping near and the worshippers at the shrine told the Christmas story more distinctly than words could have done.

ORDINANCE NO.—

An ordinance providing for the licensing and regulating of billiard, pool and card rooms, and to prevent minors under the age of eighteen years from frequenting the same.

Oregon City does ordain as follows: Sec. 1. Any person or firm conducting a card room, billiard room or any game of cards, billiards, pool, dice-throwing or any other game of chance or other game for amusement or otherwise after the hour of twelve o'clock p. m. of any day, or before the hour of six o'clock a. m. of any day.

Sec. 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance or opening or conducting a card room, billiard room, or pool room, without first having obtained a license as required by section one of this ordinance or violating any of the conditions required in said bond as provided in said section No. one, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof before the recorder or mayor shall be fined in any sum not less than ten dollars or more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the City Jail for not less than five days nor more than twenty days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 6. The City Council shall have power to revoke the license provided for in this ordinance for any cause which in their judgment is sufficient.

Read first time and ordered published at a special meeting of the Council of Oregon City, held December 26th, 1906.

By order of the Council of Oregon City. W. A. DIMICK, Recorder.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person or firm conducting a card room, billiard room or pool room, to harbor, permit or suffer any minor under the age of eighteen years to loiter or remain in such card room, billiard room or pool room, or to engage in any game of cards, dice-throwing or other game of chance, billiards, pool, bagatelle or other game in such card rooms, billiard rooms or pools rooms, either for amusement or otherwise.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any minor under the age of eighteen years to frequent, loiter or remain in any card room, billiard room, pool room, or to engage in any game of cards, dice-throwing or other games of chance, billiards, pool, bagatelle or other games in any card room, billiard room, or pool room, either for amusement or otherwise.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any person or firm conducting any card room, billiard room, or pool room, to keep the same open or to permit any person, except employes, to remain in, or to permit any person to engage in
