NAMES OF DELEGATES FROM CLACKAMAS COUNTY APPOINTED BY DR. BEARD.

J. H. Reid of Milwaukie and County Inspector Lewis on the Program--Spraying Demonstration.

The annual meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society will meet in Portland on the 8th, 9th and 10th of January, in the Knights of Pythias hall, Eleventh and Alder streets.

To this meeting all sections of the state will be represented and many of the different counties will be represented by several horticultural societies.

A varied program has already been prepared and horticulturalists from every part of the state will be present to discuss the advantages and difficulties of fruit growing and nut culture in the state of Oregon. Two sessions will be held each day.

Clackamas, Washington, Yamhill counties of the Willamette valley will all be represented and will be given a chance to express their opinion on the fruit growing business as well as their friends from the Hood River country or the Rogue river valley.

Representatives of Clackamas county who appear on the program are J. H. Reid of Milwaukie, who is on one of the special committees, and on Tuesday, January 10, Fruit Inspector Lewis of Clackamas county will give a few thoughts on "An Inspector's Trials."

Prizes are to be awarded to the best display of fruit and walnuts, and on Thursday morning a demonstration of spraying and the general care of an orchard will be illustrated on the T. V. The plaintiff also claims that the defendant did not provide sufficiently for her and that she had to sell some of her private property to sustain from want. She pleads the court to grant her a decree of divorce and that her maiden name, Helen M. Glos, be given back to her as well as all the rights of an unmarried woman.

DAVEY AND VAWTER ANGLING FOR VOTES

RIVAL CANDIDATES FOR SPEAKERSHIP WANT SUPPORT OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY REPRESENTATIVES.

The situation at present for the speakership of the Oregon Legislature is a complex one and seems to run very close between Davey and Vawter. Both of these candidates claim each other's votes in some cases.

Vawter was in Oregon City last week to see how he stood with the members from Clackamas county and secured Representative Jones on his side. But when he came to Representative C. H. Dye, the newly elected representative from this county, there seems to have been no real satisfactory agreement arranged between the two. Both Vawter and Davey are in doubt as to Dye's support, although conflicting reports are heard at all times.

Huntley has always been an avowed supporter of Davey. Campbell, the joint representative of Clackamas and Multnomah is claimed by the supporters of Vawter, but later reports are that while in Salem last Saturday Campbell promised to support Davey.

Davey of Marion now claims that he has now the fight and that he has good pledges from all his supporters while Vawter's partisans dispute the assertion.

The fight is indeed waxing hot and promises to be interesting until the day of election.

O. C. LUMBER MILL RUNNING FULL FORCE

The Oregon City Mill & Lumber company resumed work Wednesday morning. The mill had been closed for a week to make some needed repairs to the machinery. The boiler and engine were overhauled and some new machinery was added. The mill beginning with Wednesday will run full force.

WILL PROVIDE FOR TRAVELERS' COMFORT

The additions to the Southern Pacific depot are getting well on their way toward completion. A large force of men are constantly kept busy and it will now only be a short time before the public will be accommodated with a comfortable waiting room and freight department.

The large roomy waiting room at the north end of the present depot settles the great demand made by the people for many years. Electric lights will also give a cheerful appearance instead of the former gloomy one given by the oil lamps.

The additions are somewhat higher than the former depot and this will remove the barn-like effect of the old structure.

Alma, Kan., Jan. 2.—A head-on collision near here today on the Rock Island road resulted in the death of 25 persons and the injury of 40 more, mostly laborers.

The wreck was caused by an error by an operator.

R. H. Taber of Mt. Pleasant has received a telegram containing the sad intelligence of the death Tuesday, January 1, of a sister, Mrs. Corbin, in Yates City, Ill. It is especially sad as Mr. and Mrs. Taber were making arrangements to visit Mrs. Corbin and other relatives when the message came. Mrs. Corbin was the oldest of the family being about eighty, while Mr. Taber is the youngest child.

A merry New Year's glaner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Winkle. The day was spent in social pleasures and the full appreciation of the fine feast that was spread. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raket of Canemah, August Raket, Mr. and Mrs. George Raket, of Portland, Herman and Willie Raket, Misses Minnie Raket and Minnie Klemsen of Canemah and Mr. Wm. Edwards of Pennsylvania. The latter has been visiting in the Oregon country. He returned to Portland last night.

Mr. Ingalls is still slicing meat for his customers at the Canby butcher shop.

Christmas has come and gone and the children's toys do not look as they did a few days ago.

Mr. Fisher is still slicing meat for his customers at the Canby butcher shop.

HIGH OFFICER OF ESERALDA COUNTY, NEVADA, RETURNS TO BOYHOOD HOME.

Present Strike of Miners Will Probably Give Diggins a Set-back—Goldfield Has 15,000 People.

W. A. Ingalls of Goldfield, sheriff of Esmeralda county, Nevada, after an absence of 26 years, is again visiting the old haunts of his boyhood days. He was born in Oregon City and says he remembers being taken to Portland by his father one Fourth of July. It was at that time he saw his first fireworks. He is returning to Goldfield from a visit to his father at Walla Walla, Wash.

Sheriff Ingalls is a partner in the Palace saloon at Goldfield, with Nace Grant, formerly of Portland. He says the Oregon men in the Nevada mining districts are doing well.

Although Sheriff Ingalls admits the present miners' strike in the Goldfield diggings will probably give the camp a temporary setback, he has confidence in the district, and says it is bound to go ahead. He thinks Goldfield will be made the county seat of Esmeralda county by the coming legislature.

Mr. Ingalls was greatly surprised at the wonderful growth of Oregon City and especially of the city of Portland.

Having held the position of Sheriff for ten years, with a term in the Nevada legislature, Mr. Ingalls has had a wide experience with bad men on the frontier. But he has managed to hold his own. He maintains that Goldfield is law-abiding and orderly, despite the fact that the floating population has been gathered from all parts of the world.

"Conditions are not bad, considering that Goldfield is a big mining camp," said Sheriff Ingalls. "The good element is in the majority, and law and order prevail. Goldfield is now a city of about 15,000 people, and is undoubtedly the greatest quartz mining camp the country has ever known."
