

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Mr. Torrance's youngest daughter met with a very serious accident Tuesday evening on her way home from school. Several of the school children climbed on a wood wagon for a ride and the little girl fell off. The wheel passed over her arm, crushing it at the wrist. A doctor was called and set the fractured arm which is in a serious condition.

Mrs. Moran was very ill Tuesday evening and Dr. Strickland was called. She is some better at present, but very weak.

The church building at this place was found to be in a very deplorable condition Sunday. The roof has got to leaking badly and carpets and floor were a sheet of ice. The janitor had kept a fire nearly all day to make it fit for sabbath school in the afternoon.

The entertainment given by the home talent at May's hall Saturday night was well rendered and gave the audience a pleasing program. The Sunday school sold candy and popcorn, realizing $5.40.

A. P. Hapler and wife have moved in the Murrow property. They came from Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Brandt has a good start in young chickens hatched in an incubator. He will also have another hatch come off this week.

Everhart and Hall are having a serious time with a sick horse and a lame one.

Alvin Mack has come home and will farm the place this year. Lawrence Mack will go elsewhere.

H. C. Selby who has been spending the holidays with his family here, went back to the logging camp Thursday.

Mrs. Pauline Swartz and Mrs. J. Nelson spent the day with Mrs. Matchett Browne, Friday.

There is a rumor of another wedding in the near future.

Wiley May is cleaning up the hop yard and setting in more poles. A man of Mr. May's age and ability puts to shame some others who are "too old" to work. He is out early and late, always at work.

Old Uncle Lewis who has lived a long time with Mr. Molloy, was sent to the insane asylum this week. He had become dangerous.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. C. Brown went to Barton the latter part of this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. John R. Gladson.

The boys and girls are having a fine time skating, a luxury they seldom get in Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Burly visited friends in Portland last week. Mr. Stafford of Portland returned with them Sunday and spent part of the day.

Mr. Miles is quite feeble, but is hopeful and thinks when spring comes his rheumatism will vanish.

RUSSELLVILLE ITEMS.

Born on December 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Job Bowman, a daughter. Mother and daughter doing fine and we think Job will recover.

Russellville is experiencing quite a hard winter, the ground being frozen hard, quite a snow on for over a week and high east winds.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shank, their daughter Nettie and Mr. Ellis C. Shepherd of Crook county, Oregon, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Buckner of Wilhoit, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Shepherd and family, Mrs. Shepherd's sister Daisy and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Trullinger. After the knot had been securely tied at the noon hour, the company sat down to a sumptuous dinner. All enjoyed the occasion immensely and wish the promising young couple a long, happy and prosperous life. They will go to Crook county in a few days to live, where Mr. Shepherd has a farm.

Mrs. E. K. Dart was a guest of Mrs. L. B. Trullinger New Year's day.

Earl Davidson of Scott's Mills has been visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson.

NOTES FROM CARUS.

School has closed until further orders of the school board of directors. Miss Bertha Spangler has returned to her home after a month's visit in Tacoma.

A few from here attended the dance at Beaver Creek, New Year's eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis spent New Year's week visiting at Beaver Creek with their many friends.

Dr. R. Goucher visited with Capt. Beboe one day last week.

Several loads of potatoes were hauled from here to Oregon City last week.

Ralph Howard left Monday morning for Oregon City to help Mr. Molzan load a car of telephone poles.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bulard, a thirteen pound daughter. Both mother and child are doing well.

Davis Boss and E. Howard and son hauled hay last week to Oregon City to be shipped to Rainier.

A ROYAL CARNIVAL OF MATCHLESS BARGAINS. An event that will go down in history as the greatest sale ever known throughout the state—greater not only in the marvelous selection of styles, in the multitude offered, but greatest in the bewildering low and absurdly little prices asked. Come here expecting to find absolutely the best values you ever saw. You will not be disappointed; your expectations shall be exceeded in every instance. We guarantee that the prices are lower and the values such as you only could picture in your most exalted moments of imagination. Why, language is too faint to convey to you even an idea of the extraordinary values to be found here during the next sixteen days. A MIGHTY AND GIGANTIC CARNIVAL OF FURIOUS SELLING FOR SIXTEEN DAYS will mark the most important mercantile event ever held in Oregon City and State. It is not necessary to mention that we do strictly as we advertise. The public knows that every statement we make is the truth—the truth in its entirety. The best and greatest values on earth are now staring you in the face. The only question is, can you, dare you, in justice to yourself, overlook a chance like this? Use good common sense with which nature has endowed you. Scan these prices carefully. Never again will you have such a golden opportunity to dress in such rich raiment at such trifling cost. It will pay you to come many hundreds of miles to visit this gigantic event. When you take into consideration that this sale is of more importance to the people, and in fact, the greatest sale ever attempted in retail merchandising, in Oregon City, embracing an expenditure of OVER THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS, it will convey to you some idea of the marvelous sacrifices that will be offered to the public.

The appended items are merely representative; to fully realize and to properly appreciate the extraordinary values to be found, you must needs visit our store yourself. Now, then, in offering these bargains we make no reservations, and include and place at your disposal every garment and article throughout our departments.

The selling prices of the goods, as sold by the Big "Globe" DEPARTMENT STORE PRICES, are quoted as the value of the goods in this announcement, at regular Clothing Stores they'd sell for much more—but SEE HOW WE SLAUGHTER THE BIG DEPARTMENT STORE'S "LITTLE PRICES!"
