

CORRESPONDENCE

LOGAN.

Quite a number of Loganites attended the directors meeting of the various rural phone companies in Oregon City Saturday. The farmers want free exchange with the county seat.

John Shuttel has moved back to Portland and his son-in-law, J. S. Strom has moved on his farm.

M. Johnston of Barton is moving on his brother's farm, here.

Frank Partch left for Athens, Oregon, this week to work.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Kirchem on the 19th inst., leaving a little daughter.

Died—at the home of his son J. S. Gill of Logan, Nehemiah Gill, aged 83 years, 9 months and 22 days. He died Saturday morning, March 16, death being due to an attack of the la grippe and old age. He was born in Marion county, Ohio May 24, 1823. He resided there until 1851, when he moved to Iowa, lived there until 1872 then went to Kansas, and lived there until 1905, when he came to Oregon and made his home with his son, J. S. Gill of this place. The following children survive him: J. S. Gill, of Logan, Or.; W. R. Gill of Centerville, Iowa; Thomas Gill of Colorado; Mrs. Ida Walker of Formosa, Kansas; Mrs. Ada Barge of New York City, N. Y.; and one stepson, Wm. Barge of Moscow, Idaho. Grandpa Gill was laid to rest in Pleasant View cemetery here on Sunday at 4 o'clock, funeral services conducted by Rev. Mr. Patton of Viola at the Ravenswood church.

Xenophon, the fine imported Percheron stallion, owned by a company of farmers, died from acute indigestion at the home of one of his keepers, Mr. M. Frakes of Logan. This will prove a serious loss to the company as he cost them $3600. Xenophon was apparently well until the eve of his death, even then he did not appear to be seriously ill. A veterinary was sent for, but the horse was dead before he got there. A post mortem examination showed that death was due to acute indigestion. The horse was insured but the term had expired, they had filed a new application for insurance and if the papers had reached their destination and been signed before his death, the loss will not be quite as heavy on the stock holders.

One of the representatives of the Christian confederation was out this way not long since asking a renewal of some of the options. He claims Harriman's absorption of the Gould lines here had broken into some of their arrangements and they wanted more time so they could overcome the obstacles arising therefrom.

STAFFORD.

Will Borland has been plowing for Mr. Gage.

The little grandson of Mrs. Barnes who pulled a bucket containing hot water on to his arm making a bad burn, is getting along nicely. The child's mother, Mrs. Decker of Wilamette, came up, as Mrs. Barnes has been quite ill the last week.

Zack Elligen has the la grippe and is confined to his room.

Mrs. George Bickel is better and her sister Mrs. Green, returned home.

Mrs. Barnes' brother, whom she had not seen for 23 years, came unexpectedly to visit her last week from Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Delhe who has been visiting in the East, said it grew so cold in St. Paul, she went to St. Louis. She went to sleep and when she awakened she thought surely they had brought her back to Oregon, the air seemed so balmy, birds singing and grass and flowers so fresh.

T. L. Turner has a narrow escape from death or serious injury. He was on his way to the Tualatin mill after lumber when the horses he was driving became unmanageable and he crawled back and tried to get off from the hind end of the wagon, but was thrown in some way so his side was badly bruised and he is yet quite sore and lame. The accident happened near where the old red school house stood and men stopped the horses near Zeke Eddy's. There was some damage to the wagon.

Fred Waehle came home for a short visit last week.

Mr. G. Moser has two incubators at work.

The building boom has struck Stafford for sure. Gus Gebhardt is building a commodious hen house.

CLARKES.

A heavy rainfall visited Clarkes Sunday giving the farmers a few days rest.

W. S. Broadus came from Portland looking for potatoes in Clarkes.

Mrs. Peter Schiewe went to Portland to visit her daughter Hannah.

O. Hanson sold 40 acres of land to A. Stromgreen for $700, who has moved in his new home and O. Hanson moved in with I. P. Olson.

Mrs. C. Haag fell on March 8. It was a frosty morning while pumping water and her feet slipped. She fell on her back and the fall knocked her senseless. She was carried into the house and was found to be seriously injured, but is improving.

Miss Lydia Bottemiller and brother Fred went home to Ridgefield, Wash. Fred Bottemiller bought four pigeons for 25 cents from Mr. Kern and took them to Ridgefield.

Mrs. J. Putz of Colton was on the sick list but is improving.

C. Kinzy from Clarkes, went to Colton to visit Mr. Putz and had his hair cut.

Mrs. Henderson of Elwood is very ill since last Tuesday.

Julius and Paul Schiewe went out in the woods cutting hazel brush with an axe. Paul cut his brother Julius.

Mr. Wettlauffer has bought a buggy horse.

George Wallace from Highland took a load of hay to town last Saturday.

C. Kinzy went to Howard's mill to get a load of shorts for his cows.

The preacher of the German M. E. church for Clarkes is ill with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxon came Tuesday. They are enjoying good health.

SOUTH MOLALLA.

H. F. Kayler is quite "under the weather." He is the oldest pioneer in this part of the country.

David Fox has moved back on his farm. Mr. Fox has been in the lumber business for several years on the Abaqua and lost his sawmill by fire last summer.

C. W. Herman and wife have recently returned from a visit in Marion county. Mrs. Herman's father has had a severe spell of illness.

Mrs. Watts of Stone is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. K. Dart this week. Mrs. Watts' husband is a brother of R. F. Watts, owner of the Leavitt farm.

Frank Milton, a rising violinist, now of Portland, came out to visit his people the first of the week.

Louis Daugherty caught a coyote in a trap last week. Mr. Daugherty is a member of the bounty club so got $10 for his catch.

Cary Scott Herman celebrated his 34th birthday anniversary, Monday, March 18. About 34 of his relatives and friends were present at his new home enjoying the delightful occasion. The effect of good music was surely in evidence. Carry Herman presided at the piano, Frank Melton was first violinist, Alex Smith, second, Miss May Herman and James Melton guitars. Mr. Smith gave some of his old time selections with the vim of youth of one and twenty at the bow. Little Ruth Hetman sang and played her peck-a-boo selection to the great delight of all. Then came the refreshments, too numerous to mention in this short space.

The quarterly Sunday school convention will be held on the fifth Sunday of March, Easter Sunday, at the Molalla school hall, where all the Sunday schools in South Clackamas are expected to be represented with a good delegation, resulting in a pleasant and profitable meeting.

NEEDY.

Needy, March 19.—"It never rains, but it pours." That is what everybody thought Sunday.

Mrs. Galer is in Portland visiting her daughter this week.

Mr. Hoffman's family are every one on the sick list.

Mr. Cooper is sawing wood for John Gayler.

Dick Garrett spent Sunday at Kinzy's.

James Dozier and wife spent Sunday at W. Leache's.

Mr. Bard is hauling off his spuds and getting a good price. Mr. Stony is hauling off his hops.

Lee Fish is spending a few days at Elliott's.

Miss Martha Reams has returned to her home at Billeville.

Miss Spagle has returned home from Hubbard where she had been staying for some time.

Miss May Price is getting better slowly.

Mr. Smoker has bought the Sam Taylor place.

C. W. Noblitt is suffering from a severe attack of la grippe. Owing to his age it goes very hard with him.

Mrs. Frank Fish was visiting Mrs. Palmer Tuesday.

Misses Anna and Zoe Fish and Albert Elliott spent Sunday at Noblitt's.

Miss Mary Spagle is home for a few days.

DOVER.

Mrs. A. J. Kitzmiller returned from Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. J. L. Robertson was in Portland several days last week.

A. J. Morrison has accepted a position with Mitchell, Lewis & Staver, Portland. He left Thursday to commence work.

Ward Douglas was a Dover caller last week.

Miss Clara Exon visited with her brother's family several days last week. Mr. Exon accompanied her to Portland, Friday.

E. C. Seward was an Estacada caller Monday.

Joe De Shazer and C. A. Keith are on the sick list.

Gardens are coming up nicely in spite of the snow.

The Rev. McPherson preached at 10:30 a. m. Sunday.

Guy Woodie and family took dinner Sunday with the Kitzmiller family. George Wolf is entertaining friends from Pennsylvania.

SHUBEL.

Otto Moehne has gone to the logging camps on the Columbia.

Will Clarke lost a horse one day last week.

Raleigh Cross of Oregon City came out to E. F. Ginters place today and got his pony which Mr. Ginter has been keeping over winter.

A number of our young people attended the party at Marshall's of Clarkes, last Thursday night.

Godfrey Moehne will soon have another large piece of land cleared on the hill place.

ORDINANCE NO.—

An ordinance providing for the width and manner of constructing sidewalks in Oregon City.

Oregon City does ordain as follows:

Section 1. All sidewalks hereafter constructed in Oregon City shall be of asphalt, stone, cement, artificial stone or wood.

Section 2. All sidewalks hereafter constructed in said city, except as hereinafter provided for, shall be of an even width of not less than six feet and have a grade or fall toward the curb of one-fourth inch to each foot in width of walk.

Section 3. All sidewalks whether made of wood, cement or other material named in Section 1 of this ordinance, shall be constructed in accordance with the Standard City Specifications for such walks and be subject to the approval of the committee on Streets and Public Property.

Section 4. All sidewalks hereafter constructed, reconstructed or renewed upon Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth and Tenth streets between Railroad Avenue and Water Street and upon Moss Street between the Southern Pacific Railroad track and Main street shall be not less than six nor more than ten feet wide.

All sidewalks hereafter constructed, reconstructed, renewed or replaced upon the said streets after the same have been regularly graded and improved, shall be constructed, reconstructed, renewed or replaced with concrete mixed and laid in accordance with the Standard City Plans and Specifications for such walks, which plans and specifications shall be furnished by the City Engineer.

Such walks shall have a concrete curb six inches wide on top, eight inches wide on the bottom and eighteen inches deep, set vertically and on a line flush with the wearing surface of the walk.

Section 5. The council may authorize the building of walks four feet in width upon the unimproved streets within the corporate limits of the city, except those streets named in Section 4 of this ordinance.

Section 6. The owner or owners of property fronting upon any unimproved streets, except those named in Section 4 of this ordinance, may by and with the consent of the council, construct sidewalks four feet in width upon such unimproved streets, provided, however, that in the event of the said street being improved and such walk ordered removed, the said property owners shall remove the same and hold the City of Oregon City and any and all of its officials free and harmless from any loss or damage occasioned thereby.

Section 7. Such sidewalks shall be constructed in a good and substantial manner by laying three stringers, four by four inches in size, firmly upon the ground, which shall be first properly graded to conform as near as may be, to the general contour of the street. The planking shall be two inches in thickness, not less than six nor more than eight inches wide, and securely spiked to the stringers, using two spikes in each bearing.

Section 8. This ordinance shall not be held to apply to Main street or any portion thereof.

Section 9. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Read first time and ordered published at a special meeting of the council of Oregon City, held Wednesday, March 20, 1907.

By order of the Council of Oregon City.
W. A. DIMICK,
Recorder.
