A SETBACK.

Why a Denver Society Man Did Not Call on the Girl.

The gasoline runabout stopped and refused to budge. In it was a good looking young woman. She pushed levers and turned wheels, but the machine remained still. A well dressed young man quite well known in Denver society came along. He knew very with about autos, but the girl's looks stracted him. "Here's a chance," he wiought, "to work a little bluff and ake the acquaintance of a peach."

Raising his hat, he asked if he might it try to help her out of her predicaent. To be sure he might. So he ent to work. He looked in the matine, and then he talked to the girl. ext he looked under it, and then he id a little talk with the girl. He manfed to kill ten minutes pretending to pk for the trouble and incidentally scoming acquainted with the girl. Fiilly he took hold of the crank and ive it a twist. The engine began to atff, and the machine was in readiness start

She gave him her number, "I'll be up morrow evening if you don't mind," be said.

"All right," was her reply. She started the machine and then stopped it again. "Would you mind coming around to the back door when you call?" she asked. He was surprised. "What-the back door?" he said, looking puzzled. "Yes," she replied. "I'm the second maid up there."

He smiled a sickly smile and moved away hurriedly. No, he didn't keep the engagement.-Denver Post.

Right Now.

The master of a large southern plantation would fire off a small cannon every evening at 6 o'clock as a signal to the people living on his land. One evening at the time for the usual boom the master was away. Two of his colored men, John and Jim, had long desired to fire the cannon, but had never had a chance to do so. They decided to make the trial on this afternoon, but thought that it would be best for them s-1e, 78% acres; $1175. to have the cannon make no sound. It was decided that Jim should hold a water bucket over the mouth of the cannon while John did the actual discharging.
