

LOCAL NEWS

J. T. Evans of Mulino was in town, Tuesday.

J. J. Mallatt of Mulino was among the traders in Oregon City, Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Burns, Jr., visited her sister, Miss Beulah Wheeler, at Portland, Tuesday.

Mrs. Guy Redick and Mrs. Bert Greenman visited relatives in Portland, Tuesday.

Chas. Nelson has resumed his position with Pope & Company after a week's illness.

The baby of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Burke at Green Point has been very ill, but is better.

G. S. Rogers of Willamette returned Tuesday from a visit with his father, John Rogers, at Hopewell. He found him improved in health.

John Albright resigned his place with an Eagle Creek logging company and has accepted a similar position at White Salmon, Wash.

Mrs. Mary Webster of Vancouver, Wash., is spending a week with her niece, Mrs. Chas. Catta, of this city.

H. A. Kayler and sister Miss Ellen Kayler of Molalla, were in the county seat last Tuesday.

Light criminal docket for next week's circuit court—only four or five cases so far.

Mrs. Daisy Lavier of Woodburn is here visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Baxter.

George W. Brown, the New Era potato man, was transacting business in the county seat, Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. George Hoeye left Tuesday for a short stay at Shepard Springs, Wash.

Girls' trimmed hats, 49c, 65c, 95c; Ladies' $1.69, $1.85. Thomson's Bargain Store. The busy corner, Sixth and Main.

Mrs. A. P. Schuck and daughter Dorothy of Tacoma, Wash., are in Oregon City, visiting their sister and aunt, Mrs. Harry M. Shaw.

Mrs. Arthur Peressie and child, and her brother, George Cox, left Monday night for a two months' visit to their old home in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Barlow visited Sunday with their friend, Levi Leon of Union, who is in St. Vincent's hospital at Portland.

Mrs. John P. Keating and children are visiting Mr. Keating at Newberg. They expect to move there in a few weeks to be near Mr. Keating's work.

Mrs. Arthur Howland after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Llewellyn Adams, returned to her home at Grants Pass, Wednesday.

Mrs. Julius Busch of Molalla and Matt Michels of this city left Wednesday morning for Mount Angel to be at the bedside of their sister, who is ill at the convent in that place.

If the weather permits, the Oregon City Woolen Mills and Oregon City Grays will play their first baseball match Sunday afternoon at the Willamette alls baseball grounds. Both teams play fast ball.

Thomas Johns of Kalama, Wash., made a short visit with his brother, W. S. Johns, and family, of Green Point, en route to southern Oregon where he has work as a timber cruiser.

Rev. J. R. Landsborough's mother passed away at Park River, North Dakota, last week. Rev. Landsborough visited his mother there last summer but was unable to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Alonza Wickham sprained her ankle in a very painful manner, Friday. She was coming down Seventh street steps when her ankle turned. Her ankle is still badly swollen and she can not step on her foot.

Friends of Mrs. Edward Smith of Fairfield have received the glad tidings of the birth of a son, Wednesday, April 3. Mrs. Smith was Miss Emma Wade of Canemat before her marriage.

Miss Winnifred Roake, who has been teaching at Cottrell, and her sister Miss Mamie, who has been a trained nurse in the North Pacific Sanitarium at Portland, are home from their work.

Ell Williams of this city received a telegram Tuesday from Carlin, Nevada, announcing the death of his son-in-law, J. L. Honeyman. Mrs. Honeyman, widow of the deceased, is well known in this city, having spent her girlhood days here. Mrs. Williams has been visiting her daughter for several months.

Miss Clara Schoenborn has come from Carna to keep house for her brother, F. B. Schoenborn, who is clerking in the Harris grocery. They are living at J. Q. Adams and Seventh streets.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bullack and daughter Amanda left Wednesday morning for a visit with Mrs. Bullack's sister at Woodburn. Mrs. Bullack will remain for an extended visit but Miss Amanda expects to return in a few days.

Mrs. Eli Maddock, formerly of Oregon City, writes friends here she is very much improved in health since going to Heppner. It had been reported that Mrs. Maddock was ill, and her friends here are glad to hear the report is a mistake.

Eugene's new mayor, J. D. Matlock, took oath of office last night, and surprised council by having Dean Sanderson of the University Divinity school present to invoke divine blessing upon the new councilman and other officers, and their undertakings.

A colony of 100 Dunkard families are locating on a 33,000 acre tract of land near Ashland. They are building a $5,000 church and will erect a bank. Growing of sugar beets will be one of their industries.

Wheatgrowers of Eastern Oregon have placed orders for $25,000 sacks with Portland and San Francisco manufacturers, thus doing away with middlemen's profits.

Fred J. Blakely exhibited at Roseburg, Saturday a gold ingot weighing about 8 pounds and valued at $3500, the monthly clean-up from just the surface dirt at the Sterling mine, in Jackson county.

Oregon's flock of 1,800,000 sheep produced fleeces averaged heavy 8.5 pounds each, or a total of 15,300,000 pounds. But the shrinkage was 70 per cent, bringing the scoured net down to 4,590,000 pounds, at 68 cents per pound, or $3,121,200, as compared with 69 and 55 cents the two years preceding.

An old man named Wright, resident of Roseburg, went insane at Ashland yesterday, pulled a revolver and shot four times at C. H. Williams a traveling man whom he had never seen before. Williams received a flesh wound in the shoulder from one of the shots. Wright is held awaiting a lunacy commission. Wright has heretofore been confined in asylums.

Sixty thousand dollars of government money is available for use on the Willamette river above Portland. It will be used if Portland has her way, and that town bosses such things, in removing snags in the sloughs between Salem and Eugene; none for improvement of river between here and Portland.

The two Clemens brothers and the Wilson boy who were arrested Sunday afternoon by Chief of Police Burns for exceeding the speed limit failed to appear before City Recorder Dimick Monday afternoon and forfeited their bail. The boys were intoxicated and were driving a horse at a furious rate on Main street when arrested. Relatives appeared and the boys were released on five dollars bail each.

A crowded house greeted the Mount Hood illustrated lecture given by Rev. A. J. Montgomery in the Presbyterian church, Tuesday evening. Rev. Montgomery is a lover of Mount Hood and makes frequent visits there, his lecture showed this plainly, and he imparted a great deal of enthusiasm on the subject to his audience. Rev. and Mrs. Montgomery were guests of friends here Tuesday, where he was pastor for eight years before going to the Third Presbyterian church of Portland.

Mrs. Kelly's Birthday. A happy family gathering in honor of Mrs. E. D. Kelly's 76th birthday anniversary was celebrated at the home of her daughter and son-in-law Chief of Police Burns, at Green Point, Sunday, April 7. Four generations of the family were present and nothing could have pleased Mrs. Kelly so much as having her loved ones with her that day. Miss Lucy Ann Waterous daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Waterous and Mr. E. D. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly, were married in Geneseo county, Michigan, February 5, 1852. They crossed the plains together twice, first in 1853 and again in 1859. In all their married existence Mr. and Mrs. Kelly have never been separated for longer than a month. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly lived for over forty years on Main street first down this side of the post office. Five years ago Mrs. Kelly had a very severe illness and they moved to their daughter's home. Although Mrs. Kelly is a frail little woman, she is very happy and bright in her home. Those to enjoy the day Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Burns, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Burns, Jr., Mr. Leighton Kelly, Miss May Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Eber A. Chapman, Miss Jessie Washburn, Dr. V. G. Ice. Two great grandchildren, Lucelle and Orville Burns children of Charles Burns, Jr.

Eagles.

G. B. Dimick, H. L. Farmer, A. M. Sinnott, E. L. Shw and J. C. Spaglio, the committee on arrangement for the Eagle's annual ball to be given April 27, met Tuesday evening and appointed the following committees: Floor, Al Price, Lake A. May, George Simmons, Chas. E. Burns, Jr., and Thos. Murphy; reception, Dr. W. E. Carl, Linn E. Jones, A. M. Sinnott and E. L. Shaw; invitation, Dr. H. S. Mount, E. V. Nelson, H. L. Farmer, Sam Stow, P. S. Finucane and R. L. Greaves; refreshments, W. A. Dimick, L. O. Moore, Dr. E. A. Sommers, A. Knapp and W. E. Wilson; decoration, Bruce Zumwalt, Ed. Olds, Frank Oswald and D. M. Klomsen.

In Honor of the Barry Family.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Baker Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. J. L. Barry and family, who leave Wednesday evening for Oregon, Wisconsin to make that city their future home. The evening was spent in rendering of musical selections and playing several popular card games. At a late hour tempting refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames F. S. Baker and J. L. Barry, Miss Frances Muenich, Bertha Barry, Veta Kelly and Charlotte, Julia and Harriet Baker; Messrs. F. S. Baker, Leo Burdon, Adam Endres and Lewis, Charles and John Barry.

87th Anniversary.

The home of John R. Dickerson at Maple Lane was the scene of a pleasant birthday party Tuesday, in celebration of his mother, Mrs. John Dickerson's 87th birthday anniversary. Four generations of the family were present and a most delightful day was spent by all. A sumptuous dinner was served. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dickerson, Mrs. H. Turner, Mrs. J. E. Painter, Mrs. Burkhardt, Misses Nellie and Birdie Dickerson and Roy Furguson.

The Way to Spot Him.

A fellow who is employed on a ranch in the vicinity of Prineville, says the Review, sent to a mail order house last fall for his winter supply of clothes. The mail order house got his money O. K., but sent him only about half of what he ordered. He has been all winter trying to get the rest of what he paid for, and he will probably receive it before the spring is over. If you see a fellow wearing a winter outfit this coming summer you just spot him as being the man.

Foresters of America.

About 50 members of Court Robin Hood went to Portland in a special car Tuesday night to the grand rally. They report a grand time. The parade was more than a mile long and Arlon hall, where 75 candidates were initiated, was crowded to its capacity. The reception to the grand officers and banquet was held in Foresters hall.

Mountain Road School.

The pupils of the Mountain Road school are going to give an entertainment Saturday evening, April 20. The program will consist of recitations, dialogues, tableaux, singing, etc. After the program there will be a cotillion social. Ladies are asked to bring lunch for two and all are cordially invited.

FOR SALE.

The Kidder property at Mt. Pleasant has been divided into three tracts to sell quick. The west 13 acres with buildings and choice orchard, if taken this week, at $2400. The 6 acres in the southeast corner at $700, the other 6 acres at $500. A beautiful place and good neighborhood. Four room school house about half mile. Two miles from court house; good road. Call at property. Mrs. G. W. Kidder.

Treasurer's Notice.

I now have money to pay county warrants endorsed prior to August 1, 1906. Interest will cease on such warrants on date of notice. April 12, 1907.

J. C. PADDOCK, County Treasurer.

SCHWITZER ESTATE.

The estate of Jacob Schwitzer has been admitted to probate and Albert Eynan appointed, administrator. The estimated value of the estate is $1350.

TIPSY SAILOR IN HER BED.

New York Flat Dweller, Returning Home, Receives a Shock.

Joseph Brusco, good natured and underplanned with a pair of rolling sea legs that seldom carry him into mischief, came ashore at New York from the Savannah blue steamer, on which he is employed. That's about all he remembered the next morning when he woke up and later found himself arraigned in the Jefferson Market court. Opposite him on the bridge, looking very angry and indignant, was a pretty little woman, who was telling Magistrate Steinert that she had found Brusco in a bed in her flat and wanted him punished as much as the law allowed.

Brusco kept pinching himself while she was telling the story to see if he was really awake or asleep. He was awake, he discovered later. Mrs. Fanuie Nicarzo of 426 West Twenty-fourth street told the court how she had left her flat for a moment to go around the corner on an errand.

"GIT OUTER HERE! I'M THE CAP OF THIS SHIP!"

"When I came back, your honor, I found the door of my flat open, and this sailor, whom I had never seen before, was seemingly happily asleep on my best bed. When I went in he opened his eyes, yelled at me and asked why I didn't knock.

"Git outer here! I'm the cap of this ship!" he said. I almost fainted, but I managed to run out and find a policeman. The fellow was snoring, actually snoring, when I went in."

Policeman Hecker, who arrested Brusco on the charge of disorderly conduct, told the court how the little woman had come running up to him and begged him to come and arrest a man in her house.

To all of this Brusco listened with surprise. "I guess I must have stowed in the wrong berth, captain—I mean your honor," said the sailor. "I don't remember nothin' about it or of ever seein' this lady before. I had a few drinks, you see. But if she says it's so, why, how could I contradict a lady? I'm sorry, but I must have sailed into the wrong bunk. 'Scuse me, lady."

He was fined $5 and costs. He paid it and went away, still cudgeling his cranium, but rejoicing that he had some of his money left.

SPOOK SUES SPIRITUALIST.

Mrs. Strickland Says She Was a Ghost at $12 a Week.

With a view of bringing suit against the "Rev." Hugh R. Moore of 120 West Thirteenth street, New York city, Mrs. Harriet E. Strickland of 520 East Twenty-fourth street, Flatbush, has placed all necessary data in the hands of a lawyer in an attempt to recover $25,000 damages for alleged defamation of character.

Mr. Moore is head of the First Church of Progressive Spiritualists and gives seances and holds services each Sunday at the Berkeley Lyceum. Mrs. Strickland alleges that she has been in his employ for more than a year as a spirit at a salary of $12 a week. Besides herself there were eight or nine others who acted as spirits. The names and addresses of these persons Mrs. Strickland gave to her attorney.

Mrs. Strickland promises sensational exposures when the suit comes up for trial.

Had a Pin in Her Forty Years.

Forty years ago Mrs. E. L. Spurling of Ottumwa, Ia., swallowed a pin. A few days ago she felt an itching sensation in her left ankle. On investigation the head of the pin was discovered and the offender extracted. Mrs. Spurling was formerly Mrs. George Hayes of Bloomington, Ill. She had been married but a short time when Lincoln's second call for volunteers came. Her husband enlisted, and six months later he died in service. The young widow and mother set bravely to work at the dressmaking trade in order to earn a livelihood. It was while working at this trade that she swallowed the pin.

Baby Likes Pipe More Than Candy.

A twenty-months-old boy who smokes a pipe and prefers it to candy is the singular trait developed by Lloyd Wickett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wickett of 51 Dover street, Brockton, Mass. Just how the appetite for tobacco was developed by the boy is not quite clear to the family or friends. Mr. Wickett is an ice man employed by the Flagg Coke and Ice company.

LADIES UNDERWEAR
Best of Muslins, Cambric and Nainsook made up into dainty undergarments, corset covers, gowns, skirts and drawers, well made, cut full, trimmed with laces and embroideries—some are plain with narrow tucking. A big display, prices ranging from 29c to $2 garment.

Ladies Wash Suits - Waists
Well made Waists of linens and lawns—some in all-over lace over silks—others in plaid and fancy silks. 65c to $6.00. Suits of Duck, lawns and Swiss, well trimmed and properly made. $2.00 to $6.00.

LADIES NECKWEAR
In abundance. Pretty effects in lace and applique with spangle trimmings. Fancy Turnovers and Embroidery collars. Ribbon effects, etc. 15c to $1.50

Headquarters for Laces and Embroideries
Loads of Laces and Insertions. Embroidery of every sort imaginable from the fairy edge to the heaven. All properly priced.

L. Adams
OREGON CITY'S BUSIEST STORE

SCHOOL REPORT OF WEST OREGON CITY
School Report of West Oregon City schools, for the month ending April 5, 1907:
First Primary—Enrollment for the month, 27; days absent, 42; times tardy, 1; neither absent nor tardy, 3. Mrs. Grace Chapman, teacher.
Second Primary—Enrollment for the month, 25; days absent 43 1-2; times tardy, 1; neither absent nor tardy, 11. Albina Thibert, teacher.
Intermediate—Enrollment for the month, 16; days absent, 34 1-2; times tardy, 1; neither absent nor tardy, 4. Jessie Bianck, teacher.
Bolton—Enrollment for the month, 30; days absent, 72; times tardy, 3; neither absent nor tardy, 9. Clara Koerner, teacher.
Advanced—Enrollment for month, 15; days absent, 39; times tardy, 0; neither absent nor tardy, 5.
Arbor Day will be observed by appropriate exercises beginning at 1 p. m., on Friday, April 12, at the large school building. Also, written work of pupils will be displayed. Parents and others interested are especially invited to attend.
T. P. KENDALL, Prin.
Cured of Rheumatism.
Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by Howell & Jones.