A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by Howell & Jones.

SOCIAL DOINGS

Woman's Club.

The members of the Oregon City Woman's club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Leslie L. Porter Wednesday afternoon. Clarence Oakley gave a short talk to the club, advocating their taking up the circulating library question. He said it was not necessary to wait for the town to do any thing, get a room and a few books, that was the way other towns had started the free library.

Miss Draper's program included the following numbers: Bach—St. Seans; Gavotte—d minor; Chopin—Berceuse; Wagner—Brassin; Magic Fire Scene from Die Walkure; Valkman—Waltz, b flat.

JERGME DELIVERS TERRIBLE PAILIPPIC

"But when this defendant is presented to you as the supposed avenger of American womanhood, of American virtue, a champion who has lain dormant for three years until he becomes in some way exalted, he does not come within a classification of dementia Americana. He killed for a motive, and, when you are asked to acquit such a man, you are asked to give something which you have not the power to bestow.

"The real question here is whether New York city is to become a mining camp. If this sort of thing can go on, if the only thing between a citizen and his enemy is a brain storm, then every man had better pack a gun.

"Mr. Delmas appealed to the Scriptures. Let me too, direct your attention to what the Lord said:

"Vengeance is mine, I shall repay." "Let me also remind you of the great fundamental law sounded down the ages, the commandment of God: "Thou shalt not kill."

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affects the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. By Howell & Jones, druggists. 50c.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered.
