

SOCIAL DOINGS

Wilson-Myers.

Miss Imogene Candace Myers and J. W. Wilson of Toledo, Oregon, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. E. Myers of Mount Pleasant, Thursday, April 18, at 3 p. m. Rev. R. C. Blackwell officiated in the presence of a number of relatives and friends, among them Mrs. James Burdette of Salem, sister of the bride; Mr. Smith, an uncle of The Dalles, and Mr. Wilson's mother and sisters from Toledo. Miss Myers has been a successful teacher in the county schools and is a graduate of the Oregon City high school. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson leave on the 5 o'clock train for Toledo, where Mr. Wilson is principal of the schools.

Wedding Invitations.

Oregon City friends and relatives of Miss Grace Baird of Portland have received invitations to her marriage to Mr. Bruce Macdonald of Michigan. The ceremony will be solemnized in the First Baptist church of Portland, April 29.

Mrs. A. S. Dresser of Oregon City is a sister of Miss Baird and she has a host of friends and acquaintances here, where her people resided for many years. Miss Baird has been a teacher in the Portland high school the last four or five years. Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald will reside in Michigan, where Mr. Macdonald is in business.

Marriage Licenses.

A marriage license was issued late Wednesday evening by the county clerk to Leona C. Bear and George A. Lewis. The couple were married immediately afterwards by County Judge Dimick.

County Clerk Greenman issued a marriage license Wednesday afternoon to Mary Manning and George H. Crook.

Out of Sight.

"Out of Sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by Howell & Jones, druggists. 25c.

Duane C. Ely went over to Tualatin, Sunday, expecting Mrs. Ely to be able to return with him, but she is not well enough to come for another week.

Nedwill-Brown.

Miss Retha Emily Brown of Oregon City and Mr. Edward Nedwill of Portland, will be married at the St. Paul Episcopal church of Oregon City, Thursday morning, April 18, at half past ten o'clock, by the rector, Rev. P. K. Hammond. After the ceremony, an elaborate wedding dinner will be given the happy couple at the bride's home, four miles west of Oregon City. They will reside at Albina, where Mr. Nedwill is in business.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Howell & Jones, druggists. 50c.

REDLAND ITEMS.

Mrs. L. Senn has been quite ill, but is somewhat better now. Mr. and Mrs. Morrell and family of Indiana have been visiting their cousin, Mrs. Davis. They expect to make their home in Oregon. Most of the Redland people attended church at Viola, Sunday. Mr. Hooper and family have just arrived from Alberta, Canada. They had been detained on account of the severe winter there.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found It at Last.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongle, Rootville, Pa. For sale by Howell & Jones.

Breakfast Coffee Cake.

Take a piece of bread dough and add one-half cupful of sugar and a tablespoonful of melted butter; then roll out an inch thick and put on a greased pie pan, brush the top with melted butter and cover thick with cinnamon and sugar, let it rise and bake quick. Cut in long, narrow strips to serve. Eat hot or cold. It is also made Saturday with the other baking to use Sunday morning for breakfast.

FORCED SACRIFICE OF A LARGE STOCK OF NEW AND SPLENDIDLY SELECTED MERCHANDISE.

"The best laid schemes o' mice an' men gang aft a-gley; an' lea'e us naught but grief and pain for promised joy." So sang Bobbie Burns, more than a century ago—and the same sad condition exists today. Plan as we will, the culmination of our planning is in the hands of a Divine Providence. A few short weeks ago Messrs. Goldstein & Levitt came to Oregon City and "bought out" the store of Mr. Rosenstein. They immediately set to work along strenuous lines to sell out all the goods then in the store, removing much of it in bulk to other towns and disposing of it at a sacrifice. They started at once to rebuild and improve the old store, making alterations throughout. Hardly a vestige of the former store's appearance remained, and NONE of the former stock. From the dingy chrysalis of the old store emerged a new, modern and down-to-date "Toggerly Shop" for men—THE FINEST CLOTHING, SHOE, HAT and FURNISHING STORE IN OREGON CITY!

NEW GOODS WERE BOUGHT—AND THE STORE WAS STOCKED FROM TOP TO BOTTOM WITH THE NEWEST, BRIGHTEST, MOST FASHIONABLE MERCHANDISE OBTAINABLE IN THE FOREMOST MARKETS OF THE WORLD!

Not a dollar's worth of old goods remained. All new, smart apparel for critical and genteel dressers' Spring and Summer wearing. Everything was ready for the GRAND SPRING OPENING—Stocks complete, store in bright and gladsome readiness when—like a thunderbolt from Jove the hand of death descended and struck down, in the vigor of full manhood, in the prime of life and full enjoyment of well-earned prosperity, the senior member of the firm—Mr. I. GOLDSTEIN, who passed to the reward of his faithful labors on Sunday, April 7—His last request was for a prompt settlement of his estate, and to this end the Court has appointed as ADMINISTRATOR, MR. M. BARDE, of Portland, Ore. Mr. Barde has taken charge and will close out the stock in the store at once, for the benefit of the heirs. AT LESS THAN ACTUAL COST AT THE FACTORIES! SALE OPENS SATURDAY, APR. 20TH.

Men never before had such chance to buy clothes for so little! Bear in mind, all the newest, most fashionable merchandise in the market—and at really less than Goldstein & Levitt paid for it in market ONE MONTH AGO.

Do Not Send East For Talking Machines or Graphophones..

Occasionally persons desiring to purchase a Talking Machine or a Graphophone conclude that they can secure a machine at a lower price at Portland or by sending east.

This is certainly a mistake as the Victor Co., The Edison Co., and the Columbia Co., bind all of their dealers by the same cast iron contract to sell only at the prices fixed by the factory and any agent doing otherwise is promptly suspended.

When you purchase out of town you are simply out the express, freight or car fare.

Buy from your local dealer who is here to stay and makes good all guarantees.

We carry all makes and have a very large stock of machines and both Victor and Edison records.

April records are in, come and hear them. We repair Talking Machines and Graphophones.
