DUANE ELY ARRIVES IN NICK OF TIME

Duane C. Ely had a little excitement in his general merchandise store on Seventh street, early Saturday morning. A little fire smoldered all night in the ash box back of the stove where it is supposed a cigar stub had been dropped. Mr. Ely woke up this morning about two o'clock, and smelling smoke he began getting ready to go down stairs, but hearing people passing on the street he decided if there was anything wrong he would have been called so went back to bed.

When Mr. Ely opened the store at six o'clock this morning, the room was full of smoke and everything covered with ashes. The ash box was almost consumed and there was a hole in the floor two feet square and a fire still smoldering. The draft that came up through the floor helped in keeping it going and also in distributing the ashes. Mr. Ely thinks he appeared on the scene in the nick of time.

POSTOFFICE NOW NAMED OAK GROVE

The name of Creighton postoffice has been changed to Oak Grove in compliance with the wishes of the people of that booming town.

The Oak Grove improvement association took up the matter of change of name, and that it accomplished its purpose so soon proves it is a body that "does things", for it is no easy matter to get the high and mighty postoffice moguls at Washington to change the name of an office. It ought to be comparatively easy now to have the O. W. P. discontinue the use of "Center" station and call all its stops in the town Oak Grove, North Oak Grove or South Oak Grove.

Davenport's Arabian.

Homer Davenport's Arabian stallion, Nejdran, which Lieutenant McCabe will ride across the continent, is now at Sheridan. The start will be made from Silverton on May 1. Nejdran is 12 years old and is fourteen hands two inches high. He was played in the international polo matches in England in 1904 and brought to this country in the autumn of that year and exhibited at the Lewis & Clark Exposition at Portland, in 1905. The animal has been pronounced "perfect" by such horsemen as "Tom" Matlock of Oregon, and Dr. McGinnis of Kentucky.

CASCADE LAUNDRY SOLD.

J. E. Winegar, who recently bought out the interest of his partner, D. C. Heistand, in the Cascade laundry, has sold the entire business to E. L. Blakeslee of Corvallis, who will assume possession April 27. Mr. Blakeslee will move his family to Oregon City.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

From the Chicago Tribune. "Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by Howell & Jones

Pupils Surprise Teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Godfrey were pleasantly surprised at their home Friday evening by twenty-seven of Mrs. Godfrey's pupils. The evening was delightfully spent with music and games till a late hour when ice cream and cake were served. Those present unanimously declare that this was the most pleasant party of the year. The following is a list of those present: Misses Winnie Jackson, Mary Scott, Edna Kinney, Charlee Zumwalt, Hazel Gunther, Grayce Zinser, Myrtle Cross, Bertha Wourms, Olga McClure, Reita Carothers, Hazel Francis, Blanche Kendall, Clara Mitchell, Genevieve Capen, Alice Goettling, Bessie Reynolds, Helen Wilcox, Sedonia Shaw and Veda Elliott; Messrs. Lionel Gordon, Alie Grout, Carl Schram, Chester Carothers, Gaylord G. Godfrey, Harold Waldron, Harold Swafford and Frank Fuge.

SENTIMENT WAS NOT FOR APPROPRIATION

CORRESPONDENT SAYS GRANGERS' SILENCE DID NOT MEAN APPROVAL.

Logan, April 18.—(Editor Star):—If you will allow me space, I think that I can prove the correctness of my statement in regard to the "sentiment" of the grange here at Logan April 10. I said your correspondent or informant was badly mistaken and I meant it. Being a member and being present, I heard what was said. Again, I say it is unfair to say the sentiment of the grange was nearly unanimous, when only three people out of a crowd of 125 or 130 people got up and expressed themselves in favor of the appropriations. Two of those men were Professor Campbell and W. S. U'Ren. I cannot understand why Mr. U'Ren would say it was "nearly unanimous." The present master of this grange and the past master both share my view, and say it is incorrect to quote the grange in that way. I never have misrepresented any facts, and always in reporting from here, try to state facts and truth as well. Every one who attended the meeting knows that statement was erroneous. That resolution spoken of was tabled.

The old motto: "God helps those who help themselves," has perhaps sank deeper into some people's craniums than others, and farmers are beginning to realize some of the educational needs of their sons and daughters. The country school is good as far as it goes, but it ends at the eighth grade. Now suppose children get through those grades at 15 years, they cannot go and enter a high school or college without taking a preparatory course or complete the other courses, and the proper place to do that is in the home schools. Home is the place for boys and girls to board and attend school at that susceptible age, and not be sent away somewhere to do it. The grange is an educator itself, and stands first, last and always for the cause of education.

There are so many numerous little strings, known as red tape however that can be dispensed with. If farmers have to bear their burden of taxation let some of it be for schools that will benefit their own children nearer home. We can dispense with a few Normals and add a few more grades to the schools we have, and try to make them better. Too much is said of the "higher" education and not enough for the intermediate for the masses. Better to give all a chance for an ordinary education than only a few for the highest. No ill feeling has been heard expressed toward the state university and no action whatever was taken at the Pomona meeting. Petitions however are now being circulated which will show the people's sentiments on these questions. Yours truthfully, LOGAN CORRESPONDENT.

Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by Howell & Jones.

FATHERS WORKING; CHILDREN LEARNING

Half the Pupils in Wilsonville School Children of Laborers on Bridges.

Mr. Stephens is again able to be at work.

Six new tents went up here on the construction work, and with each new home comes more tots to fill up our school. Over half the pupils are children of men employed on the bridge work.

Obituary.

Died, at his home in Wilsonville, Joseph Stangle in his fifty-third year. He leaves a widow, four sons and three daughters. The family were all present at the death, one daughter having recently come from Illinois, their former home. Mr. Stangle with his family bought and moved onto the Toose farm here three years ago last fall and although not long with us had gained the respect and honor of all whom he had met as a friend and neighbor. Death called father, friend and neighbor, Friday, Funeral from St. Johns church and burial in the Catholic cemetery at Oregon City, Monday, Rev. Father Hillebrand officiating.

PROCEEDINGS OF CIRCUIT COURT

E. H. Billings was granted a divorce from Kate Billings, but the defendant is given the custody of their five year old daughter Bernice, and plaintiff is to pay $25 a month for the support of the child.

Lucy May Fessler was given a divorce from C. A. Fessler and permitted to resume her maiden name, Lucy May Grubbs. Default orders were entered in the cases of O. B. Williams vs. Nettie Williams, and May Shea vs. Daniel Shea.

Suit on Notes.

Emily McCown, administratrix of the estate of Charles W. McCown has brought suit against John A. Noblett, on two notes, one dated September 19, 1906, for $200, due in 90 days, the other dated the same for $50, due in one month. Principal and interest at 6 per cent is asked for.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by Howell & Jones.

CLACKAMAS CATTLE SUPERIOR TO CORN-FED

R. Petzold, the butcher, is jubilant over a bunch of 49 head of fine cattle he bought down in the Molalla country last week. They are all stall-fed and Mr. Petzold says they excel any lot of Eastern corn-fed cattle he ever saw and speaks in greatest praise of Clackamas county as a producer of live stock. The meat, which Mr. Petzold is now cutting on the block in his market, is of the finest grain and all of it would come under the designation for the best of beef—"choice prime."

Mr. Petzold bought 29 head of the cattle from Shaver Brothers and the other ten at the old Shaver ranch. The farmers added between $2500 and $2700 to their cash accounts from the sale.

Whooping Cough.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family in cases of whooping cough, and want to tell you that it is the best medicine I have ever used.—W. F. Gaston, Posco, Ga. This remedy is safe and sure. For sale by Howell & Jones.

SALOON LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given that I will apply to the council of Oregon City at its next regular meeting for a renewal of my liquor license for a period of six months at my present place of business, Main and Eighth streets, Oregon City.

CODLIN MOTH IS WORST OF PESTS

The government reports show the codlin moth to be the worst and most fatal pest in the United States, and it is declared to be by far the most destructive in the Willamette valley, facts which should stimulate the orchardists to action. The codlin moth always attacks the fruit at the calix and thus bores its way to the heart of the apple or other fruit. Spraying is done as soon as the petals begin to fall from the blossoms, while the calix remains open and by using a strong sprayer at close range the poison is injected into the calix. Immediately after the petals have fallen the calix closes and a sufficient quantity of the poison spray is thus retained and sealed up in the calix or cup, to kill not only the codlin moth but any other worm that attempts to bore to the heart of the fruit.

Later, when the fruit is of larger growth, spraying is again resorted to in order to kill all outside pests, which gives the apple or whatever it may be a chance to mature without blemish.

It should be borne in mind that the first spraying must be done when the petals begin to fall and the calix is still open, in order that the poison may penetrate and be retained in the cup when it closes. This is the secret of successful spraying and everyone with trees to attend should give attention.

The most approved spray as recommended by the national and state authorities is published by Prof. A. B. Cordley of the Oregon Agricultural college:

Arsenate of Lead.

Arsenate of soda . . . . . 4 ounces Acetate of lead . . . . . 11 ounces Water . . . . . 15 to 20 gallons

Dissolve the arsenate of soda in two quarts and acetate of lead in four quarts of warm water. When dissolved add them to the required amount of water. This formula is especially valuable for spraying very delicate foliage or for use against insects which are killed only by large amounts of poison, since it can be used upon plants in much stronger solutions than the other food poisons without injury to the foliage. Results for the last two years show this to be among the best if not the very best, of the remedies now used for the codlin moth. For the first spraying, soon after the petals fall, Prof. Cordley recommends use of Paris green, but for the later applications, the arsenate of lead. Last season one spraying with Paris green followed by four applications of arsenate of lead gave 98 per cent of apples free from worms. On check trees not sprayed approximately 40 per cent of the fruit was wormy.

Honor of Dr. and Mrs. Sommer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce C. Curry entertained very delightfully at their home on Washington street, Friday evening, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sommer. The rooms were artistically decorated with spring flowers and festoons of ivy. The game of bridge whist was the main feature of the evening, at which the first prizes were won by E. A. Chapman and Miss Augusta Humphrys. Punch was passed during the evening and at 12 o'clock a delicious luncheon served. Mrs. Curry was assisted in serving by Miss Harriett Cochran. Present (were): Messrs. and Mesdames E. A. Sommer, T. A. McBride, John Adams, C. D. Latourette, E. P. Randa, T. F. Ryan, A. L. Beatie, F. T. Griffith, Linn E. Jones, E. A. Chapman, L. L. Pickens, Mrs. J. P. Keating, Misses Harriet Cochran, Augusta Humphrys.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Howell & Jones, druggists, 50c.

Miss Berthena Howard of Carus is in Oregon City this week having some dental work done.

S. P. PROVIDES NO LOADING FACILITIES

STATE RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS GIVEN RUDE SHOCK IN OREGON CITY.

State Railroad Commissioners Atcheson and Campbell were in Oregon City Monday to inspect the facilities provided by the Southern Pacific railroad for loading or unloading lumber.

The commissioners were greatly surprised to learn there were absolutely no facilities provided.

From their side remarks it is likely the S. P. will hear something drop in regard to its shabby treatment of the shippers at this point.

The commissioners came in response to a complaint by the lumber mills here.

The Imported German Coach Stallion PFIEL 1671

A beautiful bay, 16 hands high weighs 1545 pounds, splendid coach action, that was admired so much at the Lewis and Clark Show, where he stood third in a class of Coach stallions that could not be beaten on either continent. Pfiel won first prize and championship at the Oregon State Fair in 1904, and is considered by good judges to be the highest class coach stallion in the state. His colts are uniformly good, and out of trotting bred mares they look like pure bred coaches. Will make the season of 1907 as follows: Monday at Hubbard; Tuesday at J. N. McKay's; Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Oregon City. Terms $20 to insure with foal. J. N. McKay, Owner, J. D. Rainey, Keeper. R. F. D. No. 1—Woodburn, Oregon.
