

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas.

Lloyd R. Flagg, Plaintiff,
vs.
Allise Flagg, Defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon: You, Allise Flagg, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you herein on or before Tuesday, the 18th day of June, 1907, that day being six weeks from the first publication of the summons herein, and if you fail to appear and answer herein, plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the complaint on file herein, to which reference is hereby made, and more particularly as follows: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant on the ground of defendant's willful desertion of the plaintiff for the period of more than one year, continuously, immediately prior to the commencement of this action, and for such other or further relief as may be equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof for not less than six successive weeks in the "Oregon City Enterprise," published in the County of Clackamas, State of Oregon, and by order of the Honorable Thomas A. McBride, Judge of the above entitled Court, which order is dated the 17th day of April, 1907.

The date of the first publication of this summons is Friday, the 26th day of April, 1907, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Friday, the 7th day of June, 1907.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas.

Dyale A. D. Knotts, Plaintiff,
vs.
Wm. B. Knotts, Defendant.

To Wm. B. Knotts, defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 8th day of June, 1907, that being the time fixed by the court for you to appear and answer herein and six weeks from the first day of publication of summons and if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in her complaint, to-wit: For a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant herein, awarding plaintiff the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Harvey Edward Knotts and Lola Anna Knotts, and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet and proper.

This summons is published pursuant to order of Hon. T. A. McBride, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered therein on the 24th day of April, 1907, which order directs the publication of this summons not less than once a week for six weeks prior to the 8th day of June, 1907. The date of the first publication of this summons is April 26, 1907, and of the last publication of this summons June 7, 1907.

Oregon City were in Estacada, Sunday.

W. H. Bonney has sold the telephone line running through here to the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone company. The line is over a mile in length, and if additional subscribers are secured, as is contemplated, it will prove a valuable addition to the mutual or home phone system.

Mrs. K. Bohall who has been ill for some time, was worse Sunday and her daughter Miss Myrtle, who is a nurse in the Portland Sanitarium, was called home. Miss Bohall will give up her work for awhile and will remain in Oregon City for two or three months.

G. A. Brown is building a new barn on his home place at Maple Lane. The barn is 40 feet in size and octagonal in shape. Mr. Brown had to give up his carpenter work at Portland because of illness in his home, his wife's mother who makes her home with them, having been an invalid for many years. He will work nearer home.

George Bigham was thrown from a colt he was breaking, Sunday, and although his injuries are not thought to be serious, he was pretty badly hurt. He was thrown against a telephone pole in the feed yard, but fortunately instead of striking it hard, was rather wrapped around it. The colt stepped on the calf of his leg and his knee was somewhat injured.

The equipment of the county clerk's office at the court house will be much improved by the addition of five new file cases and a record carrier. The vault space has become very inadequate of late, so the improvements were ordered. The cases arrived Friday morning and will be installed immediately. The county clerk has transacted a large amount of legal business this spring.

Rev. E. Clarence Oakley, Sunday morning, preached the first of a series of four or five sermons on the parables. He gave an explanation of the workers in the vineyard, a salient feature of which he said was the willingness for work shown by all the laborers whether hired at the beginning of the day or at the eleventh hour. It is the will that God values, not the deed, and that makes clear the passage that has puzzled so many—"The last shall be first and the first last." In the evening, Rev. Oakley preached the concluding sermon in the "anatomy" series, his subject being "The Tongue."

The Mt. Pleasant Improvement club is the commonplace appellation that probably will be used to designate both the name and the object of an enthusiastic organization that held its first meeting in the Mt. Pleasant school hall, Friday evening, and elected the following officers: F. R. Andrews, president; S. T. Roman, secretary; Mrs. Olive Warner, treasurer.

The mission of the club is to clean up and beautify the streets, surroundings and public park of that slightly suburb, and to this end the following committee was named to collaborate with the club officers and report suitable plans at the next meeting, Tuesday, April 30: Mrs. Bert Clark, Miss Emma Roman, Mrs. Anna M. Andrews, A. C. Warner and W. C. Buckner.

ALL PAY THEIR FINES.

The young men of Wilsonville, who were arrested for throwing eggs at another man, pleaded guilty in the justice court Saturday and were fined $10 each. One of the number, Jean Royle, failed to appear in the court, an dit is thought that he will be arrested again and tried.

Ed. Himler, the fisherman who was convicted of fishing illegally on the night of April 14, paid his fine of $50 to Justice Livy Stipp Monday morning instead of appealing the case to the circuit court as it was at first stated he would. The case could not have been heard at this term of court, and Himler paid the fine in preference to waiting until the next term.

W. H. Roberts pleaded guilty in the circuit court, Friday, to burglary and was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.

Roberts is one of the two men accused of breaking into Wilson & Cooke's hardware store about six weeks ago and making away with knives, razors and scissors worth a couple of hundred dollars. Their dramatic capture by Gallagher Bowers is also fresh in the public mind.

Roberts was taken over to the city prison and sweated by police a day or so after his capture, and confessed to his part in the robbery. He seems quite repentant and will probably be more so by the time he works in the state stove foundry for two years. Sheriff Beatie will probably take him to Salem tonight.

Dillon, the other man charged with the same crime, maintains he had no hand in the burglary. He is the individual, however, who bargained to sell the loot to Gallagher Bowers. Dillon's trial is set for May 8.

BUYS TEN ACRES.

SOCIAL AND LODGES

Forsberg-Donovan.

A brilliant social event was the wedding of Miss Josephine Leona Donovan and Mr. John R. Forsberg which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Donovan, 212 Jefferson street, at eight o'clock Thursday evening.

The rooms were profusely decorated in white and purple lilacs, artistically arranged with quantities of Oregon grape, while at one side of the front parlor a large bouquet of calla lilies stood. The strains of sweet music floated through the rooms during the entire evening and mingling with the fragrance of the flowers made a veritable fairy bower of the home.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the front parlor and stood beneath a floral bell of white lilacs, where the wedding ceremony was pronounced by Rev. R. C. Blackwell of the Methodist Episcopal church. The girlish bride was daintily gowned in white silk with all-over lace waist. She wore a long tulle veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and maidenhair ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Esther Lund of Oswego, was charming in silk organza over white. She carried Marechal Niel roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Harry Stevenson.

After congratulations an elaborate wedding supper was served. The table decorations were of bleeding hearts and ferns. The happy couple left on the ten-thirty car for a visit with friends and relatives in Portland amidst a shower of rice and best wishes of their friends. The bride, who is a beautiful young lady, was attractive and smart in her going-away gown of Alice blue. Upon their return they will be at home at 212 Jefferson street. Many handsome presents will beautify their new home, gifts of admiring friends.

Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames J. Beaulieu, H. Joehneke, F. M. Thompson, Fred Schwartz, Harry Stevenson, A. Simmons; Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Blackwell and daughter Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. U. Hanke and baby Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ingram and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. Jacobson and daughter Theresa, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper and children, Mrs. John Erickson and children, Mrs. Maggie Bruner and daughters Lucy and Etta, Mrs. C. Lunn and daughter Esther, Mrs. Annie Krueger and daughter Hattie, Mesdames Harry Saunders, Jennie Boyles, P. J. Lutz, M. D. Phillips, Minnie Wolfe, Emma Thomas, A. J. Wilson, Elmer Lankin; Misses Velma and Lulu Rittenhouse, Lucy Gill, Ida Nelson, Myrtle Wallace, Jennie and Margaret Wilkinson, Edna Simmons, Minnie Boyles; Messrs. James Mellien, Christopher Schwartz, Herbert Thomas, Fred Metzner, Donald Erickson.

Twentieth Wedding Anniversary.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carothers of Canemah, Thursday evening, when they were happily surprised in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. The surprise was very genuine. Although Mrs. Carothers is usually wise to what is going on in her house she has been fooled once, if it did take some scheming on the part of her daughter and the friends who assisted in getting it up. The wedding ceremony was performed in perhaps not quite so legal and binding a manner as the first time, but with really more gaiety. R. W. Porter was officiating clergyman, Mrs. Julia Frost was maid of honor and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller were bridesmaid and best man, while Mrs. Frances Midlam was the sweet little flower girl. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin, played by Miss Della Young. The bride and groom of twenty years were presented with a beautiful Haviland china cracker jar, W. A. Hedges making an appropriate presentation speech. Music enlivened the festivities throughout the evening and several appreciated solos were rendered by Miss Grayce Maude Marshall and Misses May and Bertha Long. The company in arranging the surprise did not overlook something to eat and a splendid supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Carothers are living in the house where they went to house-keeping after their honey-moon and enjoy the friendship of a host of acquaintances.

The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames R. Blanchard, J. Painter, J. Carothers, J. Miller; Mesdames Frost, Cole, Bowers, Bingham, Flinnigan, Martin, F. Painter, Meade, Fields, Kljensen, Howell, Wray, H. A. Carothers, W. E. Midlam, E. J. Marshall, G. Kinzy; Misses Mayme Long, Bertha Long, Ada and Harriet Frost, Minnie Rakel, Emma Quinn, Grayce Marshall, Verna Meade, Relta Carothers, Naideen Blanchard, Leota Smith, Hazel Cole, Maggie Carothers, Ada Bedwell, Rena May, Louise Kinzy, Lois Maud Painter, Neoma Bowers;

Miss Della Young of University Park; Messrs. Samuel Stevens, W. A. Hedges, Porter, Chester Carothers, Roy Finnigan, Ray Martin, George Martin.

Kitchen and Linen Rush.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Burns were pleasantly surprised at their residence in Green Point last night by a kitchen and linen rush given by the bride's friends. After various games were played, each of the guests in turn gave the bride a recipe for some dish guaranteed to make hubby happy, but if some of the directions were carried out hubby would be happy in the land to come. After the recipes were given, each guest was told to give a plan to restore a tired and hungry husband to good humor, all of the plans provoking much merriment. After the bride had been taught how to run a model house, tempting refreshments were served. At a late hour the party broke up. The newly married couple received many pretty and useful presents. Those present were: Misses Minnie Schatz, Leah Lemmon, Gertrude Wetzler, Nora Hanniffin, Anna Mooney, Anna Schwabaur, Laura Parrish, Nettie Kruse, Clara Nehren, Ethel Green, Levada Freeman, Veta and Genieve Kelly and Lola Surber; Mesdames W. E. Burns, C. W. Kelly, Wetzler, Freeman, John Huether and John Kelly.

Derthick Club.

Mrs. C. G. Miller very pleasantly entertained the members of the Derthick club at her home on Seventh street, Friday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated in purple iris and dog-wood blossoms. Mrs. J. W. Loder read the last few chapters of Laura E. Richards' Melody, closing the book. The reading was followed by a highly entertaining musical program given by Mrs. Walter A. Dimick, whose selections are always enjoyed. The four numbers of her program were: Rubenstein's Cradle Song, Erotix, by Greig, Song of the Brook, Leck, and Alpine Horn, Schirmer. Mrs. Miller served delicious refreshments. Present were: Mesdames J. W. Loder, L. L. Porter, E. A. Sommer, S. O. Dillman, J. F. Clark, W. A. Dimick, H. E. Straight and Miss Mae Stevens. The club will meet May 10th with Miss Muriel Stevens.

Married in Vancouver.

Miss Birdie Miller, well known in this city, and Charles B. Kickard of Portland were married in Vancouver, Thursday afternoon. They will reside in Sellwood where the groom has just completed a new house.

Artisans.
