

MOLALLA.

52 degrees in the shade, Sunday. Mack Haty is recovering from his sick spell. William Bryan is up and out again. Dudley C. Boyles had an operation for appendicitis in Portland, Sunday. J. V. Harless is expected home this week. Supervisor H. N. Everhart is developing a county gravel pit on the north-west corner of Alex Smith's farm. Mutual Telephone line No. 4 has installed the latest "Push the button" and you get your party. Nine-tenths of the noise is cut out. Look out for another assessment in the south Clackamas county bounty club in June.

DOVER.

Mr. Nelson of Marshfield is here getting his house in readiness for his family, who are coming to Dover to spend the summer. Joseph DeShazer's horse kicked him in the breast Saturday night, as he was unloading from the road scraper. He is able to be around and is lucky that he was not hurt worse. Mrs. J. L. Robertson marketed her first installment of chickens, Monday. She runs an incubator. Miss Grace Wolf and Miss Morrison spent the day Sunday with Mrs. Hearst of Firwood. School closed last Friday. The ladies of Dover gave the teacher quite a surprise by appearing as they did just before school closed at noon, with well filled baskets. Talks were made on well-filled baskets. Tables were spread in the school yard and all enjoyed a good dinner, after which all listened to an excellent program. At the close of the exercises C. A. Keith in behalf of the pupils, presented Mr. Emmel with a fountain pen. The school has been very satisfactory to all this term and it was the regret of all that Mr. Emmel had to leave this community. Webster Roberts and Helen Keith were neither absent nor tardy once during the eight months. Mr. Emmel left Saturday morning for his home in Washington county. Grading on the Branson hill is about completed. Bear Creek hill comes next.

KELSO NOTES.

The whistle of a sawmill is a common thing here except when a mill blows the whistle continually for an hour at midnight. Such was the case Friday night at Jonsrud's mill and when the neighbors rushed in to see if it was on fire the engineer thought it time to stop the whistle, which some one had tied to the roof. Friends here were sorry to hear of the untimely death of Mrs. Clarence Stevens of Pleasant Home on Saturday. The news spread that Mrs. Sinclair and Arthur Mason were married last Sunday, so the boys serenaded them early in the week. Alfred Rich sold most of his horses and has gone on his way. Mark Pugh, Joel Jarl, Henry Eri, and B. Nelson all purchased horses from A. Rich. While at work for the Jarl & Pugh mill Monday, Arthur Mason cut a large gash in his foot with an axe, which will lay him off for some time. Miss Dottie Sinclair and a young man from Portland were married here this week. They will make their home in Portland. Mr. Gantenblin of Fairview was in this vicinity buying dairy cows last week. Willie Boshom sold him thirteen head and Joel Jarl five.

STAFFORD.

Even in Stafford there lives a few natural born pessimists who disremember that it ever rained, and feel sure the whole place will dry up and blow away. But we just heard a man say that not for years had his stock looked better, or had his feed in the woods been as good. Henry Toedtemeier, who recently bought a sawing machine and has been rushing with orders for stove wood, was sawing at John DeNem's and oiled the machine while in motion and got the index finger of his left hand in the cogs, taking it off below the first joint. DeNul rushed him off to Dr. Mount who dressed it for him. His brother Louie took his place at the machine. J. O. Gage, who went on a trip for his health to Coos Bay, returned Monday on his way to his home in St. Helens. He went down on the Kell-burn and came back by land by easy stages, stopping off at various places. Mrs. Powell and Mr. Mays were obliged to consult a physician for some affection of the lungs. Mrs. Welsenborn was in town a few days on business.

LOGAN.

Road work is the order of the day. F. Gerber, road boss, has a force of ten teams hauling gravel on the main road. The school picnic given by the low-ber Logan school, Saturday on the bank of the Clackamas at Kirchem's, was of the "made to order", and the crowd was a jolly one. Games, swinging, boat-riding, music and a short program by the school, followed by dinner served in the grove, were the most interesting features. This picnic ground is not marked on the map perhaps and we do not think Columbus ever discovered it, but all who attended said it was an ideal picnic ground. Mrs. Anna Partch was called to Boring Friday night to see her brother's child, who was taken suddenly ill with cerebro spinal meningitis. The family is under quarantine. Reports current say the girl has been unconscious three days. If "country folks" would get wise they will ignore the big Fourth of July celebrations in some cities. Portland tries to keep down the truth about the death rate from spinal meningitis, and trying to boom a celebration for July 4th. Health officers ought to prohibit anything of the sort when such diseases are prevalent. Miss Margaret Rubhoff leaves soon to attend the business college in Portland. Mrs. Moser has been visiting the past week in Portland. Miss Eliza Fallert and Miss Mary Swales made a short visit home Sunday. S. E. Gerber entertained a number of friends at dinner Sunday. He leaves soon for Nome, Alaska.

The saive that acts like a poultice is Pine Salve Carbolized. No other saive so good for cuts, burns, boils and chapped skin. Ask about it. Price 25 cts. Sold by Huntley Bros.

W. D. Brown of Lebanon visited with W. H. Mattoon's, Saturday. Charles Heinbothem spent Sunday at James Selver's. Mr. Hartzell made a trip to Portland last week. J. P. Galeener sold his fine year old mule to an Oregon City man last Saturday. James Selver bought a threshing machine a few days ago. Loren Tenney, Jr., is making a lot of new fence on his farm between here and Estacada. Loren Tenney, Sr., has sold several head of fine milk cows. Mrs. W. D. Brown, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. Mattoon, returned to Lebanon, Monday. C. C. Miller, who has been employed by a sawmill company, in Marion county, is home for a short time. Mr. Jubb is painting Ed Miller's residence. Mr. Ward is preparing to go into the poultry business on a large scale. C. C. Miller is having a fine new woodshed built. Some of our people are planning to attend the dedication services at the M. E. church at Estacada next Sunday.

Thirty days treatment for kidney and bladder trouble sand rheumatism for $1.00. Your money refunded if not satisfied. Pineules contain no alcohol. Do not derange the stomach. Easy to take. Sold by Huntley Bros.

Memorial day! Beautiful was the idea that gave life to the custom we follow today and dear has it become to those who are heavy-laden. Scatter bright flowers upon the mossy graves, the old and the newly made. Remember the brave who in the time of the nation's struggle for existence gave up their lives that those who came after them might breathe the air of freedom. Remember the graves of those they fought as an emblem of forgiveness and a tribute to the gallant hearts that throbbled and the strong arms that were uplifted in another cause. Drop wreaths upon the dust that hides their ashes. Let Memorial Day be a day of tenderness hallowed in the sanctity of unselfish love blest in the purest emotions of the human heart, consecrated to the most ennobling expressions of sympathy.

One year has swept by; how brief does it seem. Like the scenes of a drama, the hours of a dream. Bubble-like it has gone 'mid the stream's hollow roar. To break on the rocks of Eternity's shore. Many new graves in the green sward are made. The roll call is lengthened, the summons obeyed. Brave old boys pass in silence down the line. And place on the marble the emblem divine. The dear old heroes may we ever hold dear. A tender regard and their last moments cheer. For in camp, field and fortress they never forgot. The loved ones at home while nobly they fought.

Gently moves the bowets and at the same time stops the cough. Bea's Laxative Cough Syrup. Contains Honey and Tar. No opiates. Best for Coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Satisfaction guaranteed. Children like it. Mothers indorse it. Sold by Huntley Bros.

Mrs. Ora Hughes of Portland is visiting her parents for a few days. Ada Brock who was visiting in Portland for a couple of weeks, is home. Tom Allen was quite pleasantly Saturday evening when a number of his young friends came to spend the evening with him. The occasion was his eleventh birthday. After playing games, refreshments were served, after which the guests went home, wishing him many more such happy birthdays. E. N. Brock is working on the Springwater telephone line. Mattie Gaskell left Saturday for Seattle where she will keep house for her father.
