DEATH'S DAILY HARVEST

The funeral services of Leota Lolla Burns, the three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns, Jr., were held at 4 o'clock in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Philip K. Hammond officiating. The church was crowded with sympathizing friends of the family. There were a great number of floral designs and bouquets, in fact, more than a wagon load. The Eagles, Knights of Pythias, fire department, O. N. G., and other organizations presented beautiful floral designs. After the funeral services in the church the remains were conveyed to Mountain View cemetery for burial, a large number of carriages going in the procession. The pallbearers were: Walter Kelly, George, John, Earl Burke and Truman Cross. The news of the child's death came as a great shock to the friends of the family. She had been ill with tonsillitis for a time, but was recovering, when Friday afternoon she contracted pneumonia and croup, which resulted in her death Saturday morning. The child was a general favorite in the neighborhood, and Mr. and Mrs. Burns have the sincerest sympathy of the entire community.

Paulson. The youngest daughter, Martha M., of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Paulson of 886 Division street, Portland, died May 28. She had been ill for several months with inflammatory rheumatism, yet no grave fears were entertained concerning her condition, but she was taken suddenly worse and nothing that medical aid could do could aid her. The funeral took place from the family home at George on Thursday, May 30, and she was laid to rest in the family burying ground nearby. Rev. Jerome R. McGlade, D. D., of the Presbyterian church of Portland officiated. Many relatives and friends were present and manifested their deep sympathy for the bereaved family. A father and mother, three brothers and one sister are left to mourn her death. This is the second time within a year that a loved one has been taken, the eldest daughter passing away last September. Mr. and Mrs. Paulson resided in Clackamas county for 33 years. He twice served his county in the state legislature and a wide circle of friends and acquaintances mourn the loss with the family.

Edith Green, the ten-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Green, died at the home of her parents in West Oregon City at 1:30 o'clock Monday morning. The girl had been suffering for some time with brain paralysis, which was the cause of her demise. The funeral will be held from the family residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. J. R. Landsborough officiating.

The funeral services of Edith Green, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Green, were held at the residence in West Oregon City Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Landsborough. A very large number of friends were present to pay their last respects to the departed one. The floral offerings were many and beautiful; several societies presenting beautiful designs. After the services the remains were carried to this side of the river and conveyed to Mountain View cemetery, where they were interred. The pall bearers were Frederick Baker, Hugh Burdon, James McDonald, Charles Freeman, Ernest Mosier and Henry Melvin.

Thomas A. Smith, a well known resident of the West Side, died at 3 o'clock, Tuesday morning, after several years' suffering with tuberculosis. He was 36 years old. He leaves a widow and one child, a sister's child whom he raised, and two brothers, Matthew at Bandon, Ore., and Erastus A. at Arletta. The funeral will be held from the residence Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Gilman Parker conducting the ceremony. The remains will be laid at rest in the family lot in the Clackamas cemetery.

Nancy Ellen Moak, wife of Peter Moak, died at their home in Parkplace Wednesday, in her fifty-first year. Mrs. Moak was taken ill on Sunday with a severe attack of stomach and bowel trouble which resulted in her death. She leaves behind her a husband, seven children, three boys and four girls. The family came to Oregon in 1881. Solo Circle Women of Woodcraft at Oregon City will have charge of the burial services at 1:30 Saturday afternoon.

O. D. Eby of this city received word of the death of Charles Fox at The Dalles, Monday night. Mrs. Eby had just returned from The Dalles, and when she left he was reported as recovering. Mr. Fox is well known in the vicinity of Molalla and Barlow, his father, George B. Fox, having conducted a store there some years ago.

SPRINGWATER 'PHONE FOR OREGON CITY

The Springwater division of the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Co. have their phones in and will be ready to attach to the line coming into Oregon City this week. They are talking among themselves in the neighborhood now.

A. M. Shibley was in Oregon City Thursday, going up from Portland, where he has been all week attending to business matters. Mr. Shibley attended the dedication of the new Methodist church at Estacada, Sunday. The program was all good, he says, but his highest praises are for the splendid dinner prepared by the ladies of the church and the informally social time enjoyed during dinner.
