

SOCIAL AND LODGES

May—Niles.

At "Holly Farm", the beautiful Milwaukee home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Niles, Wednesday evening, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when their daughter, Miss Helen Luella Niles, and Mr. Lake A. May were united in marriage. Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party descended the broad stairway leading to the lawn, while the sweet strains from Lohengrin wedding march played by Mrs. Mildred Ruess Isart, floated through the air. The bride was becomingly attired in a simple white gown and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Miss Estella Niles, sister of the bride, also wore white and carried pink made roses. Mr. Elvin May, brother of the groom, was best man. Proceeding down the rose-strewn path hung with Japanese lanterns, they paused under an arch of roses swung between three fir trees, where Rev. Edward S. Bollinger, of the Highland Congregational church, of Portland, pronounced the impressive ring ceremony, in the presence of forty friends and relatives. A delicious luncheon followed, Miss Alice Tufts, cousin of the bride, presiding over the punch bowl. After a visit of a few days with Portland relatives Mr. and Mrs. May will be at home to their friends in a pretty new home nearing completion at Canemah. Mr. May is employed with the Willamette Pulp and Paper company and is an honest and industrious young man who has chosen for his companion a lady of charming personality.

Tots Jolly Party.

A merry party for the little people was one given in honor of Master Nelson Wisner's third birthday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Pratt, Monday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses, the table for the luncheon, one of the greatest attractions of the afternoon to the small host and his friends, being especially pretty. The table decorations were of red roses and the birthday cake bore three tiny white candles. The place cards were little toys. Many jolly games were played and a little program of songs and recitations gone through as the children sat in a circle on the floor. The were chaperoned by Mrs. J. Nelson, Wiser, Mrs. L. L. Piekens, Mrs. W. E. Lewthwaite, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. N. P. Lang, Mrs. F. T. Griffith, Mrs. C. C. Huntley, Mrs. J. T. McGain, Miss Dollie Pratt and Miss Merle Keek. The guests included Norman and Sally Lang, Harriet and Janet Griffith, Helen and Tom Lovett, Margaret and Ward Hammond, Marian Piekens, Gentry Phillips, Rodney Keating, Margaret Levinger, Alice Lewthwaite, Janette McBain, Mildred Huntley.

Entertains the Teachers.

Miss Marjorie Caulfield very charmingly entertained the teachers of the Barclay and Eastham schools at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Caulfield, in Monroe street, Tuesday evening. Miss Caulfield was formerly a teacher here but is now with the Pendleton schools and two of her fellow teachers there were present, Miss Elizabeth Foley of Pendleton and Miss Grace Miller of Oregon City. The Caulfield home was beautifully decorated in roses. An original and decidedly pretty effect were the roses clustered in the corners of the rooms. The ever popular "500" was the entertainment provided, in which Mrs. Emilie Shaw captured the first prize and Miss Frances Myers second. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Present were Mrs. Viola Godfrey, Mrs. Emilie Shaw and Mrs. Stella Salsbury; Misses Elizabeth Foley, Grace Miller, Irene Carter, Eva Mel-drum, Frances Myers, Nellie Stevens, Alice Shannon, Margaret Goodfellow, Martha Koerner and Marjorie Caulfield.

Fraternal Union of America.

Aurora lodge, No. 465, held a very interesting session Tuesday night and three candidates were initiated into the order: Mrs. M. and Miss Agnes Justin and Leo Schirzinger. State Deputy Supreme Master George Osterander occupied the Fraternal Master's chair, and the degree team of Rose City lodge participated, and in an impressive as well as instructive drill, conferred the degree of Fraternity on the candidates. At the close of the meeting the local lodge tendered a banquet to the visiting members and the Rose City degree team. Music, singing and speeches were the order and nothing occurred to mar the festivities of the evening. An early-date Aurora lodge will return the visit of Rose City lodge.

Fraternal Brotherhood.

Oregon City lodge, No. 302, The Fraternal Brotherhood, met in Willamette hall Wednesday night, and after the regular business meeting the following were elected officers to serve a term of six months: President, R. A. Sawyer; vice president, A. M. Sinnott; secretary, J. T. Searle; chaplain, Mrs. Pauline Schwartz; sergeant at arms, T. C. Duffy; mistress at arms, Mrs. R. A. Sawyer; inside door keeper, H. W. Morris; outside door keeper, Mrs. Fred Metzner; musicians, Miss Bertha Friedrich and Mrs. T. C. Duffy. Three candidates were obligated as members. The members of the lodge are making preparations to go to the Armory hall in Portland on the night of July 2, when over 500 candidates will receive the full initiatory work of the order.

Smith—Moore.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, at Clackamas Heights, when their daughter, Miss Lena May Moore, became the wife of Cooby V. Smith. The ceremony was performed at high noon, Wednesday, in the presence of only the family and most intimate friends by the Rev. W. R. Kraxberger of the Science Lutheran church of Oregon City. The house was a bower of loveliness with the decorations of flowers and ferns. The ceremony was followed by a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

Crane—Dodge.

A quiet June wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevens, 301 Sixth street, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, when Miss Nettie Dodge of Redding, Cal., and Mr. Ray Crane of Newberg, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. Crane will go to house-keeping in Yamhill county where Mr. Crane is a prosperous farmer.

Man Kept a Secret!

A happy surprise was given the ladies assembled at Myrtle lodge, Degree of Honor, in A. O. U. W. hall Tuesday evening. R. G. Pierce brought in some luscious strawberries with an accompaniment of rich cream from his Falls View place. Mrs. Pierce was as much surprised as any of the other ladies, which proves a man can keep a secret after all.

Fortieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Pringle whose fortieth wedding anniversary occurred Tuesday, were delightfully surprised Monday evening by about twenty of their neighbors and friends at their home on Taylor street in honor of the happy event. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and an informally social time enjoyed in this hospitable home.

Craig—Hewitt.
