

SENTENCE OLD MAN TO INDETERMINATE TERM

McCoy, Charged With Criminal Assault, Sent to Penitentiary

PUGILIST IN TROUBLE

"Mysterious Billy" Smith Weds Two Days Before Decree of Divorce From First Wife Is Signed.

D. McCoy, the elderly man who has been confined in the county jail for several weeks charged with attempted criminal assault on a little girl at Milwaukie, was arraigned before Judge McBride at noon Tuesday. He pleaded guilty and before sentence was passed made a statement to the court. He was given an indeterminate term of from one to ten years in the penitentiary. The man has no relatives in this part of the country.

The trial of the Wolfers vs. Ritter cases lasted over from Monday, and the arguments are still to be heard Tuesday afternoon.

The second trial of James Dillon, charged with burglary, will immediately follow the conclusion of the Wolfers vs. Ritter case.

Guilty of Bigamy.

"Mysterious Billy" Smith, of Portland, the ex-prize fighter who was married in Oregon City Saturday afternoon to Miss Josephine Barde by County Judge Dimick, was in too much of a hurry and now finds himself in a tighter place than ever he did in the ring. The first Mrs. "Mysterious" Smith was suing him for divorce in Portland, but the decree was not signed until Monday, June 10, two days after his marriage to Miss Barde here. The Portland judge asserts that "Billy" is guilty of bigamy.

OREGON GIRLS IN NATIONAL CAPITAL

From Washington (D. C.) Herald.

In Oregon, where trees grow a mile high; where they raise pumpkins and then cut out the pulp and live in them; where men play billiards with green peas and wheat stalks, and where everyone is afraid to die, lest the happy hunting grounds should prove a very inferior sort of place indeed, fifteen happy homes are sighing for the return of fifteen dancing-eyed damsels who waved farewell to Washington from the decks of the Jamestown steamer last evening, after two joyous days in the only genuine national capital.

With that breeziness of manner always associated with the west, but usually found in New York City, Mr. Bates' sturdy young charges, headed by their equally young chaperone, Mrs. C. E. Redfield, of Morrow county, Oregon, hit all the high places, threw a giggle at everything, that could tease a laugh out of an hysterical patient, clipped a bunch of brass buttons for souvenirs, broke off hunks of the capitol, library and monument, flipped a smile at remonstrating guards, and then set sail for Jamestown. If Jamestown hasn't settled since 1607 they will settle it.

"Yesterday was their star day. In the morning they poked around the Center market stalls trying to find something that looked as if it had been grown or fed in Oregon. Nothing looked like home.

"Oh, look at that cute little strawberry," exclaimed one of the fair farmeresses, pointing to an assortment of the largest and best that poor benighted effete easterners have to put up with in their shortcake.

"What foolish-looking asparagus," said another. "Why, you would have to eat several stalks at one meal!"

The market man said nothing but "The butter's spread too thick."

When the creaking elevator finally brought the Oregonians to the top of the monument, and they scattered to the eight windows to gaze on the mighty panorama below, it seemed that at last they had met with something to tame their girlish exuberance. They gazed long and earnestly at the vast spread of landscape before them. "Fine view," said the guard, encouragingly.

"Yes, very pretty," replied the accosted one, "but you ought to see the view from the top of our old apple tree."

They tenderly carried the guard into the little office and brought him back to consciousness.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

A beautiful bay, 16 hands high weighs 1545 pounds, splendid coach action, that was admired so much at the Lewis and Clark Show, where he stood third in a class of Coach stallions that could not be beaten on either continent.
