

LETTERS BY HAYWOOD

Wrote to Mrs. Orchard in Furtherance of Her Husband's Design.

TRIAL DRAGS SLOWLY

Articles Written by Defendant For Miners' Magazine Are Offered In Evidence by Prosecution Today.

Special to Daily Star. Boise, Id., June 19—The trial drags slowly today. Articles from the Miners Magazine written by Wm. D. Haywood, were offered in evidence by the prosecution. The defense fought unsuccessfully against their introduction, consuming the entire morning.

Wrote to Mrs. Orchard.

Boise, Id., June 19—The prosecution in the Stouenbergh murder trial offered one of its most important pieces of evidence against William D. Haywood yesterday when recalling Harry Orchard for re-direct examination. It introduced and secured the admission of four letters tending to show that Haywood, during the fall of 1905, when Orchard swears he was engaged on various crimes for the Federation leaders, had participated in a plan to deceive Mrs. Orchard, the second, of Cripple Creek, as to the whereabouts of her husband.

Over a variety of protests from the defense, Orchard was allowed to testify that early in the summer of 1905, Haywood told him that Mrs. Orchard was writing him for information as to Orchard's whereabouts. Orchard swore that he proposed that he should write his wife a series of letters that were to be falsely dated and delivered to Mrs. Orchard by agents of the Federation.

He said that he first wrote two letters which he dated at San Francisco and had them delivered through Paddy Mulliney, who represented the Federation at Cripple Creek. Orchard identified the two letters and overruling all objections of the defense, Judge Wood admitted them.

Next Orchard swore that he wrote a third letter purporting to come from Nome, Alaska, and that under the general arrangement that he had made with the Federation officials, Marion Moore carried the letter to Nome, where he went as organizer of the Federation, and posted it. This letter, bearing the date of Nome, August 5, 1905, was produced, identified and admitted in evidence.

Orchard then identified a letter which Haywood wrote to Mrs. Orchard, and that, too, was admitted in evidence and handed to the jury. It was as follows:

"Denver, Nov. 18, 1905—Mrs. H. Orchard—Dear Madam and Sister: I have not heard a word since I saw you. The last information I got was from Alaska. I think Fairchild was the name of the place. I see that awful conditions prevail among the law and order element. Yours very truly, —W. D. Haywood."

The three letters written by Orchard were commonplace and contained practically nothing bearing on the case or Orchard's testimony, except references to the arrangement which Orchard said he made with the Federation officials for the care of his wife while he was absent.

SOCIAL DOINGS

Moak Hinman.

Miss Edith Moak and Mr. Walter Hinman of Parkplace were married at the home of the bride's father, Peter Moak, Wednesday evening at 7:30. Owing to the recent bereavement in the family the wedding was a very quiet one, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. R. C. Blackwell of the Methodist Episcopal church of Oregon City, in the presence of only the immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Hinman will go to housekeeping at Lents.

Read—White.

Miss Cora White and Walter Read, two well known and popular young people of this city, will be married at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. White of Fourth and Railroad streets. The bridesmaid will be Miss Bertha Runyan, while the groom will be attended by Samuel Carmichel. The bride will be attired in a white silk gown and will carry a bouquet of cream roses. About fifty guests have been invited, and the affair promises to be one of the most brilliant social functions that has happened in this city for some time. The house has been beautifully decorated with roses, ferns, sweet peas, and Oregon grape and presents a sight pleasing to the eye. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. R. C. Blackwell. After congratulations and the wedding supper, the couple will leave for a short honeymoon after which they will reside in Sellwood, where a house has already been prepared for them. Both of the parties are well respected in this city, and carry with them the best wishes of the entire community.

Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg.

A pleasant surprise was given on Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Kellogg of Taylor street, Monday night, in honor of their fourteenth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in a delightful social way. Refreshments were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rainey, Mesdames Flagler, Gottberg, Prindle, Groshone and Lacy; Joseph McComb, Frank Kellogg, Miss Stella Kellogg, and Mrs. Mary Jones of St. Johns.

Visit Seamen's Friend Society.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Beale G. Stone of the Portland Journal, Nanne L. Heaton of the Oregon City Daily Star, had the pleasure of attending the Portland branch of the Women's Press of Oregon, Tuesday evening, in a visit to the Seamen's Friend society, at their institute, 263 Flaxers street. This institute is a place of rest and recreation for the sailormen while in port and is under the supervision of Rev. E. H. Roper, who from nine years of age has been connected with seafaring. Every Monday evening some entertaining program is arranged for the boys. Mr. Roper in private conversation spoke of the helpfulness of Mrs. Stone in her interest in this institute, and through her the club was there Tuesday evening. A unique program was given by the sailormen with the Scottish piper and an example of "holsting the sail." Several women of the club read and recited interesting stories, that were interspersed with music. After the program luncheon was served.

Phillips—Himes.

A pretty June wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Caulfield in Center street, Tuesday evening, when Miss Ruth D. Himes of South Haven, Mich., was united in marriage to their nephew, Mr. James E. Phillips of Seattle. The rooms were beautifully decorated in roses, sweetbrier and syringa, artistically arranged. At 8:30 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin played by Miss Antonette Walden, the bridal couple unattended descended the broad stairway and entering the front parlor paused before the bay window arched with sweetbrier, where Rev. E. Clarence Oakley pronounced the ceremony. The bride was becomingly dressed in white and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. Her going-away dress was a tailored suit of grey with hat and veil to match. A delightful wedding supper followed the ceremony. The bride's cake was made by her mother at South Haven and the groom's cake by his mother at Wheaton, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips took the 6:30 car for Portland, Wednesday morning, and will go at once to Seattle, where he is private secretary to Mr. Allen of the twine and flax industry, and where a neat little cottage awaits them. Those witnessing the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Caulfield, Captain and Mrs. M. D. Phillips and little daughter, Miss Antonette Walden, Miss Muriel Stevens, Percy, Raymond and Wallace Caulfield, Mrs. E. J. Phillips of Albany and Paul B. Phillips of Seattle.

Bridge Whist.

Mrs. C. D. Latourette was at home to the bridge whist club Tuesday. The afternoon was delightfully spent in the fascinating game. The favors were won by Mrs. John P. Keating and Mrs. Llewellyn Adams. The parlors were beautifully decorated in carnations. During the afternoon Mrs. C. W. Pope charmingly rendered several solos, and the hostess served light refreshments. Present were Mesdames E. A. Sommer, J. P. Keating, T. W. Clark, L. Adams, J. W. Norris, Lena Charman and C. W. Pope; Misses Mary L. Holmes, Clis Barclay Pratt and Edna Daulton.

Evening Stars.

About 250 members of the Vesper Stella Dancing club of Portland enjoyed a trolley ride to Canemah Park and a hop in the park pavillion, Tuesday evening. The party came in two sections, each section consisting of a car and two trailers. They arrived here about 8 o'clock, the cars being decorated with red and white pennants, and the members announced their coming by the use of horns and other inharmonious noise-makers. Several Oregon City guests were present at the affair. The music was furnished by Parsons' orchestra of Portland. At 11:15 the party returned, all well pleased with the city by the falls.

Wedding Invitations.

Friends and relatives of William Benton Shively, Jr., in Oregon City have received invitations to his marriage to Miss Pearl Peterson at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Peterson at Forest Grove. The ceremony will be pronounced by the Rev. Dr. Bates of the Pacific University, Tuesday afternoon, June 25, at 2:30 o'clock. After a wedding trip to the Sound and Newport the happy couple will go to housekeeping in rooms ready for their occupancy at 428 Hall street, Portland. The groom is a rising young attorney, having just been admitted to the bar and is in the office of Attorney Frank Freeman in Portland.

Miss Margaret Goodfellow will entertain the Gypsies Thursday evening.

Sola Circle, Women of Woodcraft, hold their monthly social meeting on Friday evening. The ladies whose names begin with T or W will serve refreshments.

The picnic given by the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church at Gladstone park Wednesday, was attended by about 100 children and teachers. They had a splendid time. The dinner is said to have amounted to a regular banquet.

RATES TO STATE NORMAL.

The silver anniversary commencement exercises of the Oregon State Normal school, at Monmouth, will be held June 26-30. The name of Miss Maude W. Cooke of Oregon City, appears among the graduates from the advanced course. A rate of a fare and one-third have been secured but in order to get these rates it will be necessary to pay full fare going, taking a receipt from the agent. This receipt countersigned by Secretary J. B. V. Butler will entitle holder to a one-third fare returning. Tickets should be purchased either to Dallas or to Independence.

LIQUOR LICENSE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the council of Oregon City at its next regular meeting for a renewal of their liquor license until October 1, 1907, at their present place of business, 408 Main street, Oregon City.

BENNETT & FOUMAL.

June 15—Temple L. Prindle and Seigle Coffman.
June 15—Ruby Wessen and Bert Gosh.
June 18—Ruth Himes and James Edwin Phillips.
June 19—E. Vida Dale and J. E. Stubbs.
June 19—Cora May White and Walter A. Read.

BLASTING FISH.

Complaint is made of blasting in the slough up at Rock Island. Many dead fish are floating on the water and a farmer living near says he has heard the noise of the explosions. The penalty is severe against such "fishing" and it will go hard with the man if a deputy warden catches him.

THE ACT OF MARCH 4, 1907.

The act of March 4, 1907, applies to soldiers of the Civil war only and makes no provisions for any bounty other than that previously authorized by law. It does not authorize the payment of any new bounty.

Nearly all soldiers or their heirs have already received all bounty due under existing laws. The following cases only are affected by this act. Where additional bounty under the act of July 28, 1866, has been denied because it was not claimed before July 2, 1880, it may now be allowed. This bounty is not due in any case where the soldier has received more than $100 bounty altogether for all his services, and is never allowed to any but two or three years men. It is not payable to a soldier before he has served two years to accept promotion, or disability other than wounds received in service in line of duty, or to drafted men or substitutes.

Where a soldier receives an additional instalment of the $300, recruit bounty, or the $400 veteran bounty, and was required to refund or pay back $25 of that advance installment because he was discharged by promotion, or otherwise before a service of two years as an enlisted man, said $25 may be allowed. This law does not apply to sailors who served in the navy.

PRACTICAL JOKERS / BENEFIT PATIENT

Stafford, June 18—After about a week of Oregon mist the sun again shines, somewhat tardily it is true, on Monday, as the mercury registered 81.

Zack Elligson and wife welcomed another baby girl last Saturday.

Dr. Sommer was called to see Mrs. Sarah Olrich. It was reported she was suffering from appendicitis.

Mr. Gebhardt brought his son Harry home Sunday from the hospital. He stood the journey quite well, although he was very tired. It will be remembered he cut his knee with an adz a couple of weeks ago.

Mr. Mays, who has been very sick, is so he walks about and hopes for a complete recovery are entertained. One night last week Mark and Billy sat up with him. Billy said, "I'll have Mark tied in his chair before midnight." Soon the stillness grew oppressive and Billy began to nod, and finally went fast asleep, and Mark procured a rope and tied him securely to his chair. Then the patient began to call to Billy for water. When he awakened with a start the ludicrous figure he cut did much to turn the patient for the better.

A petition has been circulated asking to have Stafford mail delivered from Willamette. The people signed it almost unanimously.

The most of the class of the eighth grade took the examination again last week. Some of them had gone away to work and were not able to attend.

Mr. Nimic and others say a good portion of the hops are blasted and the hall of last Wednesday which visited the country in streaks finished them up. If so it will be rough times for a good many.

Fred has purchased the ring and after a few preliminaries are settled with the prospective father-in-law he will get married and the tin-can brigade are impatiently waiting.

CHILDREN'S DAY IN GEORGE CHURCH

George, June 17—The rain has left the crops in fine condition in this vicinity.

Carl Lins and Ed Harders were home from the logging camp Sunday. Will Held is digging a well. He is assisted by Peter Ruhl.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Held have gone to Bethany to visit their daughter.

Henry Joynes came out from Portland on a visit with his family over Sunday.

Hans Paulsen of Portland was out to spend a day on his farm.

The German Presbyterian Sunday school have decided to have Children's day exercises on Saturday, June 29. Children and grown folks are welcome. There will be a program and a picnic dinner in the fir grove on the Lins farm if the weather is favorable. Come with well filled baskets and leave dull care behind.

Sister Agatha, Mother Superior of the Benedictine Sisters, arrived in this city from Mt. Angel Thursday morning to be present at the graduating exercises of St. John's school.

ORDINANCE NO. —

An ordinance providing for the construction of a stone or concrete culvert for the waters of the branch running on portions of John Adams, Sixth, Washington and Center streets. Oregon City does ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. That the committee on Streets and Public Property of the Council of Oregon City are hereby authorized to advertise for and receive proposals for the construction of a stone or concrete culvert for the waters of the branch running on portions of John Adams, Sixth, Washington and Center streets, and in certain real property abutting upon said streets, according to the plans and specifications therefor now on file in the office of the Recorder, and the Mayor and Recorder shall enter into contract with each person, firm or coporation to whom said contract is let by the Council of Oregon City for the construction of such culvert, according to such plans and specifications.

Sec. 2. Whereas, the condition of said streets where such culvert is to be constructed is dangerous to the health and safety of the City, and such improvement is necessary for the immediate preservation of the same, in the judgment of the Council of Oregon City an emergency exists, therefore this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its approval by the Mayor.

Read first time and ordered published at a special meeting of the Council of Oregon City, held June 14, 1907.

By order of the Council of Oregon City.

W. A. DIMICK, Recorder.

There's a Reason for Everything

The reason we enjoy the largest dental practice in Oregon City is because we try to excel in our work. Our work lasts, we never do poor work. The people know it. Our constant effort is to give not "just as good" but the best work, and that for as little money as possible. Our recent trip East to the great centers of dental education, was for the purpose of giving you the latest and best, up-to-date dentistry. Our seventeen years of successful practice in Oregon City is the best guarantee any dentist can give you. A guarantee is good only as long as you can find one who gives it, and then not always. We are careful not to hurt you, as we have feelings ourselves. We want your work and want you to send us your friends. Have an eastern expert graduate assistant dentist. We put our own name back of our practice. Our prices are the lowest in the city for good work.
