

FOUR MORE WANT FREE

Married 20 Years, Married 3 Months, Allee Samee After Divorce

Bride Accuses Hubby of Horrible Intentions—Widower With Four Willing To Go It Alone.

Dalton W. Kelle has filed three closely typewritten pages of charges against his wife, Verna B. Kelle, whom he married at Victoria, B. C., July 3, 1904, and from whom he now wants a divorce. He especially lays stress upon her receiving men at her home during his absence, and her going out at nights. He even says his wife took his daughter by a former marriage to an improper house. He was a widower with four children when he fell a victim to Verna's charms, but he avers that all those charms have been wholly denied him for over a year.

Catherine Moore charges that Joseph H. Moore has deserted her for more than a year and she therefore prays for a divorce and the care and custody of their four year old daughter Helen. They were married at Seattle, Nov. 13, 1902.

Told by her husband within 15 days after they were married that she was a "damn fool," and that "he only married her for the purpose of forcing her to make a living for him," that he "intended to make plaintiff become a habitue of a sporting house of the city of Portland," it is little wonder that Maude Welch comes into court seeking a divorce from Paul Welch. They were married less than three months ago—March 26, 1907, and she says he began treating her cruelly a few days after the wedding, culminating on June 20 when he threatened to shoot her. She wants to resume her maiden name, Maude Wingerfeld.

Emily C. Canning has filed suit for divorce from James G. Canning on the charge of desertion nearly 20 years ago, namely, Oct. 12, 1888. They were married at Walnut Grove, Neb., July 3, 1886.

CRACK BASE BALL TEAM LOSES GAME

Wilsonville, June 25—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, on June 12, a girl, the sixth daughter in the family.

Miss Ehlers of Portland is visiting at the Murray home.

Mrs. William Ohler of Portland is spending a few weeks here with Mrs. Young and friends.

Mrs. Jones of Hood View has gone East to spend the summer at her old home.

Jake Peters' new home is nearing completion.

Van Meeks, the Tualatin butcher, has gone to the mountains for his health. He has been ill for some time.

The base ball game on the Wilsonville diamond Sunday was won by the Spanton team of Portland by a score of 4 to 3. It was a fine game and the country cousins had some work to do. The coming Sunday will find them in good shape and ready to play St. Paul's team here.

DISMISS CHARGE AGAINST CHARLES

The case against James Charles of Parkplace, charged with stealing a watch from William Gardner, was dismissed Monday afternoon there being insufficient evidence in the opinion of Deputy District Attorney Eby.

Through some mistake the charge was entered against Charles of Fourteenth and Washington streets. Charles Charles was not arrested at all and has had no connection with the case other than the unfortunate mistake in having his name used instead of James Charles.

RICH HAVE TROUBLES.

Edward Sam Gordon, reputed millionaire lumberman of Coos Bay, has troubles of his own, so if you happen to meet him don't ask him if it is hot enough for him.

Gordon made a liberal settlement with Bertha Etta Lurch, who claimed for years she was his wife but he always claiming he never married her. Whatever were the facts in that tangle of matrimonial meshes, it was supposed, Ed Sam probably supposed, he was free at last. But now another woman bobs up—another wife!

This last woman claims to be the only real, genuine, same blown-in-the-bottle Mrs. Ed. Sam Gordon, and hints darkly at bigamy. The two women ate lunch at the same restaurant in Oregon City, Tuesday, and to all outward appearances were total strangers to each other. It is intimated, however, by people who have talked with both, that if the two claimants to Ed. Sam's love and affection and ducaats were to meet privately they would need no introduction and they wouldn't scrap either.

Just what the woman last on the scene is after hasn't been disclosed yet, but it is reasonable to presume she will very soon make her wants known.

Gordon first sued Bertha Etta Lurch to quiet title to property here. He recited in his complaint that Etta Lurch had followed him for years, and annoyed him and interfered with his business by claiming to be his wife, and had had a marriage ceremony performed at Vancouver with some man impersonating him. A little later Mrs. Edward Sam Gordon (Bertha Etta Lurch) sued the lumberman for a divorce. By a settlement the first suit was withdrawn, Bertha Etta given a divorce, and Mr. Gordon conveyed to her property in Coos Bay worth $8000. The deed remains in the safe of Dimick & Dimick, Gordon's attorneys here.

It is freely predicted that the supply of Gordon's wives will keep up as long as his $8000 warranty deeds last.

GOOD SEASON FOR BERRY GROWERS

Clackamas, June 25—Strawberry growers will finish marketing the crop this week. All seem very well satisfied with quantity, quality and price of the same.

The result of the second eighth grade examination is very pleasing as all the pupils of this district in that grade passed.

At the school meeting held last week the matter of certain improvements was left to the discretion of the school board. Miss Edna Armstrong will again take charge of the primary department next fall. Miss Armstrong's work is greatly appreciated by her pupils and the patrons of the school.

Miss Mather and Miss Ethel Mather visited friends in Salem last week.

John Lynch of Portland spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Two families from Dakota have moved into the George Randall house. They are undecided as to where they will locate.

NO MEETING CALLED.

No meeting of the board of trade has yet been called to consider the proposal of Jaems Steel and Mr. Adams regarding the establishment of a gas plant here. The promoters claim they have a process of making gas from sawdust and slabwood so cheaply they can sell their product at 50 cents a thousand. This comes under the head of important if true.

IMPROVED STRAWBERRY

Eastern Clackamas Grower Originates One Earlier Than Clark's Seedling, More Prolific than Magoon.

Estacada, June 25—N. M. Tracey's baby boy was taken to the hospital Sunday evening for an operation for hernia. It was successfully performed.

Some of the children in the Crawford and Thomas families have the whooping cough.

Miss Eva D. Pruner and Mrs. C. O. Looney gave a party Thursday evening in honor of their sisters, Miss Elsie Pruner and Miss Ethel Hale. About twenty of their friends were present and enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Walter D. Snuffin, who resides three miles east of Estacada, has originated a new strawberry which is earlier than the Clark's Seedling, is just as firm, and a much more prolific producer of fruit than the Magoon. The Magoon has heretofore been the most prolific producer, outclassing all other varieties in this respect. Mr. Snuffin is proud of his acquisition. Strawberry growers will do well to secure a few of these plants another season even if they have to pay a handsome price for the plants. The Snuffin strawberry is a clear bright scarlet berry with a sweet, rich flavor. It will no doubt be a favorite with growers as soon as known.

The Garfield grange, No. 317, held a very profitable session Saturday. A committee of three consisting of F. M. Gill, W. H. Holder, and E. L. Wonnacott was appointed to organize a club to be known as the Eastern Clackamas Development League, the purpose of the organization being to advertise the resources of this part of Clackamas county.

The following resolution was adopted, the legal voters all voting for it: Whereas, for several years past, we have observed no dissenting opinion from any member of our supreme court in the many decisions it has made, and

Whereas, it does not seem possible that wise men can always honestly agree upon all questions of equity and law, and

Whereas, we do not believe it is a crime for honest men to disagree upon any question of law or fact and a vigorous dissent from any member of our higher court would increase our respect for the independence of the members of our highest court, and

Whereas, a dissenting opinion from the decision in the Marquam case would make us think a little more of at least one member of that august body, therefore, be it Resolved by Garfield grange No. 317, that a good dissenting opinion in our judgment is very often necessary to show that honest, learned men can honestly disagree; that the public welfare is being considered; that private interests have no special private strings on our court and that the stand-in policy of "you tickle me I tickle you" of the late lamented legislature is not the practice of our court of last resort.

FIRST MILE THIS FALL.

Whether the first section of the Oregon City & Molalla railway shall be built this fall or not will be decided in a few days.

If it is decided to go ahead the track will be laid from Main street up Fourteenth street and the canyon southeast as far as Jackson street, thence following the canyon more to the south until Division street is reached. The road here emerges from the canyon and following a west of south curve around the Molalla avenue hill, and sweeping through the small canyon that goes through Holmes park it reaches the Holmes' corner, which is as far as it would be built this fall.

Judge Grant B. Dimick, who is one of the chief promoters of the road, said Tuesday that a few days work of the surveyors would determine whether the start would be made this season.

This first mile of road would no doubt do a good passenger business from the start and it can be constructed for from $10,000 to $12,000.

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do the best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla.
