

THINK WAR IS CERTAIN

Americans In Hawaiian Islands Sure Conflict With Japan Is Impending

DR. H. S. MOUNT RETURNS

Describes Disturbed Condition On Islands—Uncle Sam Rushing Troops There and to Philippines.

"The Americans in Hawaii are sure war is imminent between Japan and the United States, and are much alarmed for the minute war would break out the Japanese residents of the island would capture the government there," said Dr. H. S. Mount, who returned to Oregon City Friday night from a pleasant vacation spent in the Pearls of the Pacific.

"You can't convince the people of Honolulu that war is not threatening. I told them there was no talk of war when I left the states, but that counted for nothing. They point out that for years the garrison of American soldiers in Hawaii has been less than 500 men, sometimes only 250. Those have been withdrawn and 5000 sent or on their way to form the permanent garrison. Then, too, every transport for the Philippines is loaded with troops. Now this great war fleet coming makes pretty strong circumstantial evidence that if something isn't on tap, Uncle Sam will not be caught napping anyway.

"There are 60,000 Japanese in the Hawaiian Islands and it is estimated that at least 20,000 of them are ex-soldiers, so it plain the islands would be quickly captured in case of war." Dr. Mount spent most of his time at Honolulu of course, but visited the island of Hawaii, the largest of the group, and ascended Mauna Loa and to the crater of the volcano.

LIFE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

John Boylan, a soldier in the Philippines, sent home to his parents the verses appended descriptive of American life in the Islands today, that will be read with interest by many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boylan, the parents of the young man, were formerly residents of the Twilight neighborhood, but now live at Kelso. One brother, D. L. Boylan, still lives at Twilight.

You ought to see the snap the army is today,
It beats your farming all to smash—
—better than making hay.
We don't have a darn thing to do,
'Cept now and then we take a hike
out among the hills.
We don't get up till six o'clock—that's revelle, you know.
We lay in bed until we hear the
darned old bugle blow;
But then we get a hustle on and jump
into our clothes,
And get outside and into line just
as assembly goes.

For breakfast we have corned beef
hash.
For dinner, pork and beans;
For supper, any old thing at all, mostly scraps it seems;
Of course we have our coffee, bread
and tea, once in a while,
But though we're livin' pretty well,
we don't put on any style.

And as for clothes, why, darn it, Bill,
they dress us real swell.
I never was fixed up so fine as far as I can tell.
But Uncle Sam is rich you know and
treats the soldiers right,
He even gives them pensions if they get him in a fight.

And if they have fever or a risin anywhere,
He sends them to a hospital where
they get the best of care;
The hospital boys that have got cold
feet,

They don't know how to fight,
But when it comes to nursin', Bill,
why, they are just all right.

Of course we must behave ourselves
and never raise a row;
If we do, we have to pay a fine, for
they spot us sure somehow.
But if we don't cause trouble and
don't make too much noise,
Our Uncle treats us mighty good for we're his fightin' boys.

We are out in the Philippines, for awhile we'll have to stay

But Uncle Sam will treat us right
and send us home some day
And when I land in the states again
(never more to roam)
I'll get a furlough and come back to see the folks at home.

Give my regards to all the friends in the neighborhood around,
And tell them I am getting fat and
feeling good and sound;
Give my love to home-folks and our
dear old mother,
And answer this when you get time,
Goodbye.

COMPANY G STARTS FOR ANNUAL CAMP

LEAVE IN SPECIAL CAR FOR AN EIGHT DAYS SOJOURN AT SEASIDE.

The members of Separate Company G, 3rd Infantry, O. N. G., left Monday morning at 11 o'clock for Seaside, where they will participate in the maneuvers and enjoy camp life for eight days. The boys left in heavy marching equipment and with a full complement of camp supplies including a cook. A special car was left here for them and they were picked up by train No. 18. Arriving in Portland, they with the other companies of the Third Infantry, will report to Colonel C. E. McDonnell, commander of the regiment, after which they will leave Portland for Seaside.

The boys have been looking forward to this trip for some time, and it is needless to say that all will enjoy themselves. Besides their rations, and transportation, the guardsmen will be paid $1.50 a day. The Third regiment will form part of the invading army that will strive to capture Fort Stevens, at the mouth of the Columbia river.

ED. HOWARD HAS SPLENDID WHEAT

E. A. Howard was showing samples of wheat in town Saturday the stocks of which were large enough for bamboo canes. The heads were thick and heavy with the big grains that ran 5 in a mesh. The variety is known as New White Winter, and Mr. Howard has 34 acres of it on his farm at Carus, a part of the old F. T. Howard donation land claim. The wheat will go at least 50 bushels to the acre. He raised 40 bushels to the acre of the same variety last year. His fields will be ripe in about a week.

MILWAUKIE ASKS FOR 5 CENT FARE

Special to Daily Star.

Salem, July 8—Formal complaint, or rather petition, was filed with state railroad commission today, protesting against the fare of 10 cents charged by the O. W. P. between Milwaukie and Portland, and asking that it be reduced to 5 cents.

The petition is signed by Mayor Schindler and 78 citizens. It says the fare to other suburbs the same distance is 5 cents, and that Milwaukie is being discriminated against.

CITY CARRIERS ORGANIZE.

The three city letter carriers of Oregon City met Saturday night and formed a branch of the National association, electing officers as follows: Charles Fuge, president; David Baker, vice president; John Etchison, secretary-treasurer. Fred Holm, secretary of the Portland branch, accompanied by 23 members, came up to see the new branch get a good start. The local branch will be known as No. 82.

WILL DISCUSS COUNTY FAIR.

From Monday's Daily Star:

Pomona Grange meets at Eagle Creek next Wednesday, when the subject of the county fair will be generally discussed by the granges assembled. Maple Lane grange in its meeting brought up the subject and favored a county fair but as its own grange fair to be held the first Saturday of October is already under way, they do not feel like doing much toward the county fair this fall. An entertainment will be given by Maple Lane grange at the hall on the evening of July 27. A good program with refreshments will be features.

MANY TOURISTS ARE VISITING IN OREGON

ACTUAL SETTLERS WILL COME IN FALL WHEN COLONISTS' RATES OBTAIN.

Portland, July 8—Portland is fairly alive with tourists and this will continue for the next two weeks from the delegates who are in attendance upon the convention of the National Educational association, the Christian Endeavor and the Baptist Young People. The Commercial Club is especially active in circulating copies of its $5000 prize offer to these delegates.

The colonist rates go into effect September 1 and continue until October 31. This is the rate that brings the actual settlers to Oregon and means that people can come to this state from Kansas City, St. Paul, Minneapolis, and all the great territory between the Missouri river and the Rocky mountains for $25.00; (to all points east of Umatilla, $22.50); St. Louis $20.00; from Chicago, $33. It should be borne in mind that the most important thing of all is that these people must buy their tickets direct to the towns they want to reach. This is true with regard to Medford, Eugene, Oregon City, Astoria and every other city or town in Oregon. Many people get the impression that they can come to Portland and then continue their trip to point of destination, and it devolves upon each and every community in Oregon to advertise this fact, and through the correspondence and advertising of their people, get new settlers.

Through the assistance of the Commercial club, Mr. J. D. Lee, president of the Oregon Pioneer association, forwarded photographs of Mrs. Mary Ramsey Lemons Wood, aged 120 years, who was crowned Queen of Oregon on the Fourth of July, also of General George H. Williams, who performed the ceremony, to 150 of the leading papers of the United States, accompanied by a story which will call to mind the splendid health giving qualities of the Oregon climate.

The red fires which burned on the summits of Mt. Hood, St. Helens, and Adams were plainly visible from Portland July 4.

The dinner to the Hon. James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, at the Commercial Club Saturday night, July 13, promises to be the most representative affair of its kind given thus far during 1907. The following Monday Vice President Fairbanks will be entertained at dinner at Seaside by the citizens of Astoria and invited guests.

The Charleston and the Paul Jones of the Pacific Coast Naval Station participated in the Fourth of July festivities, but will go to Astoria to be present during the visit of Vice President Fairbanks.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

J. L. Swafford has resigned his place at J. E. Jack's grocery. Saturday was his last day. Mr. Swafford has obligingly waited upon customers there for the last four years. He has not decided his new work. He is one of the gatekeepers during the Chautauqua.
