

HITS FROM SHOULDER

Rev. John M. Linden Speaks Forcibly and Directly in Sermon Sunday

Large Crowd Hears First Address at Midsummer Series of Open Air Services—Chorus Singing.

"How about the mayor of Oregon City? He ought to be converted if he is not already a good christian man," declared Rev. John M. Linden, pastor of the First Baptist church, in his sermon at the first of the midsummer union services in the city park, Sunday night.

The speaker did not mean anything derogatory to Mayor Caulfield. He was describing the methods of the famous evangelist, Rev. William A. Sunday, better known as "Billy" Sunday, ex-member of Anson's old Chicago White Stockings, the Pittsburghs and other National league teams.

Sunday is a peach. He conducts his campaigns on a business basis. First he requires every church to join in and help—not help to pray but to pay. They must raise enough to put up a wooden tabernacle and defray all incidental expenses. Then they will be put on his list about 18 months ahead for he is engaged for from 1 1/2 to 2 years in advance. Sunday comes; he converts all the fellows no other evangelist can reach—mayors, aldermen, lawyers, merchants, editors and even doctors—and pretty nearly everybody else besides. If he doesn't get 1000 in three weeks he thinks he's made a failure.

Rev. Linden is personally acquainted with Sunday, and he has the blunt, effective manner of speech that Sunday has. His sermon was on the necessity of getting rid of whatever stood between you and Christ. He gave notable examples, including his own, for he sowed his wild oats on the sterile streets of Chicago, until he heeded the voice of a homely woman at a mission meeting, and fell on his knees by a rickety chair where he saw the error of his ways and accepted Jesus.

A large crowd listened attentively to Mr. Linden and enjoyed the gospel songs by the large chorus. Better seating arrangements will be made next Sunday night.

HAPPY ENDING OF LOVERS ROMANCE

Stafford, July 23—Since the 4th we have been having almost perpetual sunshine most of the hay has been secured in prime condition and now farmers begin to wish with the old German we heard of long ago who prayed that it might rain nights and Sundays so hired men could rest. Still nothing is really suffering for grain except the highways which are getting quite dusty.

Gus Gebhardt has again returned from the Hot Springs, apparently not very much improved in health, although he has resumed work on Mr. Brink's house.

Fred Baker and Amanda Doescher were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents near Oregon City on Saturday the 20th and the boys met to give them a charavari when they returned to his brother Mark's house on Monday night where they will live until Fred gets his own house built. The wedding was the outcome of a romance. The bride declares it was a case of love at first sight and the happy day was set several times but the father would not give his consent. To make sure he came down into the neighborhood where Fred was born and brought up, and made diligent inquiries of several prominent men as to his character, honesty and kindness of heart, and receiving satisfactory replies, and brother Mark taking the case in hand and pleading for the young lovers, the father finally gave in and they were married. The charavari was a tame affair. The neighborhood only heard a couple of guns and a bell or two. Not much like the good old times when the din scared all the mice from the barn and left something to be talked of. But in those old days we didn't go just for the sake of the beer or the money we could squeeze out of the pocket of the happy bridegroom. We went for the fun and to see the bride.

A party of six Staffordites—four ladies and two gentlemen went upon the mountain after blackberries Tuesday and brought back every dish full, about 14 gallons, and felt well repaid, besides having a pleasant outing. Mrs. Frederic and daughter have canned all they wished, then picked and sold $50 worth and are still picking.

The sound of the binder is heard in the land and the yield of grain promises to be good.

Lary Schatz returned to town where she is employed in a factory.

The children at the church gave a very enjoyable entertainment Sunday after which each received a sack of candy. The church was very nicely decorated for the occasion.

MISSISSIPPI MUD.

The Mississippi river carries out a greater amount of dirt each year, during its summer floods, than will be dug from the entire Panama canal, and the problem of saving its farms and its navigation is daily becoming more difficult. The Inland Waterways commission, recently appointed by the President, has made an expedition down the Mississippi, and were one and all deeply impressed by the perceptible lack of navigation and shipping.

TEAM FOR SALE.

HUGE STUMP FALLS THRU KITCHEN ROOF

NARROW ESCAPE FOR OCCUPANTS HOME OF JACK GRAW AT BOLTON.

A piece of stump, weighing about 1000 pounds, blown 200 feet in the air, fell on the roof of the kitchen at Jack Graw's home in Bolton, Saturday morning, crashed through the roof and ceiling and landed on the cookstove, breaking it into scrap iron.

Mrs. Foley, Mrs. Graw's mother, who was in the kitchen at the time, was struck with a piece of ceiling but was not seriously hurt. Mrs. Graw and children had gone into an adjoining room just a few minutes previously. This was very fortunate for if all had been in the kitchen they could not all have escaped serious injury.

The missile was caused by Mr. Graw and a fellow worker who were blowing up stumps. They had put an extra heavy charge under a big stump, and it exploded with a tremendous noise, blowing the stump into the air and tearing it into dozens of pieces.

The damage to the addition to Graw's house, which he built new last year, is about $50.

FRENZIED THOUGHTS.

From the Albany Democrat. Uncle Sam's surplus of $1,489,816 yesterday, is as good as Mr. Rockefeller can show, except on a few exceptionally prosperous days.

How do you like the "good old summer time"? Just about now, Commander Peary might make his proposed North Pole trip a popular excursion party.

In his public utterances, Governor Johnson of Minnesota gives indications of asking Col. Watters' back to-the-constitution platform, but as Governor Johnson does not support a mustache, he cannot be Col. Watters' candidate.

The Mayor of Baltimore wants to restrict bachelors to a diet of bread. And yet we are taught that it is not good for man to live by bread alone. Mr. Bryan is gradually becoming known as the world's authority on that abstruse and complicated topic "Democracy."

Wonder what the feelings of the President were, when he noticed that as soon as he departed for Oyster Bay the Teddy Bears in Washington were marked down to 79 cents.

"Stick to the constitution" says the New York Sun. It is alleged that Mr. Roosevelt even goes so far as to take the big stick to it occasionally.

"A shiver went through the passengers" says a realistic writer in a thrilling railroad story. As a matter of fact, it was the Pullman porter.

When you see a man running to catch a street car these hot days, you can make up your mind that he is really in a hurry to get somewhere.

GRAYS WIN FIRST GAME

Large Crowd Witnesses First of Series for Title of City Champions—Roberts in Star Play.

The first of the series of three games for the city championship between the Grays and Blues played at Canemah park, Sunday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the Grays, the score being 9 to 1.

All of the Grays played good ball, especially Roberts, Douthit and Hankins who distinguished themselves by their errorless fielding. In the eighth Roberts caught a hot liner from Hoggatt, after a high leap in the air, and whipped it second in time to put the Indian sign on Melien.

In the seventh Telford and Shaw both stole second and third and scored on hits.

The next game will be played Sunday at Willamette Falls. Following was the line-up:

TWILIGHT

Mrs. George D. Wilson gave a very delightful children's party Saturday, in honor of her son Ford's seventh birthday anniversary. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. F. M. Thompson. Games were played on the lawn and an appreciated feature to the children was the refreshments served. Present were Margaret, Leonard and Kenneth Thompson, Lester Boylan, Kenneth Stran and Lazelle Melind of Moro, who is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle.

The Twilight Civic Improvement club will have a lawn social at Mountain Ash farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle, August 3. Ice cream and cake will be served and a musical program given.

BOLTON NOTES.

Frank Fosberg painted his windmill last week which greatly improves the looks of his place. This is one of the most beautiful homes in Bolton and the painting of the windmill certainly adds to its attractiveness.

Charles Hobbie is building a fine new house on his property below the Bolton school house, which will make the lower end of the town a little more attractive.

An addition is to be added to the Bolton school in a few weeks. It will be 30x30. This will give the children a little more room than they formerly had as the school was too small for the number attending.

EAGER FOR FAIR STOCK.

Captain J. P. Shaw left Monday morning for a trip over the county to arouse interest and enthusiasm for the county fair. Besides the committee, several members of granges and business men were at the meeting Saturday. Captain Shaw, who presided, said a large amount of stock had been spoken for, and that all could be sold in this city with ease, but the committee wish it to be scattered throughout the county. The fair dates were fixed as given in Saturday's Star, October 9, 10 and 11.

Maude wishes to resume her maiden name, Maude Walker.

Surprise Mr. and Mrs. Schnoerr.

Members of the German society and their families gave their president, Gustave Schnoerr, and Mrs. Schnoerr, a pleasant surprise at their home in Schnoerville, near Willamette, Wednesday evening. The affair was in the nature of a farewell to Mr. Schnoerr, who leaves Portland, Friday night, for the East on his way to Baden, Germany, in response to word that his aged father is in declining health. Mr. Schnoerr, Sr., is up in the eighties.

Nearly 100 persons were entertained in the hospitable Schnoerr home Wednesday night. The Willamette band was in attendance and a splendid program of music and singing was given. Speeches were made by Mr. Schnoerr, Councilman A. Knapp and D. M. Klemsen. Mr. Schnoerr was directed to purchase a German and an American flag while on his trip.

It was late when the guests departed all wishing Mr. Schnoerr a safe journey.

BARTON SALOONMAN KEPT OPEN SUNDAY

ARRESTED BY SHERIFF BEATIE AND FINED $20—ONLY VIOLATION OF LAW.

One saloonkeeper, Thompson, who conducts Corigan's place at Barton, chose to defy the closing order, Sunday. He was quickly arrested by Sheriff Beatie, and on Monday morning paid in $20 to the county treasury.

Up to Monday noon, Sheriff Beatie had had a report on all saloons in the county except one and all were closed Sunday, with no attempt to break or evade the law but by Thompson at Barton.

Late Saturday night, Sheriff Beatie received word that the Estacada saloonists had said it would pay them to keep open and pay their fine. The fine is only $20 and the Estacada saloons each took in over the bar several hundred dollars a week ago Sunday. The sheriff made a personal inspection along the Springwater division. He found both saloons at Estacada closed, and while there was a big crowd in town there was no signs of booze. Boring was closed, Sandy also, but Barton "wide open" as above related.

Marriage Reception.

A surprise reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walker at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walker, 1314 Monroe streets, Saturday evening. Mr. E. C. Walker and Miss Julia Strong were married at the home of her mother at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday, July 27, coming at once to Oregon City. The Walker home was tastefully decorated in evergreen and roses. An elegant supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Walker received many handsome and useful presents. They left Sunday evening for their new home at Woodburn where Mr. Walker is working in a bakery. The guests attending the reception included Messrs. and Mesdames Tom Smith, D. F. Whitman, H. B. Walker, E. C. Walker and Blanchard Walker; Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, Misses Lulu Ramsey, Myrtle Wallace, Sadie Kennedy, Elva Blanchard, Evaline Whitman, Mildred Smith, Katie Walker, Edna Simmons, Ella Howell, Ivy Walker and Leita Edmiston; Messrs. ### PLANT RED CEDAR.

Red cedar, from which pencils are made, has become so scarce that it enjoys the unique distinction of being bought and sold by the pound. Most of this cedar comes from Tennessee, Alabama and Florida, and the supply in Tennessee is nearly gone.

Fence rails that weathered the Civil War have gone into pencils. Stumps have been dug up and sold for more than did the trees which were cut from them to make railroad ties. Fence posts have given way to newer kinds of wood and have been carted to the pencil factory to be sold for 10 cents a hundred pounds. And yet this red cedar will grow any where in the United States where the soil does not contain too much sand or clay; will flourish on land that is unfit for agriculture, and will reach a size fit for pencil-making when 25 years old.
